On the TOWN

On the gayer side of the happenings this seven we find Charlie Burns has come up with a swinging deal.

Beginning this Sabbath, Cold Addicts will get the VIP treatment at Casino.

A breakfast show, holding off at 9 a.m. will generate pigskin fans while they devour bacon and eggs, or any other delicacies until game time.

At the appointed hour, all will pile into modern, sleek buses and make it to the stadium.

The same bus will return them to the club to either drown or gloat over wee-hours defeat, depending on how the cookie crumbles.

This, Charlie tells us, will be standard procedure throughout the pigskin parade. A singing setup for sure!

THE LONG awaited Carribbean Festival at the beautiful Macco's Lounge bursts on the scene come Monday.

The fabulous fiesta of Latin America music and evivine will have a seven day run. It kicks off with a Monday matinee 4 - 9 p.m. when the organic magic of Claude Grant will put your moods in a festive orbit.

Main magnets of the event will be Waverly Edmondson and Vess Middleton, organ and bongoes, respectively, who'll keep you in a holiday frame of mind.

For many moons now, Crawlers have been beating the drums for Ruby Glover, the Red Fox mainstayer. Didn't realize until the past seven how good this little pert chirper really is.

When we crawled in the other p.m. Ruby was having such a rough time with the virus she had to sit while singing.

But you know something, she was terrific, virus and all.

• • •

BIG BILL ADAMS has so added a new touch to his rear down Continental Room at Adams Cocktail Lounge.

Complimenting al Brown and his Tunetoppers, who'll take a brief break for another spot Saturday p.m., is a big, bad floor show. It's something.

Chick's of course, is an old hideout for floor shows. A twist at Lady Lola, starlamed LaVann, Kitty Dean leaves no doubt on this score. It is wow, Pink Champs and baby beats are still there to take care of the boys.

There's jazz so cool at Phil's with Phil. That is to say the Jazz Trio Plus One headed by Phil Harris, is blowing up a breeze at Jon Robin's corner at Mount and Mosher.

Haven't seen Waldell Wilson since Tall Paul deserted these parts. But it's dollars to donuts when Crawlers hit Vilma's a dissertation is waiting. Wendy will see to that.

But it's easy to take while relaxing in the traditional Big B. charm found here.

• • •

NO WORD YET, Watts informs us, on arrangements to bring in a big time voice to the Lucky-Number to team with Cornell Muldrow and the Bim Boo.

Over at North End Kaga Ricardo is sizing and ability the Latin American night each Wednesday. This is the house, you know which also made Social Security safe, a bit.

Speaking of bit, that's exactly what you should do to these spots on your night out.

Carnival, Jones, Knotty Pine, and Kleeco and tell them Crawlers sent you, and

WITH apologizes for use of word

The management of Radio Station WITH has apologized for what it described as an "inadvertent slip" on the part of newscaster Al Coggins.

The incident occured Thursday night during the reading of the 9 p.m. news.

Mr. Coggins was reading an item concerning three colored persons arrested at Elkton, Md., when they stopped, to purchase food at a restaurant.

In describing them, the newscaster used a word that bore a striking resemblance to one not ordinarly heard in public conversation.

The AFRO switchboard was flooded with calls from complaining listeners, and the station immediately began to broadcast a series of apologies.

Management at the station said that it regretted the error and Mr. Coggins had been severly repremanded.

Teenagers plan talent show for Crownsville

Barbar McLaine will head a variety show called "Bab's Talent Show" on monthly visits to Crownsville State Hospital beginning Oct. 27.

The show is being put on by teen-agers. The Red Cross is providing transportation.

In Memoriams 1

NICHOLS — In loving memory of my dear husband and my father, Sgt. Major Thomas Nichols, who departed this life Sept. 16, 1957.
Dear Daddy, I'll remember you, dear, while life is in my heart.
Dear Lord, God in His wisdom has ordained it is in your home up in heaven to dwell.
Sadly missed by Mother, Mamie Sharpe.
