On the TOWN

This seven, the Crawlers have a complaint.

The score is this:

One of our favorite clubs which has done a great deal for the community threw a "Gala Fall Spectacular" at the Coliseum Saturday past. In itself, this isn't news because the club have staged some of the most fabulous and enjoyable affairs ever to grace the local scene.

You see, we sat it out . . . at home! To have done otherwise would have been hypocritical.

Al Brown and his Tunetoppers, a swinging group if there ever was one, headed the spectacular. Backdropping the Tunetoppers was a "Star Studded Review."

Needlessly to say, we have no argument with the Tunetoppers. Nor do we have a beef with the review, but only that it was emblazoned on the sleek tickets which covered the city thusly: "This a Star-Studded All White Review!"

As we see it, this is the height of absurdity!

Among the many concerts, banquets, and dances showcased by the club have been some of the world's greatest entertainers — Lionel Hampton, Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Gloria Lynn, Etta James, to name only a few.

Crawlers defy anyone — including the club — to show where these acts were advertised as ALL-COLORED.

Why then, would the guys who handle the club's affairs allow themselves to use a term that wasn't needed at all.

Crawlers want to make it crystal clear that as far as we are concerned, an entertainer — be he or she a dancer, jazz artist, concert pianist; or what have you — is rated on the basis of talent, nothing more or nothing less.

This is true whether the artist is blue, green, purple, black, white or technicolor.

Roseland — entertainment — don't miss . . . ! an artist should be judged on talent alone.

AS PROMISED, Crawlers will keep you on top of the muddled situation surrounding the proposed transfer of that Fremont Ave. liquor license.

At the moment, it is no near a solution than it was a dozen of sevens ago, although there was another chapter chalked up Thursday.

At the Liquor Board the licensees-to-be contended that the Friendly Ghost inked a pact to turn the operation over to them.

However, the Ghost through his attorney, said it 'aint so. And further, the Friendly One told commissioners, if he did sign, it was under duress."

The board reserved its decision in the matter. We await the next episode.

THIS HAS been another of those sevens where nothing, we mean like nothing, has gone according to Hoyle. The threat of Esther, a disabled 'chine and everything else contributed to bobtailing the weekly hour. But we did get into Macco's and took a peep at the festive goings on of the Caribbean Festival.

Man, like it really wild. Waverly Edmondson and Voss Middleton are sending everybody everyday. Adding a dash of legitimate Latin American flavor is pert Velmi Aly, of Trinidad, visiting her sister, Our queen Jean.

It really swings.

Casino's has a good thing going, too. Its pre-game breakfast show was a smash hit. It played to a packed house before four bus loads of football addicts made it to the stadium to see the Hoosiers quounce the Rams.

Dynamic Damita Jo, (as that is), moves mikes tonight.

ELSEWHERE AROUND the burg, agents tell us things are winging. Couldn't get to the spots, but you swing in and have a lookoo.

Adams Cocktail Lounge, Chick's, Pat's, Pelican Club, Bird Neuchar, Carnival Lounge, Elsoco, North Star Lounge, Cocktail and Lounge, Kooky Club.

Little bird buzzed in to say that Bonny Rose Trio is still slayin' 'em at Dotson's, where Sammy Jay's "Swinging Affairs of '62" with a complete revue, burst on set last night.

We're had it. . . LATER.

CHRISTMAS, SR. — A tribute of love to the memory of our father, OLIVER CHRISTMAS, SR., who passed away three one years ago, September 23, 1958:
We do not forget you, nor do we intend.
Memories of you often, and will
Guide us through life
Until we meet
Over yonder
Bid dear to our
Father, you ever will be.
SON AND DAUGHTERS.

CARROLL — In loving memory of our dear mother, MRS. TRUDE, who passed away September 23, 1956:
Sleep on, dear, good mother;
Your work is done;
Your love left and friends filled
With sadness and tears.
Scattering sunshine all along the way.
You know how we loved you, and
yes, love you, yet;
Though God took you from us,
We cannot forget.
LOVING CHILDREN.
