As the Burg poises for a long weekend to be climaxed by a fabulous Fourth celebration come Tuesday, two questions are plaguing patrons of the gayiile circuit.

In this order, they are:

1. "What happened to Charlie?" (And if that isn't a cliche, you tell us what is.)

2. "What was the reason or purpose of that police-escorted Cadillac caravan which assembled in the 1200 block Prestman St., Sunday last and proceeded to wind around town?"

The first one is easy. We should be so lucky with the second puzzler, but that's the way the side walks.

BUT IF OUR spies can't come up with a logical explanation as to the reason why 25 or 30 fishtails, with the aid of two motorcycle police escorts, were parading around town on a brilliant Sabbath afternoon, the inevitable conclusion is :

Our specialists of mystery and intrigue have outlived their usefulness and come the next seven, Crawlers will be recruiting a new batch of cloak and dagger operatives.

As to what happened to Charlie? Nothing!

Speculation, rumors and hearsay were flying thick and fast Monday when the Sphinx, without warning, barred the slammers. In an effort to get it straight from the horse's mouth, Crawlers looked up C.P.T. This is the dope as relayed by Mr. Organization himself:

"The temporary shutdown will allow me to clear up many problems which have plagued the club for a long time. Frankly, they should have been taken care of long before now."

TAKING DOUBLE advantage of the brief respite from the routine, C.P.T. has come up with a package deal out of the shutdown. While problem-solving, the man with ideas will also give the club a face lifting.

When it swings back into action, in a couple of brights and darks, patron will find a new paint job, decorations and carpets yet. So now you know !

NOW BACK TO a week-end of solid happenings. And this being the end of seven which stretches over to the Fourth, picnics, outings and beaches are the order of the day.

So to make yours unforgettable, you can't go wrong if you ease down Annapolis way and look in on Algonon Prestwidge and Carr's.

Here's what you'll find:

If you hit there on Sunday, Lloyd Price and his 15-piece band will be manning the podium. As a bonus, he'll be underplayed by Wilburn "Kansas City" Harrison, Del Viking Trio, the Spaniels, Bernard Byers and Bobby Lamp. What's more, the whole package will swing until the wee hours of the a.m.

Monday, in case there is any doubt, will be a holiday "before" the holiday. The beach will shut down to allow patrons to recuperate in order that they may return on Tuesday for a repeat performance, plus some.

In addition to restaging the entire Sunday's show, "Press" has tapped the fabulous Sam Cook as special guest to aid and abet the above attraction.

Then, of course, there will be swimming, dancing, chowing and generally a winging good time. So, like you can hardly afford to miss out.

WHILE YET on the edge of the Monumental jungle, Frank Reddish's Dotson's beckons. And there's good reason.

Soothing your musical love will be the Claude Grant Organ Trio. The food (bar-B-cue) and liquids department will make sure that hunger is abated and thirsts quenched. And Crawlers want ya to know that both do a bang up job.

Speaking of bar - b - cue feasts and fine vittles, you can enhance your holiday by dropping out Randallstown way, where the Oakland Park Country Club throws its annual 4th of July Family bar-b-cue festival.

Arranged with the intimate family cookout in mind, this is also an entertainment in a traditional country setting which rivals the most cherished memory of gracious living.

Grabbing off the spotlight Sunday inside of the cement jungle will be the second presentation of M. and R. Productions, which blasted on the scene a couple of sevens ago.

As you recall their "Jazz for the People, Part I" was something else again a dance of Sabbaths ago. Hot on the heels of that smash hit where Gloria Lynn and Art Blakey slayed jazz lovers, comes "Jazz for the People, Part II," Sunday, 6 and 9:30 p.m.

A glance at the bill hardly takes any imagination to see that this one will really show you where it's at. Heading up the bill is Mr. Soul himself, Ray Charles. He's backed by the swinging Raelettes, and his big, bad, 16-peice band.

Rounding out the ready beeg show will be the incomparable Jackie (Mr. Wonderful) Wilson. This marks Jackie's first Baltimore showing since he was awarded a plaque by the AFRO, dubbing him top recording star of 1960.

It's also the first time the Teardrop" man since his near fatal brush with a mixed-up admirer who used him for target practice.

Thrown in for good measure will be the Sil Austin Combo and the Jazz Masters. And it's all at the air-conditioned Coliseum where two real-down D-J's, Eddie Morrison and Bill Johnson will be at mike side as M.C.'s.

AN INDICATION that gay spots are holding their own is readily seen in the fact that none are planning special attractions for the holiday. Instead, most are sticking with tried and proven people pleasers.

For instance, Maceo's, getting a lot of mileage out of Waverly Edmondson, will do just that for the big celebration. And the way organ lovers flocked to the cozy den the past seven, Maceo was looking for a new invention — wall stretchers!

Keeping the pace it set earlier this season, Casino will be spotlighting another bright star from the haven of bigtime performers.

Max Roach will move center stage, at Casino replacing cute songbird, Etta Jones who slayed 'em during a one - week stint, which blacked out Thursday.

Then there's Walter Thomas's Kleeco which has no need for the spectacular. Economically priced, delicious foods, friendly greetings with a genuine "glad you could come!" feeling are trade marks here.

Greta, Jerri, Shirlee and Alice make you glad you did. Man, like it's regal living all the way.

DOWN WHERE Baltimore meets Greene, Flink, flames Big B has seen the "Lonely and flesh bids fair to give a fire-cracker - filled 4th a run for its money as far as generating heat is concerned. But then this is old hat for the fabulous Flink and his entourage at Chick's.

Best houses to give a holiday listen to solid jazz are Phil's and Red Fox. At the latter personable Joe Rubin spotlights the Jazz Plus One Trio, which swings from the hilt. And you should just make some of the jazz sets here, they are way out.

As for Red Fox, we've found that the mere mention of Ruby is sufficient. Cop one of her sets and you'll see why.

OTHER HOUSES that make like a holiday everyday are Lucky number, and it's Cornell Muldrow; Carnival Lounge with it's Jack Perkins, Millionaires Club with Meat Balls and Hattie; And no there's Mel's Hideaway, where Leroy and the Jazz Tones are a by-word; North End has its Bartz and Co. (Mr. and Mrs. and son Gary), getting solid support from Irvin and Jimmy and a bevy of fashionable greeting lassies.

Vilma, Knotty Pine, the Spot and Jones Cocktail Lounge all have their special touches to please you. Mr. and Mrs. John Q — they are all stone saying something OUT
