Dr. Tilley cited at testimonial dinner

The president of the Maryland State Baptist Convention, the Rev. W. L. Clayton, called Dr. John Tilley a "political entity" who sacrificed himself to the uplifting of the colored community as the minister was paid tribute Monday night.

Mr. Clayton was among some 100 persons attending a testimonial dinner for Dr. Tilley who is leaving the pastorate of New Metropolitan Baptist Church to accept a position in the public relations department of Shaw University, Raleigh, N.C.

He had been pastor for 10 years.

Mr. Clayton said that Dr. Tilley's work in getting colored people on the voting list, made them aware of their position in the world.

As a result of this work, he continued, "colored voters in Baltimore gained new respect from whites."

Of Dr. Tilley's work in community politics, he said, "I don't think there has been a man who has done that before."

• • •

MRS. MABEL GEE, director of the Maryland State Sunday School and Baptist Training Union, told the group that "we can be proud that we had Dr. Tilley in our midst for so long."

Mrs. Gladis Taylor, hostess, called Dr. Tilley a "big brother, a friend and a leader."

Dr. Tilley was "overwhelmed with the pressure of the moment," he confided.

Hoping that he could continue his association with the church, he said he would go to his new work with a feeling that it is simply another assignment of the "divine leadership."

Others on the program were Choir No. 2 of the church, soloist Bernard Boyd and Herbert Lawrence and Mrs. Nina Epps.

Methodist minister succumbs

Funeral services will be held Sunday 1 p.m. at Dorsey Methodist Church, Hagerstown, Md., for the Rev. Luther E. Dorsey, 48, 130 W. Bethel St., Hagerstown.

He was pastor of the New Market Charge, including Bartonsville and New London, Md.

The Rev. Dorsey died suddenly Monday enroute to Washington County Hospital. He was dead on arrival.

He was visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Williams, 312 Potomac St., Hagerstown, where he collapsed and was rushed to the hospital.

The pastor had just returned last Sunday from the Washington Annual Conference of the Methodist Church held at Morgan State College.

The Rev. Mr. Dorsey had been a member of the conference since 1939 and was formerly program chairman for the West Baltimore district.

A NATIVE OF Cooksville, Md., he was the son of the late Joseph and Maria Prettyman Dorsey of that city.

He was graduated from Cooksville, Howard County High School, and later studied at Maryland State College toward the ministry.

After being ordained, his first assignment was with the Sharpsburg and Williamsport Charge for 10 years until 1939 when he took a leave of absence because of illness.

In 1953 he was sent to Hagerstown.

The Rev. Mr. Dorsey was a member of the committee of management of the North St. Branch YMCA, Hagerstown, treasurer of the Human Relations committee for Hagerstown, appointed by the Mayor Winslow F. Burhans. He was also a 32nd degree Mason.

He was a member of the Boys Scout Council for Hagerstown.

THE BODY will lie in state at the Watson Funeral Home on Saturday, 3-9 p.m.

Mr. Dorsey married the former Miss Dorothy Brown, Sharptown, Md., in 1951 and she survives him.

Mrs. Dorsey is a school teacher at South Potomac Junior High School, Hagerstown.

Other survivors include a stepson, C. R. Goodloe, New York, chemist; three sisters, Mrs. Lavinia Gibbs, New York; Mrs. Emma Glover, Washington; and Mrs. Kate Miles, Cooksville.

The Rev. Mr. Dorsey is also survived by three brothers, Eugene Dorsey, Cooksville; James Dorsey, Woodbine, Md.; and Janny Dorsey, New York.

Daddy Grace

cities, rented halls or put up tents and drummed up crowds in evangelistic services. When the crowds were sufficiently large they then sent for Daddy Grace who entered in a blaze of glory as the messiah and healer who would preach to the people.

The troupe would then move on leaving a local elder in charge while they repeated this organizational procedure in other cities.

Through this procedure, they would proceed to purchase local sites, running the gamut from small storefront churches to elaborate edifices—reaching from New Haven, Conn., to Florida.

SINCE THE death of Daddy Grace, the original group discovered that their holdings had spread so far that, it was necessary to employ a firm of investigators to trace the titles and property purchased in the name of the organization and to date they have uncovered 125 churches throughout the country.

(Complete list appears below.)

The property holdings were listed under several titles among which were Charles Manuel Grace, Our Father Grace, Bishop Grace, The Holy Prophet, Daddy Grace, Marceline Grace, Johnnie Hero and many other listings.

One by one, the original members of the band either died or drifted away and Enoch Walker claims he is the only living survivor of the de facto corporation and as such has complete legal right to all properties of the body.

ONCE HIS rights are established, he will demand a strict accounting of all money held by the various elders and congregations in all sections of the country.

His first move will be establish the memberships of the various congregations and issue certificates of credit to the members guaranteeing their right to draw or borrow up to $1,200 each against the funds of the corporation.

These advances will be underwritten by cash balances already on hand in a number of banks. Balances on hand with the American Security and Trust Co. are listed as follows:

Account No. 102819 balance $153,444.34;

Account No. 88664, balance $15,967.17;

Account No. 116136, balance $709,884.86;

Account in name of C. M. Grace with ballance $19,080.54.

In the National Savings and Trust Co., the following accounts were discovered:

Account No. 54643, balance $80,683.55;

Account No. 34520, balance $19,675.56;

Account No. 26969, balance $420.37.

Other funds are deposited in more than 90 banks throughout the country, following the pattern set fourth above, the affidavit charges.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY
by MILTON E. ELIGKSON
Serenity comes from the faithful acceptance of God's will even in difficulties. Saint Paul said, "Our light afflictions, which are but for a moment, work for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory." I will accept that my life will not be immune from difficulties, but that I will gain strength and build my character by accepting God's will.
