CLARENCE DAVIS, 2308 E. North Ave., a city employee, was able to find three fellow employees to aid him in performing the good deed of the week.

He and Irvin Jones, Thyrpe Mebbe and Clentham, gave blood at the urgent call of Miss Jamie Hebbe, 611 N. Pulina St.

Miss Hebbe is confined to Maryland General Hospital where she is scheduled for surgery today (Friday). She is the employer of Mrs. Eula Thomas, 2033 Lanvale St., who is the sister-in-law of Mr. Davis.

* * *

MRS. MARY FOSSETT, 1821 Division St., wins our admiration and best of wishes. She is 95 years old, marked her birthday on April 10.

On Wednesday she went visiting after she attended church, stopped off to have lunch with Mrs. Lillian Hatch, 1713 Gwynns Falls Parkway, a longtime friend.

* * *

MISS DELORES FLEET, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell (Claudia) Fleet, is one of the prettiest of the delegates to the 1961 Social Workers Work Shop now in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Miss Fleet, a former supervisor of social work at Crownsville State Hospital, is now on the staff of the Department of Welfare in New York City.

After she completes the workshop and lots of fun in San Juan, she will vacation in the Virgin Islands.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. John Thornton, 4510 Fairview Ave. and their family, have little use for beaches since they enjoy their own swimming pool on the grounds of their home.

* * *

MRS. VERDA WELCOME'S Valient Women's Democratic Club held a victory meeting Saturday after the successful crab feast given on June 30.

The ladies met at their club house, 3423 Holmes Ave.

They are to be commended since they carry on year-round interest in politics. At the meeting, Mrs. Welcome discussed current political issues and members began plotting and planning for coming elections.

The Saturday meeting also served as a birthday celebration for members. Mrs. Doris Tarter, acting vice-president; Mrs. Nellie Howie, chairman of the social committee; Mrs. Velonia Pray, Mrs. Alverta Bowie, club reporter.

As usual, Mrs. Lillian Cummings, president, presided with enthusiasm and zest and the decorations and food were fabulous.

* * *

DR. IRENE DIGGS of the Morgan State College faculty is in Martinique, Windward, West Indies, the island said to be one of the most interesting spots on earth. She is attending a conference on Pre - Columbian Archeology and will do field work before returning to Baltimore.

Col. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Johnson, 4806 Alhambra Ave., are busy packing. They leave Baltimore on July 27 for New York.

Col. Mr. and Mrs. James Fowler and family will arrive in Baltimore on July 24. Col. Fowler is to succeed Col. Johnson as head of Morgan's ROTC unit.

* * *

DR. EDWARD N. WILSON, for 40 years a member of Morgan's faculty, is so rarely absent from duty year-round that his illness last week was big news on the campus. He was confined to his home for a few days but is back on the job now.

DR. GLADYS BRADLEY JONES and Dr. Clifton R. Jones, Morgan faculty couple, went separate ways this summer. She is teaching at North Carolina College while her husband is teaching at Alabama State College. When he finishes the summer session there, he plans to teach at American University in Washington until August.

* * *

DR. NOVELL HUNTER of Morgan's biology department, and Dr. Harold Delaney, chemistry professor, are also at North Carolina College as visiting teachers.

* * *

DR. FRANK DECOSTA also of the Morgan faculty, is visiting teacher at Alabama State College while Dr. Percy Baker is visiting teacher at Virginia State College.

* * *

MORGAN'S personal officer, Mrs. Grace Burke, and her husband, James Burke, left Baltimore Thursday to attend funeral services for his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Burke, Newark, N.J., who died Sunday.

* * *

MR. AND MRS. Talmadge Sullivan of New York City stopped a moment en route to Greer, S.C. for a visit with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Gendlet. They will return for an extended visit in August.

Mrs. Sullivan is the former Miss Freda Goodlett of Greer whose wedding last summer was attended by many Baltimoreans. She is a New York teacher. Her husband is a New York City social worker.

* * *

MRS. OLIVIA SHEPPARD, Subordinate Chapters of the Myra Grand Chapter, O.E.S. at her beautiful home in Severna Park, Md. Sunday.

Enjoying the dinner party were members and their husbands, Mesdames Alice T. Carroll, Bertha Fisher, Margaret Johns, Myrtle Squirrel, Bertha Fisher, Margaret Hall, Evelyn Frisby, Ermine Duffin, Kathleen Oden, Alice R. Matthews, Edith Williams, Mildred Newton, Mildred Cooper, Annie Langley, Geneva Bush and Edith Williams.
