Carver bulk tests Dunbar's speed

By SAM LACY

Football teams of Carver High School and Dunbar are poised for the opening game of the Maryland Scholastic Association gridiron campaign today (Friday) at the Douglass High School oval.

Coach Charley Robinson, in quest of Carver's first win over her cross-town rival in ten years, will rely on a big, mobile eleven to handle the vaunted speed of coach Bill (Sugar) Cain's Poets.

* * *

NEITHER COACH would predict victory on the eve of the annual clash, but there was a hint of optimism in Robinson's assertion. "We always expect to win."

Cain remained in character when he bemoaned the handicaps imposed on a team "as little as ours." The Dunbar tutor did, however, admit that his kids "will do a lot of throwing and if we're hitting anybody had better watch out."

* * *

ROBINSON GAVE the AFRO his starting lineup, which went this way. Ernie Bell, 6-1 and 170, and Ted Manning, 6-5 and 210, at the ends; Charles Turner, 6-2, 190 and Herm White., 6-1, 220, at tackles; Art Towson, 6-1, 185 and Don Brogdon 5-9, 170, at guards, and James Thornes, 5-9, 160, at center.

The Carver backfield will have Eddie Golder 5-9, 160, at quarterback; Evander Brown, 5-9, 185, and Dave Nolan, 5-10, 170 a the halvest and Milt Brown 6-1, 213, at fullback.

* * *

CAIN'S OPENING eleven will be comprised of McCarroll Nole, 6-0, 175, and William Perry, 5-9, 150, at ends; Everett Fullwood, 6-2, 195, and Delatour springs, 5-10, 220, at tackles; John Broadway, 5-9, 172, and Robert Terrell, 5-8, 173, at guards and Clyde Redd 5-10, 176, at center.

The Poet backfield with Robert Wade, 5-9, 162, at quarterback, will operate with Eddie Beauford, 5 - 10, 170, and Edward (Muscles) Davis, 5-6, 162, at the halves, and George Allen, 5-10 180 at fullback.

Figures show the Carverites outweigh their East Baltimore opponents ten pounds per man on the line and 12 pounds per man in the backfield.

Colts face 1st hurdle in Detroit

The Baltimore Colts, striving to regain their stature in the Western Division of the National Football League, run smack into their first real hurdle Sunday.

Admittedly lucky in getting over the Los Angeles Rams, 27-24, in their opener, the Colts take on the rugged Detroit Lions in their second home stand. The Lions are rated by many to be favorites over both the 1960 champions, Green Bay, and the 1958 - 59 titleholders, Baltimore.

Detroit justified this early season appraisal by whipping the Packers, 17-13, in their debut last Sunday.

* * *

AS IN the opening game, Baltimore will be looking to Joe Perry and Lenny Moore to spur the running attack. In his initial appearance in Steed livery, the 34-year-old Perry chugged off 106 yards against a stiff Los Angeles forward wall, and for his efforts was presented the game ball by captain Gino Marchetti.

Moore, Perry and tackle Jim Parker will be in the starting offensive lineup for the home forces. Tackle Joe Lewis and halfback ob Harr. Lewis and halfback Bob Harrison will open in the defensive alignment, and halfback Lenny Lyles once again will be serving on the special unit for kickoff returns.

* * *

WITH HALFBACK Danny Lewis occupying a key spot in the Detroit attack, and defensive ace Dick (Night Train) Lane operating effectively in the aerial cover, the Lions whipped the Hosses twice last year, 30-17 and 20-15.

Lewis and Lane team with tackles Willie McClung and Roger Brown to provide a fearsome foursome for the Cats against the Colts. Brown formerly starred at Maryland State College as a fullback, but has been converted into one of the league's top defensive tackles.

Hawks await D. C. Classic

PRINCESS ANNE, Md. — Ready or not, here comes the Hawks.

That appears to be the attitude at Maryland State College as coach Vernon (Skip) McCain prepares his football warriors for the 1961 Capital Classic, slated for Griffith Stadium, Washington, D. C., next Saturday night (30th).

* * *

McCAIN, his over-worked crying towel getting the full treatment, is conceding his team should be the underdog when it meets Southern Connecticut State College in the earliest classic of the long Capital series.

"We lost eight regulars from last year's team," laments the Eastern Shore mentor. "And you have to remember that they beat us last year, when we had these boys."

* * *

MOST OBSERVERS are wont to disregard the moans of McCain, however, and there is some doubt that coach Jesse L. Dow of Connecticut will be lulled into a false security.

The Hawks figure to have a strong running attack, even with the depletions from the 1960 championship squad. Fullback Charlie Holmes is driving with the same power that made him one of the most feared ball carriers in the CIAA last year.

Holmes, Bill Finger, Wally Beauford, Willie Joyner and Bill Johnson comprise a versatile assortment to work with quarterback Harry (Trigger) Brown.

* * *

WHETHER or not they can match the class of Southern Connecticut remains to be seen.

Since 1948, coach Dow's teams have dominated the ranks of the Eastern Collegiate Athletic Conference. They have won 74 of 90 games, lost 20, and tied four.

They were unbeaten and untied in 1958. In 1958 and 1959, the Owls posted 8-1 records, and at the close of the 1960 season they met Lenoir-Rhyne in the National Association playoff game, to drop their only decision of the campaign.

* * *

ASIDE FROM the football game, the Classic program will include the usual gala ceremonies.

The annual parade will precede play and the annual ball will follow the stadium slate. Fleets, halftime entertainment and the crowning of "Miss Capital Classic" will feature the activities.

Arc de Triomphe winner set for Laurel International

LAUREL, Md. — In approximately two weeks, Europe's valuable Prix de l'Arc de Triomphe will be held at the Longchamp course in the picturesque suburb of Paris known as the Bois de Bologne.

The result of Europe's richest race ($115,000 to the winner) is going to have a lot to do with the makeup of the tenth running of the International at Laurel on Saturday, November 11.

LAUREL PRESIDENT John D. Schapiro will be in Paris for the October 8 race in order to extend on-the-spot invitations to the "in the money" horses which, in the past, have been more or less confined to French participants. This year, other European nations are posing distinct threats to the home owners.

As is customary, the French contingent again is a powerful one headed by Right Royal, brilliant three-year-old winner of the French Derby and other prestige stakes such as the Prix Lupin, the Prix Henri Foy and the French 2,000 Guineas in France and the coveted King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Stakes in England.

Gen. Davis quits Monuments post

WASHINGTON (NNPA) — President Kennedy Monday accepted the resignation of Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis (retired) as a member of the American Battle Monuments Commission.

He is the father of Air Force Maj. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis Jr., now on duty at the Pentagon here. The senior Davis is the first of his race to obtain the rank of general.

The White House announced last month that Austin T. Walden of Fort Valley, Ga., president of the Citizens Trust Company, Atlanta, had been appointed to the Commission.

LOS ANGELES — Councilman Joe E. Hollingsworth of the 10th District has appointed Cage Johnson, one of the nominees for his office, as his field deputy. This is the first time that a white person hasn't been named to the job.

Pompey to lead Bears in opener

HAMPTON, Va. — Carmie Pompey, befreckled product of Baltimore's Douglass High School, was named as the starting quarterback for the Morgan State College Bears in tomorrow's (Saturday) football opener at Hampton Institute.

Coach Earl Banks indicated early this week that Pompey would be his choice to take over the reigns relinquished by the talented Jack Dennis. But it was not until the Bears arrived here for the clash with the Pirates that the sophomore mentor made it definite that his wiry junior signal caller would be at the helm.

Banks and his squad of 36 Bruins arrived this afternoon and will spend the night here.

* * *

TEAMED WITH Pompey in the opening backfield will be a pair of sophomores, Oliver Dobbins and Leroy Kelly, at halfbacks, and Gene Clay, a senior, at full.

Carl Smith and Bill Tinkler will be at the ends. Carl Hite and Howard Stanley will be the tackles, Bob Young and Ernie Craswell will be the guards, and Phil Gainous will open at center.

HOMETOWN FANS will not get a look at the 1961 Golden Bears until October 7.

Next Saturday, the Morgan troupe journeys to Durham to meet North Carolina College, Maryland State College, the CIAA's defending champion, will be the Bears' first home-foe, visiting Hughes Stadium on Oct. 7.

BACK LUCK FOR WHOM? — Baltimore - born Carmie Pompey will soon learn whether the No. 13 he wears is an ill omen for himself, for his Morgan State College eleven, or for the opposition. Pompey was tagged as starting quarterback when the Bears invade Hampton, Va., (tomorrow Saturday) afternoon to open their campaign against the Hampton Pirates.

Vista Raceway closing near

WASHINGTON

Tension will run high among the lead shoe artists on the Vista Raceway, Sunday, September 24, when they realize there will be only two more races to build points for the annual Trophy.

Drayton Tyree has a comfortable lead with 117 points. Harvey Bigelow and James Collettie are tied with 65 each while Bobby King and Bill Swartz have 46 and 45 respectively.
