How To Write A Good AFRO Classified Want Ad

1. IT'S ALWAYS BEST to start your advertisement with name of the article or service you have to offer. If you have an apartment or room for rent or property for sale, start your advertisement with the location.

2. BE CLEAR. Readers respond more quickly and favorably when given complete or definite details. Be sure to include price in an ad, whenever possible — it is the reader's "most wanted" information.

3. MAKE IT EASY for the reader - prospect to reach you. Insert your telephone number. If you do not have regular hours, give a preferred time to have prospects contact you.

4. THE GREATEST READER ATTENTION can be secured for your advertisement by using consecutive insertions. You can stop your ad in the event of results and then you pay only for the days it is published at the rate earned.

5. PLACE YOURSELF in the reader's position and ask yourself what you would like to know (about your offer). The answer will give a good checklist of wants and ad. AFRO WANT ADS THAT FAIL to bring satisfaction do so, not through any lack of readership, but because they are often carelessly worded and do not contain enough information to get prompt action.

In Memoriams 1

ASHCRAFT — In loving memory of my beloved sister, MARY B. Who passed away two years ago, August 4, 1959.
Sweet memories, shadows fall.
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
And though he may be many at rest
They are filled with remembrance, dear of you.
Loving Sister, Elsie

BUTCHER — In loving memory of my dear mother and our grandmother, MARGARET who passed away August 6, 1940:
Dear, bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that never is guile.
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of "the other."
I know He said: "Well done, dear mother."
LOVING DAUGHTER, ELIZABETH and GRANDCHILDREN.

COLE — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, JAMES C. COLE, who departed this life August 4, 1959:
No one knows the silent heartaches
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that's borne in silence
For the one we loved so well.
Loving Wife, EFFIE
SONS, DAUGHTERS AND GRANDCHILDREN

CUSTIS — In memory of our dear ones, EDITH and JAMES, who passed away, August 8, 1938:
Like ivy on the withered oak
When all other things decay
Our love for them will still keep green
And never fade away.
VERLINE ARMININGTON
GEORGIA RUSH

DOUGLASS — A birthday tribute to the memory of our dear one, LAVINIA, who passed away August 2, 1960:
This is your birthday LAVINIA, dear,
Not as it used to be;
The gladness of the day is fine,
You are not here to see.
For you are in your peaceful grave,
And our tears are all in vain;
We know God's way is strong,
The gladness of the day is fine,
It had you been with us.

EPPS — In loving memory of our dear mother CORA, who passed away August 5, 1960:
No one knows how much we miss you;
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost you.
Life hath never been the same;
In our hearts our memory lingers,
Sweetly tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.

In Memoriam

GILLES — A tribute of love to the memory of our dearest mother, MRS. LAURA VIRGINIA GILLES, who departed this life, seven years ago, August 3, 1954:
God made lots of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses, and rain
Birds, and starlight and joyful strains.
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare.
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare.
A Mother as dear as you.

HALL — In loving memory of my husband, EDWARD (EDDIE BOY) E. HALL, who passed away four years ago, August 9, 1957:
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance,
There is a memory fond and true;
There is a talent of affection dear,
And heartache still for you.
Loving Wife, BENNETTA.

HASKINS — In loving memory of my dear husband, PAUL, who passed away August 7, 1959:

Today my heart is heavy,
My thoughts are full of dee,
Oh, how I miss you PAUL dear,
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some say time heals all sorrow
But in my heart it isn't true.
Two long years have passed dear,
And my heart still aches for you.
Loving Wife, SARAH.

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my dear husband, STEPHEN, who passed away August 1, 1960:
We walked together, you and I,
Life's path I thought was fair.
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alley.
But God in His wisdom saw fit
For thru the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky—
For all eternity.
LOVING WIFE, OLLIE MAE.

LUCAS — In loving memory of my dear son, ROBERT H., who passed away August 9, 1959:
Sweet memories, shadows fall
Love's remembrance outlasts all
And though he may be many at rest
They are filled with remembrance, dear of you.

THOMAS — In memory of our dear son, MERVIN FREEMAN THOMAS, who passed away five years ago, August 6, 1956:
The memory of our mother, oh, so comforting and true,
It shineth in the darkness, and it floateth on the sea,
It clings to us, it takes to us, it whispers continually,
It meets us in our daily task, our household work or play;
That blessed, blessed memory, that dear familiar tone
As her spirit watches still and commingles with our own.
