Funeral services for Lamont Garrett

Funeral services were held Thursday at 930 Ridgeley St., for Lamont Garrett, 16, of the same address, a Carver Vocational School student.

Garrett drowned Sunday in a gravel pit at Patapsco Park. He was pronounced dead on the scene.

A NATIVE of Baltimore, he was the son of Rosalie and Ernest Garrett who survive him.

He was in the 11th grade at Carver, taking a course in pressing. During the summer and after school, he had worked for a pressing firm on the corner of Fremont and Russell St. He was a member of Shiloh C.C. Church.

In addition to his parents, he is survived by nine sisters and brothers.

They are Donald, Joseph, David, and Allen Garrett; Mrs. Gwendolyn Armstrong, Mrs. Norma Boyd, Miss Beatrice Avery, and Miss Gilda Williams, half sisters and Mrs. Ruth Ellen, all of Baltimore.

Garrett is also survived by his grandparents, Florence and Henry Sorrell; six aunts, Mrs. Ruth Sorrell, Mrs. Ethel Boone, Mrs. Annie Bell Wright, Miss Willie Mae Boykins, and Miss Lucy Hammonds, all of Baltimore.

Other survivors include an uncle, Cleveland Manning, seven nephews and seven nieces.

Final rites held for Edward White, merchant

One of Baltimore's pioneer coffee and tea merchants, Edward F. White, 83, 1106 E. Hoffman St., was buried in Mount Auburn Cemetery on Monday following rites at First Baptist Church.

Mr. White died last Thursday at his home. He had been in ill health for six years.

Born in 1877 in Baltimore, Mr. White spent 50 years in the trade, retiring in 1955.

Mr. White attended school in Baltimore and was at one time employed by the C. D. Kenny Co., merchants, as a clerk.

His first store was on Dallas St. where he sold tea, coffee and spices.

He later moved to Orleans St., near the Belair Market, and then to Pine St. near the Lexington Market.

For a time, the business was located at 420 Dallas St., and Mr. White moved back to his home, where he conducted it until his retirement.

A well known figure to several generations of Baltimoreans, Mr. White was also a member of First Baptist Church for over half a century and at the time of his death was a deacon.

He had also served as a trustee and was a member of several other church organizations.

Mr. White was married in 1899 to Miss Amanda Waters. She died in 1917. They had 12 children.

He was married again in 1920 to Miss Mamie Strickland, who survives him.

Other survivors include six children, Mrs. Blanche Canada, John H. White, Amanda Blount, Richard White, Wetmore White and Joseph White.

Also 16 grandchildren, 50 great - grandchildren and three great - great - grandchildren.

John Tennessee

Funeral services were held recently for John J. Tennessee, 76, of Phoebus, Va., at Pleasant Grove Baptist Church, Adam Grove Va.

Mr. Tennessee died June 13, after a long illness at the home of his sister, Mrs. Ella W. Summers, 2300 Chelsa Terrace, Baltimore.

He was born in 1885 at Adams Grove, the son of the late Rev. John Tennessee and Alice Tennessee of that city.

Mr. Tennessee attended Southhampton County Public School and later entered Hampton Institute where he was graduated in blacksmithing. During World War I, he taught his trade at Hampton Institute.

After the war, he studied auto mechanics, engineering and welding at Hampton.

He later accepted a job as an electric welder at Langley Field, Va. Later he worked at Fort Eustis Army Transportation Center as an electric welder foreman in the Civil Engineering department.

He was there 15 years until his retirement in 1956.

He was also a member of the NAACP for many years.

Mr. Tennessee, one of the former Miss Artelia M. Darden, Wilson, N.C., who survives him.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three children Jesse Bernard, Boston; Eugene Lenard, Newark, N.J.; and Mrs. Artelia F. Bryant, Durham, N.C.

Other survivors include four sisters, Mrs. Daisy T. Williams, Hanover, Va.; Mrs. Bessie T. Anderson, Mrs. Ella W. Summers, and Mrs. Mary Smith.

Mrs. Mary Smith

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Bethany Baptist Church, Mt. Winans, Md., for Mrs. Mary Smith, 55, of 932 Ridgely St., Baltimore.

Mrs. Smith died Sunday at University Hospital after being taken there from her home where she had become ill.

She was born in Mt. Winans in 1905, the daughter of the late Ella and George Johnson of that city.

Mrs. Smith attended Mt. Winans Elementary School and after graduating, she entered Douglass High School in Baltimore.

When she left school, Mrs. Smith took a job at Mt. Winans Elementary School. She was working there at the time of her death.

MRS. SMITH was married to Edward Smith in 1929 and he survives her.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by 11 children. They are: Edward and Ernest Johnson, the Rev. George Smith, evangelist; Robert, Calvin and William Smith; Mrs. Catherine Bates, Mrs. Eleanor Blackwell, Mrs. Dorothy Locks, Miss Leanna Smith, and Miss Betty Smith, all of Baltimore.

Mrs. Smith is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Fannie Bailey; three uncles, the Rev. Clinton Johnson, pastor of Bethany Baptist Church; Richard and Willie Johnson, both of Mt. Winans.

Other survivors include an aunt, Mrs. Alice Savage; 23 grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

Mrs A. Crawley dies suddenly at 75

Mrs. Adelener Crawley, of 1418 E. Biddle St., died Thursday morning at St. Joseph Hospital after suffering a heart attack the previous day.

She was 75 years old May 29, and her children and other relatives honored her at that time at a gala celebration.

Mrs. Adelener Crawley, well-known religious leader, of 1418 E. Biddle St., died Thursday morning at St. Joseph Hospital, where she had been taken after suffering a heart attack the previous day. She was 75.

Mrs. Crawley is the widow of the Rev. George H. Crawley — long-time pastor of St. Paul Baptist Church, Guilford Ave. and Lanvale St., and the mother of the Rev. George H. Crawley, present pastor of the church.

FUNERAL SERVICES will be held at noon Monday at St. Paul Baptist Church. The body will lie in state at the church after 2 p.m. Sunday.

It may be seen at the Collick Funeral Home, Preston and Spring Sts., after 2 p.m. today (Friday).

A native of Lunenberg County, Va., Mrs. Crawley came to Baltimore in 1905.

Active in religious circles she was a past president of the St. Paul Church Missionary society and the Senior Choir.

She served as treasurer of the Maryland Baptist State Convention, and, of the Ministers' Wives of Baltimore and Vicinity.

Mrs. Crawley was a life member of the National Baptist Convention, Inc., a member of the board of trustees of the National Missionary Training School, Nashville, Tenn. She was also active in the NAACP and the YWCA.

In addition to her son, Mrs. Crawley is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Jones and Miss Bertha Bagley, both of Baltimore; a brother, George Bagley of Summit, N.J.; a sister, Mrs. Helen Harris, Richmond, Va.; four grandchildren, Virginia Ann Jones, Benjamin Jones, Armstead Jones and George Crawley; a great aunt, Mrs. Annie Booker of Baltimore and other relatives.

Mrs. Crawley had been active until she was stricken and had attended a family picnic at a daughter's home on July 4.

Burial will be in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mrs. Lillie T. Owens funeral on Monday

Mrs. Lillie Thomas Owens, 73, 2114 Westwood Ave., died Thursday evening at Provident Hospital.

She had been ailing for three weeks. Death was due to pneumonia.

Mrs. Owens was the widow of Charles Owens, longtime waiter at the Johns Hopkins University. He died in 1949.

Funeral services are set for Monday at Carver Methodist Church, where she was a lifetime member.

MRS. OWENS was particularly active in the Ernest Ligon Circle and the Women's Society of Christian Service.

Mrs. Owens was the daughter of the late Allen and Rebecca Thomas of Baltimore. The family lived for many years in the 2100 block of Division St., and the 700 block of Cumberland St.

IMMEDIATE survivors number twenty-nine.
