Gadabouting In Baltimore

Mrs. A. Zachary, Daniel Lyle married

with Lula Jones Garrett

Out of the bachelor ranks, this week, went Daniel R. Lyle, postal clerk, Morgan Park resident. The reason: beautiful Arzalin Zachary.

They tipped quietly over to the Edmondson Avenue parsonage of the Rev. James L. Moore, Saturday evening, for a single-ring ceremony, witnessed only by the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James Lightfoot, who attended them, and the Rev. Alfred A. D. Vaughn.

The bride was lovely in beige chiffon, a small pink flower hat and tiny veil, pink gloves and shoes and bag that matched her frock. Mrs. Lightfoot wore a yellow cotton, matching hat and white accessories. Both wore orchid corsages.

THAT REALLY WASN'T a sorority party that feted Lillian Parrott Murphy (Mrs. Carl) on Monday evening . . . but you would have thought so.

The fact is the affair was a shower given by Vernlece Reynolds for the bride of last week . . . but there were close to 40 old-line Alpha Kappa Alphas about to ply her with luxurious linens.

Mrs. Reynolds exhibited her special knack for out-of-the-ordinary entertaining by garlanding the wrought iron ballistrade of her pretty home in bridal ribbons, with a huge rosette at the end and then letting her guests stack gifts from the first floor to the second on the stairway.

After gifts were opened, guests were served ala buffet . . . stayed to chat.

About were:

Sarah Hayne, Marion Reid, Rea Reesby, Dellaphine Warrington, Rosa Hampton, Vernice Matthews, Katherine Gross, Laura Jones, Emma Bright, Edith Davidson; Vivian Cook, Edna Campbell, Flossie Dedmond, Lula Patterson, Elizabeth Nalle, Rosalind Allen, Beatrice Butler, Mary Young, Agnese Browne,

Viola Wright, Maude Williams, Mildred Seaborne, Rebecca Davis, Betty Williams, Jean Turpin, Courtney Valentine, Gertrude Urquhart, Elsie Sessoms, Jean Davis, Mabel Frisby and Lillian Ross.

AND THEN there was that cute "baby shower" given by Gladys Wiggins Davis by her sisters, Barbara Wiggins and Evelyn Scipio on Saturday afternoon.

Gloria Reynolds of Washington, Winifred Davis of Annapolis, Grace Johnson, Gale Thompson, Lillie Wiggins, Alverta Wiggins, Barbara Wiggins, Robin D. Scipio, Evelyn Scipio and Elaine Johnson were there for the shower . . . and later in the evening when the gentlemen arrived, the party was augmented by Willie J. Wiggins, 3rd of New York City, Waverly Johnson, John Saunders, Clarance Davis Jr. and Jack Johnson.

THE SAMUEL M. YOUNGS, JR. had their 11-week-old son christened in Holy Trinity Episcopal Church, Sunday morning.

The Rev. Fr. Van S. Bird officiated and Mr. and Mrs. Luther (Ruth) Jackson of this city and Furman McAdams of Anderson, S.C. were godparents.

The baby is their first child after 20 years of marriage. They have an adopted daughter, 12.

Following the christening they had a small reception in their White Chapel Road home.

Baby, of course, is Samuel Maurice Young, 3rd.

ELEGANT PARTY of the week was that hosted by Gaynelle Spaulding as the closing meeting of the Balti-more chapter of Girl Friends until September (when, incidentally, they will take in new members for the first time in heavens-knows how many years).

The dinner party, Wednesday, was in the Morgan Park home of Dr. and Mrs. Spaulding. During the evening they made plans for the September induction . . . continued arrangements for their Christmas cotillion.

At the meeting were: Gwendolyn Lewis, who heads the chapter; Mae Williams, Elizabeth Stewart, Catherine Law, Anita Wheatley, Olga Parker; Bernice Chatman, Doris Wheeler, Elsie Dotson, Eliza Robinson, Irma Roy, Laura Jones, Agnes Patterson, Vera Williams, Frances Vessells and Georgeanna Chester.

ON SUNDAY, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cox of Dolfield Avenue, celebrated their 12th wedding anniversary at a reception for friends, and relatives.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Cox, in addition to their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Banks of Philadelphia, and Mrs. Fannie Cox of this city, were Miss Venoris Williams of this city and Chicago, and three members of the original wedding party: Misses Eileen Mozee and Carolyn LaVere of Philadelphia, former maid of honor and flower girl, and Mr. Floyd Cox, former best man.

In charge of the guest book was Miss Lydia Nutter of Nanticoke, Md., and serving graciously at the punch bowl was Mrs. Gwendolyn Lamont.

For the occasion, Mrs. Cox wore a sea-foam mist green silk organza sheath with a low V-neck, cap sleeves and intricate waist

MISS BARBARA FIELDS and Pfc. Joseph Martin were married in the Fountain Baptist Church, Baltimore, recently.

Miss Barbara Fields is bride of Marine

Miss Barbara Fields, daughter of Mrs. Rosa Fields of this city, became the bride of Pfc. Joseph Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Nine R. Patterson of Stroudsburg, Penn. in a double-ring ceremony Saturday, at 5 p.m. at the Fountain Baptist Church.

The Rev. Dennis Barrow performed the ceremony, Mrs. Constance Williams was organist and Miss Marjorie Shelton was soloist.

The church was beautifully decorated with palms at the altar, candles, white carnations and white ribbon bows at each pew.

THE BRIDE'S gown was of organza with satin embroidered flowers. The neck line front and back resembled the boat neck style, with long sleeves that fell into three tiers. The over skirt with soft pleats, made of peau de soie draped at the bottom with a rose in the center. Her detachable organza trail fell into a square over her V-shape trail.

Her head piece made of net with silk organza print, formed a large rose in the center of the head. Her bouquet contained white carnations with white streamers and an orchid in the center.

THE BRIDE was given in marrige by her uncle, James Parker. She was attended by her sister, Miss Delores Cooper, maid of honor, who wore a turquoise dress of silk organza lined with taffeta and with a soft pleated skirt. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet with flowers dyed to match her dress.

Bridesmaids wore pastel shade dresses of lavender, pink and peagreen of silk organza, made with boat neck fronts and backs and softly pleated skirts. They carried old fashioned bouquets with flowers dyed to match each dress. Their head pieces were of silk organza with the opaque edging that fell into a silk organza rose.

The bridesmaids were Misses Gloria Gordon, Estelle Parker and Sylvia Patterson of Baltimore and Miss Arlene Martin of Philadelphia.

ADRIAN FITZGERALD, flower girl, wore a frock of turquoise silk organza, head piece to match and white slippers. Brian Fitzgerald, ring bearer, wore white cotton cord suit and white shoes.

Mrs. Rosa Fields, mother of the bride, chose a turquoise silk organza dress draped to the side with a rose, matching shoes and bag with a white nylon pyramid shaped hat.

Mrs. Patterson, mother of the bridegroom, wore brown and white floral print nylon dress matching hat with glass slippers.

The best man, Kenneth Fairfax and ushers were Cynthia Snead was the flower girl.

Lawrence Hunt was best man for his brother. The ushers were Edgar Powell, John Murray and Emanuel Newman.

Hostesses for the reception were Miss Miriam Hughes, Mrs. Edgar Powell, Mrs. Oakley Saunders, Miss Norma Walker and Mrs. Donald Matthews.

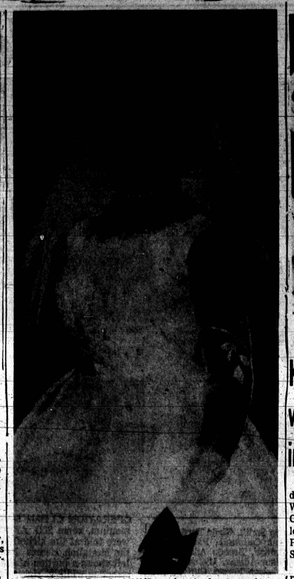
MRS. HUNT is a graduate of Coppin State Teachers College and member of the faculty of public school No. 110. She has done further studies at the University of Maryland and Howard University.

Mr. Hunt graduated from Capitol University in Columbus, Ohio, where he was a member of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He is presently a senior student at the University of Maryland School of Medicine and a member of the Student American Medical Association.

On their return from a northern wedding trip, Mrs. Hunt will resume summer graduate studies at Columbia University and Mr. Hunt will engage in medical research in otolaryngology at University Hospital.



MRS. EDWARD O. HUNT, prior to her marriage in Baltimore, Saturday, was Miss Ruth H. Brooks.

Miss Ruth Brooks wed to Edward Hunt

Miss Ruth Helen Brooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aubrey Holmes, and Edward Osten Hunt Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward O. Hunt, were married last Saturday noon at Douglas Memorial Community Church.

The ceremony, performed by the Rev. Marion C. Bascom, was followed by a garden reception at the home of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Powell of Fairview Avenue.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza highlighted by embroidered appliques of seed pearls and crystal rosebud sprays.

The bodice, shirred with a Sabrina neckline, was enhanced by full length pointed sleeves. A trim bow above the great magnificence of chapel train further accentuated the fluid grace of silk organza.

The bride's headdress was a queen's crown of lace, bejeweled with crystals and seed pearls.

MISS LILLIAN POWELL, cousin of the bride, was the maid of honor and the bridesmaids were, Miss Cleo Ashby, Miss Roberta Woodson and Mrs. Ronald Rooks.

resplendent in their dress Marine uniforms. The latter were Frank Payne, William Bass, Ted McBride, George Pierce, Isadore Felder.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the lower auditorium of the church.

The bride is a graduate of Western High School and a junior at Morgan State College. The bridegroom is presently stationed at Yorktown, Virginia, Naval Weapon Station.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Nine R. Patterson, Stroudsburg, Penn.; Miss Arlene Martin, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Lebue, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Quarles and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Dorm, all from Stroudsburg, Pa.

MISS CLORIE BYRD and Christian Kolom, Jr. were married in St. Pius Church, Baltimore, Saturday. (Jordon Photo)

Kolom-Byrd wedding held in St. Pius

Miss Clorie Mae Byrd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown Jr., and Christian Constantyne Kolom Jr., were married in St. Pius Roman Catholic Church, Saturday morning at 10 a.m.

Officiating at the double-ring ceremony was the Rev. Fr. Daniel J. Mulligan, S.S.J.

Mr. BROWN gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white peau de sole and lace. The bodice of lace over satin had a scalloped neckline and the belle-shaped skirt swept into a brief train.

Her veil was held by a tiara.

Miss Catherine Green, maid of honor, was gowned in shrimp colored peau de soie, and the bridesmaids wore gowns of pale pink peau de soie. The latter included Misses Patricia Chisholm, Adelaide Wilton, Viola McGee, Gloria Breese and Rosaline Mills.

BERNARD WONGUS was best man. Ushers were Charles Chisholm, Melvin Neal, James Thompson, William Byrd and George Jackson.

A reception was held in the Me-De-So Club, and later the couple left for New York City.

They are at home at 1000 Bennett Place.

Tots and Teens, Inc., recently held its third annual conference, last week, using as a theme the subject, "Opportunities Unlimited for Today's Youth".

David L. Glenn, chairman of the Equal Employment Opportunities Commission spoke to the group, slanted his talk to give the Teen-Age division and their friends thought - provoking ideas on present day opportunities.

In the afternoon, the Rev. Silas J. Mack, pastor of John Wesley Methodist Church, Glen Burnie, Md., Everett G. Pettigrew, supervisor of elementary instruction, Anne Arundel County and Mrs. Cornelia L. Smith, social worker assigned to the Baltimore Public Schools, served as a panel which discussed the theme of the conference. Mrs. Norma Lambson was moderator.

The next day, the Baltimore - Philadelphia chapters of Tots and Teens were hosted at a family picnic (where all they have to take was themselves) by the Washington group at Rock Creek Park in Washington, D.C.

Members of the Baltimore group and their families and friends who played, ate, and lazied out the day wire:

Ethel, Darlynne, Debra and William Hunter; Ruth, Wesley, and Patricia Marshall; Martha, Thomasine, and Gregory Watkins; Sara, Pinkney, and Pinkie Howell; Dennis Keene; Norma, Calvin, Annette, and Evangeline Lambson; Carolyn, and Clifton Martin; Ruth and Karl King.

James Jackson, Doris, Pamela and Levi Sewell; Elsye, Simpson and Michelle Fantt; Alfreida, Kim and Fletcher Rainey; Strelsa, Stretler Jr., and Alphonso Gorham, Jr.; James and Marvin Jeffries; James, Irene, Andrea, and James Hill Jr.;

Joy, Louis, Luther, Monica, Luther Bond Jr.; Pauline and Paulette Brooks, Edna and Cheryl Russell.

Edna Russell is president of the Baltimore chapter.

BEFORE TAKING OFF for summer vacation and parts unknown, Les Amies closed for the summer with cocktails and dinner at the home of Mrs. Stewart.

As a part of the evening's entertainment, they included seeing the play "On Borrowed Time" by the Arena players.

Looking very chic and enjoying themselves were: Catherine Coleman, Frances Gardner, Jean Tyler, Delia Sanders, Pearl Moulden, Delores Adams, Natalie Bundey, Josephine Brown, Annabelle Ruffin, Delores Perry, Octavia Jones, and Evelyn Gail.

IT WAS A GAY group of sorors from the Gamma Chapter of Phi Delta Kappa who converged upon William and Orangie Epps on the spacious and verdant lawn of their summer home Sunday.

The sorors with their families and friends assembled for the annual picnic sponsored by their husbands, now banded together as the Phi Deltaneer Club of Baltimore.

Badminton, croquet, quoits and cards provided organized recreation opportunities; a tempting variety of simables furnished refreshments; and lively chit chat intersperced between, during or after games rounded the afternoon into a totally satisfying experience.

No second call was needed when the men set up a buffet table laden with Maryland fried chicken, Virginia ham, tossed salad and all the trimmings. Each declared that the usual conformity to a strict diet had been totally disregarded, but vowed that tomorrow would bring the necessary revival of will power.

The resolve was soon forgotten, however, when the men later produced a plentiful supply of steamed crabs which, according to them, were swimming in the Chesapeake Bay the night before.

Sorors and families attending included: Mrs. Mildred Barkley, Alberta Briggs, Mary Brooks, Florine Brown, Evelyn Burton, Vera Carrington, Alice Catlin, Elmira Collins, Rebecca Brown Bertha Cross, Miss Emma Davis, Mrs. Louise Dennis, Orangie Epps, Marguerite Freeland, Alice Hazzard, Ethel Hunter;

Lucille Johnson, Louise Jones, Mrs. Josephine Lasey, Mrs. Fannie Lawson, Della Macer, Isabells Manns, Miss Sedonia Merritt, Mrs. Elaine Nickens, Miss Inez Redmond, Mrs. Clarice Robertson, Rennie Roey, Effie Scott, Willie Mae Stanley, Carrie Staten;

Elizabeth Stewart, Maggie Stokes, Allegra Taylor, Helen Thomas, Frances Thompson, Miss Gladys Wallace, Mrs. Dorothy Washington, Rupert Wesley, Misses Eula and Shirley Watkins.

Special guests included Mrs. Ann McIver, Mrs. Alice Payne, Mrs. Dora Foster, Mrs. Grace Heyliger of New York, and Ernest Morris of Detroit.

Leonard Roey is president of the Phi-Deltaneer Club.

WHEN MAXINE HIGGINBOTHAM entertained the Who-Zits Club last Saturday it was really FUN night.

Before and after business, which was conducted in a gay mood, Thelma Bell and Gerry Winkler coached the others — Beth Patterson, Chinkie Dixon, Mary Pitts, Hermione Weaver, Alma Gray, and Ella Edemy — in the new dance steps.

The dancing ran the gamut from individual members to a full chorus line. After laying plans for 1962-63, the members trouped into Maxine's lovely dining room and enjoyed her specialty in seafood cuisine.

ELEGANT ELEGANCE are the words to describe the personal shower for the charming Ruth Brooks, the past Saturday. Hostessed by Gwendolyn Rooks, Cleo Ashby, Lillian Powell, and Roberta Woodlon, the bridal fun took place at the lovely Dolfield Avenue home of Roberta Woodlon. From the delicious repast (entree-stuffed tomatoes with crab and shrimp salad) and scores of other tasties, to the gifts ranging from the bridal hankie and traditional blue garter to boudoir accessories and the inevitable unmentionable finery, the words again are elegant elegance.

Gift-bearing well-wishers were:

Zoe Robinson, Viola Lewis, Lola Matthews, Virginia Harris, Florine Poulson, Vivian Carter, Vivian Madison, Norma Walker, Marian Campbell, Eleanor Tildon, Sonia Brunson, Irene Powell, Miriam Hughes, Gladys P. Woodlon, Lelia Powell, Mary J. Holmes, Viola Wright, and Roselle Hunt.
