Madison Avenue festival today

The annual two - day festival at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church opens in the church yard today (Friday).

Featuring games, booths, mechanical and live pony rides, the festival will run from 4 to 9 p.m. daily.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Reginald J. Daniels, pastor and wife, said children who have made the festival a summer highlight, will find plenty of refreshments on hand as they enjoy their favorite games and rides.

Adults, too, are invited to participate in the fun and merriment which has become a part of the festival.

A THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

By Alice Baysmore Manns

Do not let God be crowded out by the hurly-burly of life. Seek Him early in the day before life's problems or pleasures take over. In the early morning reflect on His goodness. Do not wait until struggles prove too great for you to handle but ask for God's companionship before you need it and many of the difficulties may never arise.

MRS. EDITH BROWN JONES and Miss Hattie Anita Tyler, who retired from city teaching posts at the end of the school term, were honorees at a testimonial dinner given by the principal and faculty of the Henry Winter Davis School No. 125, Sunday afternoon, at the Sheraton - Baltimore Inn. Shown at the head table are Mrs. Maude Williams, principal of the school, John Culberson, Miss Tyler, Mrs. Jones, Gordon Jones, Mrs. Lucille Williams, Mrs. Lillian Johnson, Mrs. Lilly Stevenson, Samuel F. Williams and William Jessup, Jr., who presided.

Booker T. Washington Junior High School observed several firsts this commencement season.

The school graduated the largest class in its 33-year history, making it necessary to hold two commencement exercises. It was the first time there were two principal speakers, and the first time the two top ranking students were separated by only a fraction of a percentage point.

In keeping with its distinction as the largest junior high in the city, Booker T. graduated the largest junior high class this season, a total of 641 students were graduated.

This large class made it necessary for many visitors to stand at the exercises.

THE OVERFLOW may also have been caused by two principal speaker on the double commencement program.

At the 10 a.m. exercises, Mrs. Verda F. Welcome, delegate from the Fourth district to the General Assembly, was guest speaker.

Equally as distinguished was the 1 p.m. speaker, Mrs. Juanita Mitchell, NAACP legal advisor, who gave the graduates an inspiring speech on their duties as future leaders.

The Booker T. faculty found that the 2nd, 3rd and 4th ranking students had only a fraction of a percentage point dividing them.

Salutatorian Miss Patricia Scott, 90.84; honorarian, and for the first time because he was so close, the school listed fourth place, Charles Fields, with an average of 90.14.

There was a range of less than three-fourths of one per cent among the three students.

CHARLES DUGGER, valedictorian, had 92.97.

First place Charles Dugger and fourth place Charles Fields were accelerated students and finished the three-year course in two years.

Booker T. may have another first in the making if each of the 641 do as they have elected, to continue their studies in a senior high school.

Harry R. Parker, principal, told the commencement guests that the graduates had chosen local high schools as follows:

Polytenic—4; Southern—5; Forest Park—13; Eastern—31; Western—32; City College—42; Carver—63; Edmondson—96; Douglas—355.

200 teachers will attend NEA session

Approximately 200 Maryland teachers and school administrators will attend the convention of the National Education Association in Atlatic City, N.J., from Sunday, June 25, to Friday, June 30.

Of this group, 183 will serve as official delegates of the Maryland State Teachers' Association and affiliated local associations at the annual meeting of their national professional organization.

Delegates representing Baltimore City are: Mrs. Alma Adams, 1528 E. Preston St.; John M. Belcher, 125 North Culver St.; Mrs. Edwina Duvall, 510 Rockglen Rd.; Mrs. Rene Freund, 5107 Carmine Ave.; Sally Glass, 703 Chapelgate La.;

Mrs. Mildred L. Kahn, 4017 Springdale Ave.; Frances Kearnes, 3519 Newland Rd.; Lyda Keating, Chelsea Beach, Pasadena; Mrs. A. Prunetta Owens, 556 Sudbrook Rd., Pikesville; Martin H. Raila, 6304 The Alameda;

Cephas Rawlings, 809 North Payson St.; Mrs. Frederick Reitze, and husband, 106 Forest Dr., Catonsville; Margaret Stewart, Box 210A, Route 7, Pasadena; Melvin J. Weinstein, 4914 Greenspring Ave.; Leo C. Woods, 2302 Auchentoroly Terr.

CITY COLLEGE GRADS included Marcus G. Wood, David Reid Jr., James J. McClothern Jr., Joseph M. Showell as members of the June, 1961 class.

CORTEZ PETERS, June, 1961 graduates received diplomas at Enon Baptist Church, June 15. Among them were Miss Yvonne Warrington, Albert Williams Jr., and Miss Maggie Brandy.

Ill. House passes school mixing bill

SPRINGFIELD Ill. — The House of the Illinois Legislature last week passed a bill requiring state school boards to promote racial integration in the drawing of school district boundaries.

The bill also would require school boards to follow the same policy in the acquisition of school property, school building construction and the creation of new school districts.

2 June grads win Frontier awards

Scholarships worth $250 each were awarded to two June high school graduates by the Baltimore Chapter, Frontiers of America Inc. at their meeting Tuesday.

Recipients were Miss Ellen L. Strother of Douglass High and Donald Flecher Jr., of Edmondson High. They won on the basis of an essay written on human relations in the city. The students read their essays at the meeting.

Miss Strother said:

"Good health, sufficient economy and adequate shelter are ingredients for happier individuals. Happier individuals are cornerstones of good human relationships."

She said the Frontiers Club could help promote good human relations by aiding the improvement in the areas of health, economy and shelter.

* * *

MR. FISCHER said:

"The next step in human relations in Baltimore is the harmonious junction of races. Now that law prescribes that which most religious sects have long professed — the equality of all men, regardless of race, color or creed, we await the acceptance, the real, heartfelt acceptance by the white man and the colored man of each other as his brother."

He said "time will dissolve much of the existing strife between races."

HONORED — Miss Mary Virginia Morris, principal of School 140, was honored at a dinner in the Stafford Hotel by co-workers and friends in recognition of her long years of service. She retires on Sept. 1. A native of Roslyn, N.Y., Miss Morris graduated from Morgan State College and later did graduate work at Columbia University. During her long career as an educator she served as a classroom teacher, a demonstration teacher, a practice teacher, vice principal and as principal of Schools 118, 128 and 140. She is a member of the St. James Episcopal Church where she is a member of the Altar Guild and superintendent of the intermediate Sunday School group.
