On the TOWN

We're back again. Glad you could make it, too.

The past seven nights and darks found Crawlers making like Sherlock in an effort to come up with the lowdown on a situation that had night-lovers puzzled.

You remember the proposed transfer of the license held by the Friendly Ghost on Fremont Ave., to make way for the swanky Playboy hide-out. . . .

Well, Casper Pigott, the gay ghost guy, see it ain't so. In fact, the deal is off. In a letter to the Liquor Board Aug. 18, Casper declared he does not intend to let go of the license in question.

Meanwhile the Board has scheduled a public hearing for Sept. 21 on the proposed transfer.

Now just how a hearing is going to hold on a non-existent license is something Crawlers aren't smart enough to figure out.

But that's the way it stacks up at the mo, and we'll buzz you on any new developments. . . .

AROUND THE stroll, the burg jumped like crazy over the long Labor Day weekend, which signaled an end to a long, hot, but swinging summer.

Resorts, beaches, and other suburbian and urban hideouts lived it up while saying so long to a simmering outdoor season and hello to the Pigskin Parade (like man, that's fall, you dig?)

If things proceed as planned, Casino will be the magnet for a big batch of show lovers this weekend.

Wheeling and dealing Charlie Burns has booked in two swinging acts, Jimmy (Mr. Blues) Weatherspoon and Marianne LaVann. Baby seals, Flink and his orchestra completes a real down backdrop.

ADAMS COCKTAIL Lounge down Turner Station way, the Millionaires Club, Knotty Pine, Vilma, and Alhambra, our old stamping grounds, are swinging easy.

Ditto for Cornell Maldwee and the Lucky Number. So like, get with it and swing too.

Didja hear about the guy who took a blanket to the nite - club? We did. And do you know why?

So he wouldn't have to pay a cover charge. Don't shoot, corn grows tall in the cement jungle, too.

TUESDAY, NORTHEND marked its first birthday and what a celebration! Floyd, Irvin, Jimmy and Mrs. B. made like the proverbial lark as throngs of well - wishers dropped in to say "happy birthday, wish you loads more." As usual, Gary Bartz and his jazz Quartet whaled.

One quip that has been plaguing Crawlers for many moons — "What gives with jazz in the B?" — came under lengthy discussion sunday at Phil's, a couple of darks ago.

Phil Harris, who heads up the lone sound group around, "The Jazz Survivors," brought some pertinent opinions on the subject. In the future, Crawlers will let you in on Phil's and his colleagues' feelings on the question.

If you'll catch one of their jazz sessions on each Sabbath, at Phil's Lounge you'll agree they qualify as experts

The subject of sounds can hardly be mentioned unless thoughts automatcaly ring in Red Fox, where another solid bunch of sound men hold sway.

Don Bailey, bass man with the Jimmy wells Continental Wizards, also has some thought provoking ideas on the burg's reaction, or lack of it, toward the cool sounds.

Of course, there's no way to even think of Red Fox without remembering that much-to-much songbird, petite Ruby Glover.

THE HOLIDAY momentum at Dotson's has carried over into another set of seven as waverly Edmondson and his Trio are keeping the "farmers" on cloud nine. But that's to be expected from Waverly, Frank and Sammye. .

Dropped in at Jones' Cocktail Lounge to say hello to Thee's two, two-tone twins, DD, (that's Dukie and Dusty; ya know). Two-tone? Oh yeah, take a look at those hairdos. They are something else. But so are Dusty and Dukie.

And hairdos remind us of glamour period. It follows then that the next thought is Jerri, Greta, Shirley and Alice at Kleeco. Maybe you couldn't call it glamour, but "tall" man, walter, has a lot going for himself, too.

Carnival Lounge is still swaying to the sounds of Mickey Fields and his swinging Organ Trio, which gets a lot of mileage out of the whaling young blood on skins, Harold White.

And the atmosphere here is no accident. Morris and Stan planned it that way. It's real nice, for sure.

Dean of the twisters, Kitty Dean, that is, has returned to Chick's, down where Baltimore meets Greene. Kitty is teamed with a couple more way-out tornados, Lady Lola and Marianne LaVann.

Glad and Ben (Mr. Trumpet) Webster.

We say "if" however, because our intelligence agents reports that Jimmy is shy shy (he doesn't dig flying, man) and might be delayed in making the scene.

Like Sabbath at the Casino, the whaling "ax" man, Gene Ammons had the house a bit jittery when he didn't make the matinee set. However, all was right whe he mounted the stage and blew up a storm for the regular sets.

CREWMEN from the city morgue are shown removing the body of Ivory C. Nock from the vestibule of his home at 1633 McKean Ave. The 51-year-old man was found shot to death in his home Tuesday morning.

Husband dies while family is at church

Approximately 35 minutes after a special blessing had been given for her family, a McKean Ave. housewife found her husband shot to death Tuesday morning.

The body of 51-year-old Ivory C. Nock was found in the vestibule of his home at 1633 McKean Ave. by his wife, Mrs. Lettie V. Nock shortly before 7 a.m.

Western District police rule the death a suicide.

Mrs. Nock and her three children were returning from early morning services at Christian Memorial Church at 2002 W. North Ave. when they found Mr. Nock unconscious and bleeding from the mouth.

A .25 caliber automatic pistol which Mr. Nock had owned since 1938 was found near the body.

POLICE HAD to call the Fire Department to assist them in entering the home. The body of the deceased had wedged against the front door.

Engine Company No. 25 raised a ladder and police entered the building through a second-floor window.

Mr. Nock was pronounced dead on arrival at Provident Hospital at 9:47 a.m.

• • •

INVESTIGATING officers said they were told that Mr. Nock had been ill for some time and had been unable to sleep.

Police said no notes were found at the scene.

Mr. Nock's body was shipped to Accomack Courtlandt, Va. for burial.

Services were scheduled to be held in Virginia at 1 p.m. Saturday.

ANNAPOLIS DOINGS

BY ELOISE RICHARDSON

MOURNERS — The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison J. Bryant Sr., right, were assisted by Mrs. Katie Williams upon arrival at Bethel AME Church on Sunday for final rites for their son, Harrison J. Bryant Jr., 20. Mr. Bryant was a junior at Oberlin College Conservatory of Music and was scheduled to go to Germany with the choir this month.

While this column is being written, your columnist is still out in the old hometown of Indianapolis, Ind., on vacation; having a lovely time. Returning this week.

Mrs. Elva Stephen, longtime resident of Indianapolis, representing one of the city's most respectable families, was made very happy recently, when three generations of her family gathered at her home and that of a daughter to honor her.

The family placed beautiful cut flower arrangements on each side of the altar of the Mt. Paran Baptist Church in her honor, and the entire group worshipped with her in a body at the morning service.

Her oldest daughter, Mrs. Eloise Richardson, pinned a beautiful orchid on her and another pretty arrangement of cut flowers was sent to her by Mrs. Dora Atkins Powell, the florist, and a friend of the family.

Tributes were made to Mrs. Stephen and her children by Mr. Anna Washington, an old family friend, and the minister, the Rev. C. Henry Bell. Dinner was served later at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell Ricketts on Caroline St.

• • •

THOSE who enjoyed the reunion were:

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Richardson of Annapolis, Md., daughter and son-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. William son-in-law, Mr. and William H. Johnson Jr., grandson and his wife and young son, William III, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Robinson, granddaughter and her husband and baby son, Todd, and a grandson, Charles Johnson, all of Dayton, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Orval Brown, grandson and his wife and two baby girls, Karen and Sherri; and Mr. and Mrs. Cromwell Ricketts, daughter and husband, of Indianapolis.

Mrs. Richardson is the Annapolis columnist for the AFRO and children's librarian of the Anne Arundel County Public Library at Annapolis.

Her husband recently retired from the U.S. Naval Academy, where he served as the only colored white collar worker in the personnel division of the Midshipmen's Commissary department.

Mrs. Johnson is a Dayton school teacher and her husband is director for the health and welfare program in the old age division of the Department of Welfare at Dayton.

Mrs. Ricketts is district supervisor for a cosmetic firm.

The granddaughter, Mrs. Robinson, is a public school speech and hearing therapist of Dayton. Her husband is a junior architect. Mrs. Johnson Jr., is a teacher in the public schools.

Mrs. Brown is a clerical worker with the Army Finance Division of the U.S. Government and her husband is a postman.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. Wallace Hall, friends of the family also joined the party at dinner.

• • •

A DYNAMIC personality is a real asset, along with other attributes, to those who aspire to make a concert. Certainly applies to tribution to civilization.

The vivacious and brainy Priscilla Dean Lewis, internationally known beautician and teacher of beauty culture and barbering in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Lewis, who has been in the profession for 30 years, has a background of training which has kept her studying along with her work for twenty of those 30 years. She is a graduate of the Walker, Apex and Poro and has done postgraduate work at Gross Institute and Wilfred Academy on 5th Avenue in New York City.

Mrs. Lewis also studied styling with the famous stylists, M. Louis, E. P. Collett, and Robert Fiance of New York City.

• • •

OTHER INTERESTING personalities and their unique activities:

Dr. Cleo Blackburn . . . director of the Flanner House, famous settlement house in Indianapolis, and president of Jarvis College in Texas. The marvelous job done by Dr. Blackburn merited him a national story in Coronet Magazine, concerning the marvelous activities of this great institution.

Rev. J. F. Johnson conducts a counseling service. Gives advice in legal, business and personal matters privately to individuals and groups. A graduate of the Indiana Law School, Indiana University — he has aided hundreds of people and organizations in protecting them from falling into pitfalls of loss because of the lack of knowing legal procedures and wording of legal documents.

The Johnsons will be remembered in Annapolis for they were house guests of the William H. Richardsons several years ago, when the Rev. Mr. Johnson was the morning speaker at Asbury Methodist Church.

Willie Lee Moore . . catcerer, connoisseur of foods and in charge of the kitchen, a party specialist and food artist for the Indianapolis Country Club. Mr. Moore does all the buying and planning of menus for all occasions of this important institution

Mrs. Genevieve Mentlow Chenault, elementary school teacher has a hobby of collecting relics and other decorative pieces from abroad.

Her home is beautiful and interesting because the theme there is that of featuring art from foreign countries.

She is the wife of Wilbur Chenault, vice - principal of Attucks High School in Indianapolis.

August was a busy month for Mr. and Mrs. James W. Parker of 196 Forest Drive, Annapolis.

August 7 was Mr. Parker's birthday. August 20 her grandchildren (twins) observed their first birthday and on the 26th their youngest son marked his 12th birthday.

The Parkers observed their 20th wedding anniversary on August 31. A surprise party was given for them by their daughter, Miss Sylvia Ann Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. Parker received lovely gifts in silver, linens and wrought iron.

The guest list included:

Drs. Faye W. and Aris T. Allen, Messrs. and Mesdames Hanson Brooks, Harold Baden, Garcia Baden, Harold Clark Jr., Aggie Harris, William Hayes, Charles Hicks 3rd, Hoover Gunn, Roy Purvis, Everette Pettigrew, Edward Matthews, Francis Noel, Walter S. Mills, James McClure, Chester McCullough, Irving Swann, Columbus Wells, Leonard Randall.

The Rev. and Mrs. James Williamson.

Mesdames Margaret Matthews, Pinetis Crampton, and Elizabeth Cook; Misses Carrie V. Parker, Juanita Parrish, and Pauline Hieb.

Mrs. Parker (Evelyn) is a nurse employed by Drs. Faye W. and Aris T. Allen. She is also the lady attendant for Charles Hicks Jr., funeral home. Her hobby is raising African violets.

Miss Evelyn Parker, her sister, Rev. Irene Williamson, Mrs. Edna Hunt, and Larry, visited their brother, Henry Jackson and family in Sylesville, Md. recently. Mr. Jackson is employed at Springfield Hospital.

Requiem Mass said for Mrs. Isabelle H. Clark

Requiem Mass was said Wednesday at 11 a.m. at St. Mrs. Isabelle Hughes Clark, James PE Church for who died at Montebello State Hospital on Sunday after an extended illness. She was 73.

A former Baltimore city school teacher, Mrs. Clark was the widow of Robert Clark who manufactured the famed Clark's ice cream at the 1702 Druid Hill Ave. for many years. He died in 1944.

She was also the sister of Mrs. Grace Hughes Murphy who died July 4, 1960. Mrs. Murphy was the widow of Dr. George B. Murphy Sr., Baltimore educator and AFRO - AMERICAN Co. official.

Mrs. Clark was born in 1888 in Baltimore, the daughter of the late James W. Hughes, a caterer, and the late Mary E. Hughes.

She received her early education in the public schools and was graduated from the Old Colored High School and Coppin Normal. She taught school for 15 years and was married to Mr. Clark in 1913.

AT FIRST Mrs. Clark was a member of the St. Mary's Episcopal Church. Later, she joined the St. James church and was a member about 20 years.

She was a member of the S and S. Embroidery Club, one of Baltimore's oldest clubs, the Fornightly Club, the Wednesday Bridge Club, the Vagabons and the St. James Flower Guild.

She was buried in Arbutus Memorial Cemetery. Pallbearers were her nephews, James and William Murphy, E. Lloyd Davis, Clark Davis, all of Baltimore, and George B. Murphy Jr., and Hughes Carter, Washington.

Other survivors include her two sisters, Mrs. Florence Carter and Mrs. Mary Proctor; nieces, Sister Constance, Toronto, Canada; Mrs. Rebecca Young, Chicago; Mrs. Mary Frances, Washington; Mrs. Courtney Valentine, Mrs. Alice Payne and Miss Emma Davis, all of Baltimore.

Also, other nephews including Harry Bragg of New York and Howard H. Murphy, Baltimore.

AMONG RELATIVES and friends at the services were Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Murphy, Mrs. Harry Bragg, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy, Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips, Mrs. Edith Clark, Mrs. Marie Murphy, Mrs. Emma Davis, Miss Emma Lou Davis, Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, John H. Murphy III, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Davis, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lloyd Davis, Mrs. Sadie Murphy, Charles Proctor, Mrs. Viola Proctor.

Science Shrinks Piles
New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain
New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gentle relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months.
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.
