be continually confined.

"There are only 77 persons continually confined. There are 1,156 who can go out on the grounds with supervision. There are 532 who can go on the grounds without supervision. There 13 who can go out to work in the community.

"All of them are completely evaluated and we never let them go out unless we ourselves feel they are safe. In the past, it seldom happens that anyone has gone beyond the grounds."

Dr. Ward added that the "freedom policy" in the treatment of mentally ill persons is not new at Crownsville or at modern mental hospitals.

He said that out of more than 1,600 patients, only 77 are of necessity confined to wards at Crownsville.

LATER, at her suite at the Sheraton Belvedere, Miss Wilson noted that she, and Mrs. Armstead, both of whom were well dressed, had been put in a patrol wagon with a group of "derelicts."

"Now can you live under such conditions? We have prejudice in Chicago, but we have laws on the books to fight it," she stated.

Miss Wilson said she was not interested in making this a test case, she was merely interested in getting some food.

She also declined the suggestion of Judge Finnerty that maybe the case should be taken to a higher court.

Miss Wilson told of four other Chicago visitors who were refused service in Baltimore. One was the legal counsel for the group, Rufus Sampson, who was told to leave in no uncertain terms.

The others were body guards of the Rev. Clarence H. Cobbs, national president of the organization.

The restaurant management has declined comment.

place Provident Hospital immediately, must in the end cost the city and state a great deal more in money and loss of proper training for most colored doctors and nurses and must ultimately affect the health of a vast segment of the population."

THE REPORT has been forwarded to Governor Tawes, the State Board of Public Works, the Legislative Council, members of the city Delegation to the General Assembly and members of the Baltimore City Council.

This was done because the proposal involves both state and city funds and requires the approval of both sources before it can be put into action.

The state has already studied the Provident Hospital situation through a committee appointed in 1959 by Governor Tawes.

The report was submitted to the General Assembly in 1960, and like the newest report from the mayor's group, it too recommended that a new Provident be built.

However, the governor's group wanted state and city funds limited to no more than 50 per cent of the total construction cost, with the public contributing $3,000,000.

It was felt by many sources, including Mayor Grady, that in view of the other hospitals in raising funds, it was unrealistic to expect that Provident could raise the three million dollars from the community.

Backers of the new Provident had hoped that some type of legislation could have been passed at the 1961 session of the General Assembly.

They were disappointed when the mayor's group failed to come up with a final report on the problem, that would have given an indication of just what the city was prepared to do.

AS A LAST ditch measure, several measures authorizing state aid for Provident were introduced in the closing days of the 1961 Assembly, by Mrs. Verda Welcome, Mrs. Irma G. Dixon, Murray Absmann, all members of the House of Delegates from the Fourth District and Senator Aaron A. Baer of the Fifth District.

With the sponsors themselves divided on how the program for the new Provident should be handled, and with no indication as to how the city was prepared to handle its share of the project, all of the bills died.

With the issuance of the mayor's report, and his acceptance of its provisions, the stage has been set for the reaching of a compromise between the city and the state on the question of financing.

Mayor Grady took cognizance of this, with his statement accompanying the report, which said:

"Obviously, the carrying out of either recommendation will involve a joint state-city approach. I welcome your comments and suggestions on the report and on the feasibility of putting its recommendations into effect."

THE REPORT itself covered a great deal of familiar ground, already explored by four investigating bodies which all concluded that the present Provident building can not be rehabilitated and must be replaced.

In addition it was pointed out that Provident is directly in the route of a proposed east-west highway and will have to be removed in any case.

Citing reasons why Provident must continue to exist, the report noted that the hospital is the only one in the state operated primarily for the benefit of Baltimore's colored population.

If Provident was abandoned, the report said, the other hospitals in the state would not be able to handle the increased patient load.

Park, is now under a doctor's care. Her father is a local businessman.

Neighbors in the Forest Park area said girls and women are frequently molested by men cruising the area in cars.

No arrest had been made at presstime.

The girl said the man brought her back to the city and let her out on a dark street off Garrison Blvd. and Liberty Heights Ave.

Meanwhile, the alleged attempted criminal assault on a 15-year-old girl, who charged she was forced into an auto by two men on a downtown street early Saturday morning, was still under investigation by Southeastern District police at AFRO press time.

Police had made no arrests in the case.

Patrolman John Croghan reported he discovered the girl and two men in an auto at Aliceanna St. and Central Ave. at 2:25 a.m. last Saturday.

He said the girl did not complain to him of the attempted attack by the two men, until after he had ordered them to drive away.

The girl said she had been to a dance in Brooklyn, and had been picked up by the two men on Calvert St. while waiting for a bus, the officer reported.

Later, the girl's mother complained to the AFRO that her daughter had been forced into an auto by two men on a downtown street, who stopped and asked her for directions.

he went on, "must be rescued from segregated schools and given the training they deserve and the nation requires for its security and progress."

"The association," he said," will attack all barriers to equal job opportunity whether erected by employers or unions."

The weapon of "selective buying," Mr. Wilkins said, will be continued, "the spending of our consumer income with our friends rather than with those hostile to us.

"While attacking the segregated housing policies that have forced us into the center of urban centers," he declared, "we shall use the political power that has come with such concentration against all the enemies of our aspirations, whether these be from the Deep South or the Cool North."

THE 46TH Spingarn Medal was presented to Dr. Kenneth B. Clark, professor of psychology at the City College of New York. The presentation was made by Dr. Otto Klineberg, professor and chairman of the department of social psychology at Columbia University.

In making the presentation Dr. Klineberg credited Dr. Clark with channeling social science and social scientists "into the service of civil rights," and making them "allies of the lawyers representing the NAACP."

Dr. Clark supplied the testimony on the ill effects psychologically of racial segregation in public schools on both white and colored children in the cases in which the Supreme Court on May 17, 1954, outlawed segregated public schools.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

JUDGE ALVA P. LOISELLE of New Haven, Conn. overturned a ruling by the State Civil Rights Commissioner that a real estate developer could not refuse to sell a house to Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt L. Jones. They charged that Albert Swanson refused to build them a home in the Benham Heights development. The judge ruled that since the house was not yet built, the housing accommodation law was not violated.

450 delegates at Bibleway meeting

The fourth annual convocation of the Bibleway Churches of Our Lord Jesus Christ, World Wide, Inc., meeting here in the city at the First Apostolic Faith Church, 27 S. Caroline St., has more than 450 delegates present.

Represented are Virginia, the District of Columbia, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, New York, Connecticut, Ohio, Minnesota, California and Maryland.

The world-wide church, which includes establishments in Africa, has more than 500 ministers, 200 churches and 50,000 members.

Dr. Smallwood E. Williams of Washington, is presiding bishop.

Also present are Bishop John S. Beane, Petersburg, Va.; Bishop McKinely William, Philadelphia; Bishop Joseph Moore, Brooklyn, N.Y.; and Bishop Winfield Showell, of Baltimore, the host.

THE 12-DAY gathering opened on July 12 and extends through Sunday, July 23.

Tonight (Friday) Bishop Beane is the guest speaker at 8 p.m.

Saturday's business sessions will include the selection of candidates for the ministry. Delegates and visitors and friends will take a bus excursion to visit historical spots in Maryland.

On Sunday, candidates for the ministry will be ordained at the 3 p.m. services. The day's worship begins at 11 a.m. and programs will continue throughout the day.

The final service comes Sunday evening and continues through the usual 9:30 p.m. broadcast over Radio WITH with special prayer for the sick and oppressed.

THE VARIOUS meetings have been attended by a capacity audience each day. The 150-voice choir received repeated ovations on Tuesday and Thursday nights. Other choirs from visiting churches also received acclaim.

The Little Folks Convention on Saturday saw more than 150 youngsters, all under the age of 14 years, in all-day sessions, singing songs, studying in Bible classes, holding workshops and displaying items they made. Miss Betty Showell, daughter of Bishop Showell, is president.

Pastoral workshops have been attended by more than 100 ministers.

GENERAL OFFICERS present include Dr. James I. Clark, general secretary and dean of the Christ Temple Institute, New York; Elder Leroy Clifford, general treasurer; Elder William A. Clark, recording secretary.

Also present are Elder Arthur Morgan, superintendent of the national Sunday School department; Elder Bernard Battle, president of the national Young People's department; Elder Huie Rogers, president of the Youth Congress; District Elder J. D. White, parliamentarian; Mrs. Geneva Shelton, Washington, president of the national Missionary Department; Mrs. Lillian Ford, president of the General Women's Council, of New Brunswick, N.J.

Second space shot is successful

Airforce Captain Virgil I. (Gus) Grissom rode America's second successful space craft 118 miles up and 305 miles out over the Atlantic today in a flight marred only by the loss of the Mercury capsule.

NTHE 35-YEAR-OLD astronaut after his flight that hit 5,310 miles per hour, said, upon landing upon the carrier, U.S.S. Randolph: "Give me something to blow my nose. My head is full of seawater."

He was pulled from the sea minutes earlier.

The capsule was dropped into the sea during the recovery attempt, losing at least for the time being, valuable information.

While the Redstone-boosted Mercury capsule sped through space, Capt. Grissom explained, "Boy, that sun is really bright!"

The nation's first space man was Navy Commander Alan B. Shepard Jr., 37, who on May 5 went up to 116 miles and 302 miles down range.

D.C. CORE warns Hahn's Shoes

By EDWARD PEEKS

WASHINGTON

The Washington chapter of CORE stepped ahead of the D.C. NAACP this week with plans to picket business firms practicing job discrimination.

An ultimatum was issued to the management of Hahn's Shoe Store, calling for picketing within a week if terms are not met on a policy of merit hiring.

Meanwhile, CORE urged the Metropolitan Washington Board of Trade to "cooperate with us in this effort" for a merit hiring policy throughout the Washington area.

THIS WEEK THE
"American Salute" IS AWARDED TO

MIKE WASHINGTON
2700 Longwood Street

James Washington, Jr., better known as "Mike", has been a Baltimorean off and on since 1925. He went to Morgan State College where he played an outstanding game of football. Loving sports and knowing that sports participation helps mold fine characters and teaches fair play, Mike reasoned that all young boys should be exposed to this citizen-building activity.

He started by helping people who had formed Little League Baseball Teams. He offered himself as coach, manager, fund-raiser or as a cheering section for the teams. Many Baltimore Little League organizations might have been out of business without his help!

Mike likes children and wants to keep them too busy to get into trouble.

At one time Mike heard about a young student who had finished high school but couldn't get to college. Through Mike's efforts the boy entered Morgan State College.

Some 500 youngsters in the past 7 years have come Mike's way. His latest efforts on behalf of boys is his work with the James Mosher Little League—headquartered at School #144—Mosher Street and Wheeler Avenue. Eddie Waters and Ike White manage the 6 or 7 teams in the League . . . but Ike and Eddie talk of Mike as the "guy who can deliver the goods in a pinch." If there's a job that needs to be done . . . from getting a uniform for a boy to showing him the difference between right and wrong . . . Mike does it!

The American Brewery is proud to award the "American Salute" to Mike Washington as "Citizen-of-the-Week."
