Miss H. Matthews

Funeral services were held Wednesday at the Kattie Williams Funeral Home.

A native of Baltimore, she was the daughter of Mrs. Charlotte Mathews and the late William Mathews of the city.

She attended Joseph Harrison Lockerman School for the time of her death. she there she was employed first in a hotel, a factory and at the time other death, she was employed as a household worker.

In addition to her mother she is survived by five brothers, William, Leroy, Vernon, Benjamin, Calvin; five sisters, Mesdames Catherine Queen, Margaret Lee, Thelma Blide, and Misses Virgie and Mary Mathews, all of Baltimore.

Other survivors include an uncle, Steven Mathews; and an aunt, Mrs. Delphia Emanuel, both of Baltimore.

Frontiers

Mr. Mitnick, proprietor of a Pennsylvania Ave. store, took a different approach. He wanted to know why more colored job-seekers were not interested in the retail industry, and wondered if this was not because this had not been suggested to them.

"The cycle has to be broken, he said. "Until somebody takes the initiative, the retail industry will stay lily-write.

"And this will be a tremendous loss."

* * *

IN A BRIEF floor discussion afterwards, Howard H. Murphy, AFRO business manager, took note of Mr. Roy's statement that discrimination still existed in his state agency.

"We've got to keep our eyes open for these areas where the federal and state government authorities allow discrimination," Mr. Murphy stated. "This is the time to move ahead."

Earl Koger, insurance broker, pointed out in a criticism of the school counselor system that very seldom do any schools make contact with business establishments for familiarizing students with their operation.

Dr. Parlett L. Moore, president, Coppin State Teachers College, summarized the discussion subject as "one of the most vital issues in our community."

James L. Means

James Lee Means, 77, 2505 McCulloh St., suffered a heart attack in Druid Hill Park Sunday and was taken to Union Memorial Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.

Funeral Services were held Thursday at the Ames Methodist Church.

The George Kelson Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

A native of Concord, N.C., he was the son of the late James and Jane Means of that city.

MR. MEANS came to Baltimore in 1916. He had worked for the B. and O. Railroad for 45 years at the time of his retirement in May of this year.

He married Mrs. Eliza Means in 1922 and she survives him.

Mr. Means has been a member of the Ames church for 45 years. He was also a former Odd Fellow and a former member of the Knights of Pythias.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Connie Means, Philadelphia; a brother, John Means; a sister, Mrs. Laura Dove, both of Charlotte, N.C.; 6 nieces and 1 nephew.

U.S. enters suit in La. as 'friend'

WASHINGTON — (NNPA) "In America of the '60's, education for all is an absolute necessity," Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said Monday in announcing the filing of a brief in St. Helena Parish (County) School suit in the Federal District Court at Baton Rouge, La.

A special three-judge Federal court is considering a move by St. Helena Parish to close public schools rather than desegregate under a Federal court order.

"The loss of an education to a child in his formative years is an irreplaceable loss to his dignity as an individual as well as to the resources of the nation," Mr. Kennedy said, adding:

In the brief, filed as a friend of the court, the Justice Department contended that states have a constitutional duty to operate public schools and cannot abandon them to avoid desegregation or probably not for any other reason.

U.S. racial trouble 'butter' for Reds

WASHINGTON (NNPA) — Instances involving colored people always have been "prime targets" of Communist propaganda, FBI director, J. Edgar Hoover, testified before the House Appropriations Committee.

"The sit - in demonstrations in the South were a made - to - order issue which the party fully exploited to further its own ends," Mr. Hoover said.

He testified that the Communists first showed an interest in the demonstrations in late Feb., 1960, when James E. Jackson and Joseph North, Communist party functionaries, traveled to Richmond, Va., and wrote articles for "The Worker."

John Anderson

John Anderson, 66, once cited as an outstanding foreman for the Mutual Cromlum Chemicals Company of Baltimore, died at Crownsville State Hospital June 3. He had been there for ten years.

Funeral services were held at the Elliott Funeral Home.

Mr. Anderson was born in Prince Edward County, Va. He was a construction worker there.

He married Mrs. Jessie Anderson in 1914 and in 1919 they came to Baltimore to live.

In 1946, he was given an award as the outstanding foreman for the company.

Mr. Anderson was a member of the Fountain Baptist Church, a former member of the Masonic Lodge and Odd Fellows.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three children Mrs. Viola Williams, James, Johnny Anderson, all of Baltimore; a cousin, Thomas Allen, Prince Edward County; a grandchild, Mrs. Alice Harold, and four great-grandchildren.

* * *

HIS FIRST job here was at the Sparrows Point - shipyards. Later he took a job with the chemical company and worked there until he entered the hospital 10 years ago.
