Archie to Defend Light-heavy Title

15-round bout with young Italian conqueror on TV

NEW YORK — Ageless Archie Moore places his share of the world light-heavyweight championship on the line at Madison Square Garden here tomorrow (Saturday) night.

The challenger, who hopes to lift the New York - Massachusetts - European version of the crown from Archie's ancient brow, is Giulio Rinaldi, a 26 - year - old Italian who boasts a previous victory over the ancient titleholder.

Of course, when they met in Rome last October, Archie's title was not at stake.

Moore's other defenses were against Maxim (1953 and 1954), Johnson (1954), Carl (Bobo) Olson (1956) and Durelle (1958).

ARCHIE MOORE, 44, by his reckoning and 47 by his mother's, has a record of 181 victories, twenty - five defeats and six draws.

Philly newsman seeks help for Johnny Saxton

PHILADELPHIA — A local daily columnist, Jack McKinney, last week invited the "good" elements in the fight game to step forward and help former welterweigh champion Johnny Saxton "who is no criminal."

Saxton was ruled legally sane Wednesday and able to stand trial in the looting of a novelty store in Atlantic City, N.J., in April, 1959. He has been at Ancora, N.J., since then.

* * *

"JOHNNY SAXTON is a 31 - year - old orphan, no better off than when he was a three - day old infant left in a shoe box on the doorstep of a Catholic foundling home in New York," McKinney wrote.

"In fact, Johnny is worse off now because there is no one to take him in."

McKinney said the ex-champ is no criminal, pointing out his loot in the burglary was a "few candy bars, shirt and some handkerchiefs."

* * *

THE INVITATION to aid him was directed to fight managers and promoters who "bemoan the fact boxing takes a bad general rap" when its underworld elements make the front page.

"So here is the chance for those good elements to come forward and be recognized," McKinney said, adding that if every promoter kicked in the proceeds from benefit fights, Saxton could be given a home in some training camp working with young fighters— a job at which "he seemed most rational and happy" before his breakdown.

REJOINS OLD MATES — First baseman Julio Bequer is back with the Minnesota Twins. Plucked by Los Angeles Angels last winter when they stocked new franchise, Cuban infielder was sent back to Buffalo, from whence tors reclaimed him last week.

Philly NCAA track meet boasts sparkling lineup

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — The stage is set for the greatest NCAA track and field meet in history, according to LaSalle track coach Frank Wetzler, a member of the Games Committee for the championships to be held at Franklin Field here, June 16-17.

He pointed out three reasons "why" this will be greatest meet.

First, according to Wetzler, competition is tremendous in every event. Nobody is a shoo - in. In the pole vault defending champion J. D. Martin, Oklahoma, vies with his Big Eight opponent, Jack Davies, Oklahoma State, who set a new world mark of 15 feet 10½ inches less than a month ago.

* * *

"I HAVE NEVER seen the track and runways in better condition at Franklin Field," said Wetzler after inspecting the facilities. The composition asphalt runways are ideal surfaces to jump from in attempts for world records, Wetzler declared.

Finally, among the athletes we have a host of men capable of possibly creating world records, certainly able to smash at least five of the meet records, Wetzler felt. He feels that the cinder track at Franklin Field at this time of year is as fast as any cinderpath in the nation.

* * *

WETZLER strongly feels that the 502 athletes entered in this year's meet represent the strongest field in his 13 years as track coach.

Wetzler didn't hesitate to speculate that NCAA meet records might go in the 100-yeard dash (10.3), the 220-yard dash (20.7), the one-mile run (4:03.5) the shot put (61 feet 9 inches), the pole vault (15 feet 9 inches), and the high jump (7 feet).

* * *

THE FIELD in the sprints looks especially dazzling to the veteran LaSalle coach. "With Dennis Johnson (San Jose State), Villanova's Frank Budd, Harry Jerome (Canadian Olympian from Oregon) and Ralph Alpaugh (double sprint champion of the Southwest Conference from Texas), the meet mark, and conceivably a world record, could go in the sprints —especially if Budd retains the same razor - edge sharpness he has shown the last two weeks," Wetzler emphasized.

"There's no doubt about it. I've never seen an NCAA meet where there are so many brilliant performers in each of the 17 events. No one will win a championship this year without the toughest competition ever experienced in the 40 - year history of the meet," Wetzler concluded.

The 8-team loop, first of its kind in the state of Maryland, will roll once each week through August 16, at which time trophies will be awarded at a buffet supper at the Fairlees Timonium alleys.

Competition will move from Thursday to Thursday, thus accounting for the name — traveling league. It is for tenpin bowlers only, and it is interracial in composition.

Member teams are: Johny Unitas Colt Lanes, Bowl America, Glen Burnie; Walbrook House, Normandy Lanes, Fairlanes, Timonium; Perry Hall, Fairlanes Rithie; and Bowl America, Dundalk.

Officers are Martha McClintock, president; Beatrice Johnson, vice president; Marie Morrell, secretary, and Ann Clegg, treasurer.

NFL title game New Year's Eve

NEW YORK — The 1961 National Football League title game, already virtually assured of a record player pool, will be held Sunday, December 31 in the park of the Western Conference champions. The regular season ends December 17, leaving December 24 open for possible conference playoffs.

NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle, who made the announcement Thursday, said, "We couldn't conceive of a better way to end a year that promises to be the best of our 42.

"The only thing that would prevent the world championship game from being played on New Year's Eve afternoon would be a triple tie in one or both of the conferences: In that event the title game would have to be moved back to Sunday, January. 7."

TIES AMERICAN RECORD — Trenton Jackson of Franklin High School, Rochester, N.Y., breaks tape in breath-taking 9.4 seconds to equal the American scholastic record for 100-yard dash. The 16-year-old sprinter has been under 9.6 seconds four times this spring.

LISTED FOR 3 GAMES

Trio of major league prospects with Clowns

Modest on the subject of his own accomplishments, Indianapolis Clowns player-manager Carl Forney is just the opposite when it comes to talking about the team.

Forney was speaking of the Clowns the other day after the team sold Joe (Iron Man) Cherry to the Chicago White Sox and prepared to come East for a three-game series in the Washington and Baltimore area next week.

* * *

THE CLOWNS, who were rained out in Washington on their last visit this way, will meet the New York Royals in a night game at Griffith Stadium on Thursday, June 15th, then swing to Westport Stadium in Baltimore. At Westport, they play the Royals on Friday night, June 16th, and return on Sunday, June 18th, to meet the Winston-Salem Pond City Giants.

Expressing the feeling that Joe Cherry will make good in the majors, Forney said, "We have several other good major league prospects on the club this year."

Specifically he mentioned Alex Harriday, who led the club with 47 homers and .307 average in 1960 and Hal Gilliam, both outfielders, and Second Baseman Ed Craig. "They have talent and major league scouts have been looking them over continuously during a road tour," Forney added.

* * *

FORNEY IS particularly high on Harriday who he calls "a young and top prospect." "He runs well, fields brilliantly and hits hard," Forney declared.

In addition to getting a bookse at these stars, fans will thrill to the Clowns' sensational fun show featuring Natureboy Williams, flashy first baseman; Double-Duty Greene and the Great Yogi.

Harold Johnson in non-title go

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J.— Harold Johnson, world light heavyweight champion, has signed to box heavyweight Eddie Machen of Redding, Cal., here on July 1.

Johnson, who recently won the NBA championship, will not have his title on the line, according to promoter Herman Taylor.

In his most recenting outings, Johnson knocked out Jesse Bowdry at Miami Beach, Fla., and then successfully defended by disposing of fellow - Philadelphian Von Clay by kayo.

Machen is currently ranked third among the world's heavyweights. Ring Magazine rates Eddie directly beneath Sonny Liston, the No. 1 contender to champion Floyd Patterson.

LONG WAS relieved in the sixth inning by 'Rock' Greenland... Bill, Mrs. Davis was paid tribute as one of Colonial's most faithful workers.

The John H. Murphy tournament will be held this Sunday.

TEE TIME:

'Goat' tour is ladies' feature

The May meeting of the Colonial (ladies) Golf Club, Inc., was held at the Chelsea Terrace home of Mrs. Minnie Davis. Miss Minnie Carter was co - hostess.

Each member was presented with a tournament schedule for the golf season, the highlight of which is a "goat tour," currently under way. In this novel contest, players challenge each other in an effort to determine whom is whose 'goat.'

A TROPHY is to be awarded the player with the highest number of "goats" at the end of the season.

The committee has a colorful display of goats attached to each player's name, bearing the inscription: "I'll get your goat and kid too."

WINNER OF pinochle prizes were Mesdames A. Arvin R. Hunt, M. Winston, M. Murphy, B. Kizzie, L. Houston and the newest member, Lois Rosedom.

The club extended sympathy to Mrs. Madeline Davis in the death of her husband... Bill. Mrs. Davis was paid tribute as one of Colonial's most faithful workers.
