ANNAPOLIS DOINGS

BY ELOISE RICHARDSON

Fashion show will benefit indigent patients at Crownsville; Miss Valerie Watkins in training as nurse; Mrs. Joseph Hardesty at Miami meeting; First Baptist Welcomes teachers

Fashions by Pauline Brooks of Baltimore and hats by Nell Sheridan will be featured at Adams Park School at Annapolis on Sunday, Oct. 29 at 5 p.m.

This glamorous event is sponsored by the Annapolis Branch of the Women's Auxiliary of Crownsville State Hospital, for the benefit of indigent patients of the hospital.

All organizations and individuals living in Anne Arundel County are urged to support this event, which will be one of the top ones of the season.

Aside from the serious aspect, it will lend an evening of entertainment and socializing and an opportunity for "milady to dive into her wardrobe for a refreshing dress-up." Refreshments will be served following the show. Tickets are available at county schools and from members of the auxiliary group. Miss Nan Wright is chairman.

IT IS ALWAYS good news to learn young people from Anne Arundel County are making their community proud of them away from home.

Miss Valerie Watkins, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Watkins of Severna Park is training as a nurse at Harlem Hospital in New York City.

Recently Miss Watkins attended the Student Nurses' Association of the New York State Convention in Buffalo, N.Y. as a representative of her school and also of Area 8 of the Student Nurses' Association of New York State.

Area 8 includes accredited Schools of Nursing in the Bronx and Manhattan and has a membership over 2,000 student nurses. Miss Watkins is corresponding secretary for this area.

MRS. JOSEPH HARDESTY, one of the first vice - presidents of the Anne Arundel County United Church Women's Group, was a representative for the Anne Arundel County United Church Women at the annual Triennial meeting at Miami, Fla. last week.

Mrs. Hardesty, who stopped at the Shelborne Hotel there, says, she found it so interesting to learn that all places of public accomodation are fully integrated.

The opening night of the meeting featured the Bethune-Cookman Choral of Bethune-Cookman College at Daytona Beach. The singers were asked to appear on its program as a memorial to Mrs. Mary McLeod Bethune, who was a member of the national executive body of the United Church Women for 25 years.

Consultants for the study groups hailed from Nigeria, Ghana, Lima, Peru, India and England.

ANNE ARUNDEL County teachers received a warm reception and gesture of appreciation on Wednesday evening, when First Baptist Church opened its doors for a get-together in the church lower auditorium.

The pleasant atmosphere was enhanced by a program presenting some of the best talent of the city during the social hour. Musical numbers included music by Mrs. Mary Baden at the piano and Mrs. Sarah Jones and Miss Odessa Brown as vocal soloists. Mrs. Lovell Parker read and the welcoming talk was made by Charles Walker. Leonidas Crutchfield offered prayer.

Miss Sarah Jones and Everett Pettigrew, supervisors for the elementary schools in the county, introduced their new teachers, and Phillip Brown, vice - principal of the Bates Senior High School, introduced new high school teachers.

Remarks were made by Miss Mary Wineman, principal of Bates Junior High, Herbert S. Bunce, principal of Bates Senior High, and Mrs. Ethel B. Butler, retired vice-principal of Bates Senior High.

The pastor, the Rev. Leroy Bowman stated that his church has always felt that new teachers coming into the community should be welcomed into their working environment and made to feel that the community is a "home away from home."

Mrs. M. Wms. Tate, director of church and school related activities for the church, has served as chairman of the teacher social for a number of years. The teacher program has been a part of the church activities for about 25 years.

Those who served on the social committee this year were Mesdames Mary Gillis, chairman, Elizabeth Watkins, Mollie Harris, Lovell Parker, Carrie Hall and Sophia Miller and Aaron Gillis.

ANNUAL SENIOR Choir Day was observed by the Senior Choir of Mt. Zion AME Church on Sunday, when an interesting talent program was presented, followed by a tea in the church dining room.

On the program were Misses Edith Green of John Wesley Church at Glen Burnie, Dora Brown of First Baptist Church, Gloria Brown of Mt. Nebo, the Youth Chorus of Asbury Methodist Church, under the direction of Mrs. Wallace Parker and the Junior Chorus of Mt. Moriah, under the direction of Mrs. Joyce McManus.

Mrs. McManus also made a short talk on "Church Music and Its Relationship to the Pastor's Sermon." Everett Whitehead read a paper on "Should We Support Foreign Aid?" Miss Joyce Anne Johnson presided.

Mrs. William Edley headed up the tea committee assisted by Mesdames Margaret Taylor, Jemima Kidd and Josie Evans.

The tea table was decorated in the fall motif, centered by a beautiful arrangement of fall cut flowers and candles, carrying on a color scheme of yellow and white with the silver tea and coffee service. Mrs. Joseph Hardesty is president of the chair.

RECEPTION TIME — After last week's program in the series of Morgan State College Chamber Music Festival presentations, a reception was held at the school. Shown here left to right: Mrs. Shirley Matthews, John Matthews, Mrs. Carol B. Diggs, who will be the pianist for the last concert in the series to be held Oct. 29, David Cerone, Dr. Catherine Whiteside and Mrs. Hazel Barrett, president of the Companions.

"Must I Suffer All My Life because I'm a woman?"
NOT ANYMORE!
Remarkable tablet can relieve female ailments at any age... both monthly cramps and "hot flashes" of change-of-life!
Just because you're a woman you don't have to suffer nasty cramps every month. Don't have to go through the change with fear and misery! Today, most women can relieve "female suffering" at any age—with Pinkham Tablets!
In doctor's tests with Pinkham Tablets, most young women no longer suffered agonizing "period pains". In middle-age, 8 out of 10 tested got remarkable relief from distress of change-of-life! No costly shots were used. Taking Pinkham Tablets alone, "hot flashes" subside. Nervousness is calmed. Then you can start living a full, happy life again!
When simple iron-deficiency anemia robs you of energy, Pinkham Tablets are also a blessing! Rich in iron, they help strengthen blood and vitality!
So, don't "give in" to female ailments. Get Lydia E. Pinkham Tablets from druggists. Take daily, like vitamins! See if you don't find new peace-of-mind and relief from physical discomfort too!
IF YOU PREFER A LIQUID druggists also have famous Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.
