Youth, 16, remains in critical condition after brutal beating

James Bronson, the 16-year-old youth beaten into unconsciousness last week, is still in the intensive care ward at University Hospital in critical condition.

On Thursday, hospital authorities told the AFRO his condition is unchanged.

In what is termed an unprovoked attack with the wooden edge of a 24-inch push broom, the youth sustained extensive head injuries and possible skull fractures on July 26.

He and another youngster, James Jackson, 12, 100 block W. Cross St., entered the B and O Camden St. station for a drink of water. A 51-year-old man reportedly attacked them from the rear and began beating them.

Police are holding Louis Cameron, 800 block N. Bentalou St., without bail on two charges of assault and striking with intent to kill. The hearing is set temporarily for Aug. 10.

The "Dollars for Democrats" campaign will be conducted in Maryland from Sept. 22 to Oct. 2, in conjunction with a nation-wide fund drive by the Democrats.

Mrs. Marie Thorson, of Montgomery County, has been named chairman of the Maryland campaign.

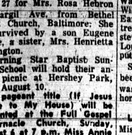
Dr. Clarence D. Long, executive co-chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee, pointed out that Mrs. Thorson served as chairman of a similar campaign in her county in 1959, when it topped every other county in the nation except one, in raising funds for the Democratic Party.

Mrs. Thorson is chairman also of the regional committee of the Women's National Democratic Club, corresponding secretary for the Women's Democratic Clubs of Montgomery County, and executive vice president of the Western Suburban Democratic Club.

She is the mother of three teen-age children, and lives in her husband, Philip, at 7001 MacArthur Blvd. Glen Echo Heights.

ANNAPOLIS DOINGS

BY ELOISE RICHARDSON



A crowd of some 350 enthusiastic people braved the torrid heat here on Sunday to pay tribute to Mayor Joseph N. Griscom Sr. at a rally sponsored jointly by the Republican Organization of Anne Arundel County and the Young GOP's.

Following a buffet supper and social period, national, state and county GOP officials paid tribute to the Annapolis Mayor, in acknowledging such honor. Mayor Griscom made a short speech in which he said:

"This is indeed an honor. I hope I'll have a good administration with everybody's help. It's been wonderful so far: I listen to all sides and then make up my mind."

Ex - Governor Theodore R. McKeldin was the main speaker.

Other speakers who appeared on the program were: Norwood E. Brown, re-elected alderman (R-1th Ward); Roger (Pip) Moyer, newly elected young alderman (D 5th Ward), who also read a telegram from the sheriff of Anne Arundel County, Joseph E. Alton; Frank Wilson, legislative assistant to Senator John Marshall Butler;

Also Saul M. Cohen, co-chairman for the event, Frederick P. Carmody, treasurer of the county Republican organization, served as master of ceremonies.

Phillips (R - Somerset), Edward Miller, Maryland GOP National Committeeman, Mrs. Robert G. Donnell, Maryland GOP National Committeewoman, Mrs. Cloe Lavani, president of the Maryland Young Republicans, and Samuel Hopkins, chairman of the Baltimore City Central Committee, who also made remarks.

John W. (Jack) Steffey, representing the GOP organization and William Smith, president of the Young Republicans, were coordinators for the occasion. Mrs. George Monvid and Saul M. Cohen were co-chairmen on arrangements.

JULY 22, WAS Youth Day at the Broadneck Methodist Church (Asbury), at which time Douglas S. King, supervisor of secondary education in Anne Arundel County, was speaker.

Music was furnished by the Youth Choir of the church and other participants were Cynthia Johnson, Avon Woodward Jr., Connie Johnson, Terry Allen, Henry Anderson, Joseph Thomas, Linda Hunt and Francis Adams.

"POLITICKIN" was the main theme of conversation at Highland Beach on Saturday, July 28, when this bayside summer colony chose its five commissioners for the next twelve months.

Mrs. Bessie Johnson (Dr. George L.) of Washington, took the lead with the most votes. Mrs. Johnson, a speech and hearing therapist in the public schools of Washington, is vice-president of the Highland Beach Citizens Association and is very popular with the younger set as head of their pavilion recreational project.

Others elected were Mrs. Eunice Matthews (Dr. Leon) of Washington, a counselor in the public schools; J. Nelson Fortune, advertising executive of the Baltimore AFRO - AMERICAN; Charles J.
