Mrs. Hobart Gregory speaks at elegant league luncheon

By CHARLOTTE W. DOWNIE

Too elegant was the annual luncheon given by the Cooperative Women's Civic League recently sponsored by the East Baltimore branch.

The pretty affair was held in the flower-bedecked dining room of the Waters AME Church, with multicolored roses all about.

The program opened with an invocation by the Rev. Wesley N. Nash, pastor of Waters. Greetings were brought by Mrs. Amanda Lowman, followed by Mrs. Bessie Barrow, honoring past and present presidents.

Miss Myrtle Mack entertained the beautifully dressed guests with her wonderful singing.

• • •

MRS. ELLEN G. WILKERSON introduced guest speaker, Mrs. Hobart Gregory of the Youth Department of Zion Baptist Church.

Mrs. Georgine Rollins, president of the sponsoring group, gave a complete report of the leagues activities after which the visitors were introduced.

As a final tribute, those who have served faithfully throughout the years were honored.

Officers of the East Baltimore branch of the Women's Civic League are: Mrs. Georgine Rollins, president; Mrs. Amanda Lowman, vice president; Mrs. Josephine Maxwell, secretary; Mrs. Arizona Redmah, treasurer; Mrs. Celia Crawford, chairman; Mrs. Ellen G. Wilkerson, co-chairman, and Mrs. Arnetta Moore, chairman membership.

• • •

A GOOD TIME was had by all the gang who helped cute Barbara McGolton celebrate her graduation at a party given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert (Frances) McGlotten at their lovely home 1413 E. Eager St.

Joining in the fun were Richard McKoy, Patricia Alston, Joann Hemphill, William Smith, Kenneth Beasley, Phyllis Walker, Webster Lewis, Zelma Adams, Robert Bell and Ann Dashiell.

Also Charles Coleman, Eva Taylor, Earl Jones, Barbara Johnson, Bertha Richardson, William Hawkins and Ronald Doswell.

A must on your list is to attend the Garden party that will be held on the spacious home of Mrs. Earline Richardson of 1109 N. Caroline St., on July 4.

The fete is being sponsored by the Ladies Aid Society of Faith Baptist Church for the benefit of the church.

ROCK HUDSON and Dorothy Malone zip through a Mexican folk dance in a musical scene for "The Last Sunset," powerful action drama of conflict and passion also starring Kirk Douglas, Joseph Cotten, Carol Lynley and Neville Brand, now playing at the Harlem. The Brynaprod color drama is being released by Universal.

The officers and members of the Royal Mom Beam Social and Savings Club met the past Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marie Smallwood of 424 E. Lafayette Avenue.

The members are in the planning stage of their annual bus trip to Wildwood, N.J., to take place July 23.

• • •

VISITING HER family over the weekend was charming Mrs. Jessie Jackson Dixon, formerly of Baltimore, now of Philadelphia, Pa.

Mrs. Dixon is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Lee on 2111 Druid Hill Ave. Hubby Samuel Dixon, formerly with the Baltimore Post Office Department, is now with the Philly branch and daughter, Beverly attends Morgan State College.

Neighbors remember to take a TAG for freedom from members of the Jackie Robinson Youth Council.

Members are making plans to attend the National Convention of the NAACP to be held in Philadelphia, July 10 to 15. Youth Delegate is Henry Kennedy.

Jersey Witnesses attend NYC meet

NEW YORK — Newark congregations of Jehovah's Witnesses are attending the organization's Bible convention at Yankee Stadium this week-end, according to Julius Coleman, presiding minister of the Iron-Bound group which meets at 136 West Bigelow St.

The convention opened Tuesday. More than 70,000 delegates from sections of the United States, Canada and the Americas are attending and participating in a program based on the theme "United Worshipers."

The local witnesses are pleased to attend another convention in Yankee Stadium, said Mr. Coleman. Many of the ministers have volunteered their services and are working with one of the 20 departments necessary to operate the convention.

It is estimated that ten to twenty thousand volunteers will have been used by the time the meeting comes to a close tomorrow evening. None of the ministers receives pay for his services.

The highpoint of the six-day gathering will be the public talk "When All Nations Unite Under God's Kingdom" Saturday at 3 p.m. This discourse will be delivered by Nathan H. Knorr, president of the Watchtower Society.
