Gadabouting In Baltimore

Town folks' charm shown in flexibility

with Lula Jones Garrett

One of the things I adore about Baltimore is its ability to swing with the tide.

Remember the days when it was terribly, but terribly chic to get terribly, but terribly high, and when a hang-over was a sign of utter sophistication to be bragged about for days after?

Now-a-days it's odd not to take the third cocktail unless you can "carry it like a lady."

Remember when you wouldn't dare turn up in an ensemble you had turned out in at the last appearance?

Now the girls talk of the little name suit, the little name hat, the pair of custom made shoes with matching bag, which they call "my uniform" and which they see how many times they can be seen in.

Heavenly days . . . when the ladies get together now they no longer dig the dire. They dig Shakespeare or listen to chamber music or discuss art.

NOW WASN'T THAT a pretty sneaky way to say that when the couple of hundreds of women gathered with Woman Power in the Sheraton — Belvedere, Sunday, to put their fund - raising campaign for Provident Hospital on the road, not a single one stopped by for a cocktail . . . and not too many seemed to have been out - in - space on the dress angle.

It's also an inning to say that the Pierians are going to have a perfectly magnificent display of African art chiefly from the Blum collection, when they hold forth with their December affair . . . which is coordinated with the Art Department of Morgan State College.

And that Alpha Kappa Alpha will blend with the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra Company when, in March, Leontyne Price will sing in this city.

OF COURSE, thanks be, there are still visions of a few high - old - times in the offing . . . with the Guardsmen's Thanksgiving weekend . . . and the Neptune Yacht Club's ball on November 25th . . . with the Frat Men's ball this Saturday night . . . with the Cardigan's party on the 18th . . . with the Flower Guild of St. James Episcopal Church presenting the Vagabond Players in "The Happiest Millionaire" on the 21st.

Following the dediction of the memorial tablet to Matthew Henson in Annapolis on the 18th the Md. League of Women's Clubs will entertain at luncheon in the Baltimore Sheraton Inn in honor of Mrs. Matt Henson.

Miss Mary Adams is chairman of this affair and reservations must be in to Miss Adams not later than Monday. Mrs. Lena K. Lee heads the League. She, too will receive reservations.

Mrs. Henson will be house guest of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Payne.

ALVERTA SMITH and William Lee, Jr. set a nice little bomb under friends when they were quietly married on Friday evening.

No one even suspected that they were engaged . . . even if they had known each other since childhood.

The Rev. Marcus Wood, pastor of Providence Baptist Church, performed the impressive ceremony.

The bride was chic in a beige suit, brown alligator accessories, a mink hat and mink stole. She was attended by Josephine Brown, who wore apple blue suit, with matching accessories in satin. Both wore orchids.

Mr. Lee's best man was his step-father, Bennett Cook.

Witnessing the ceremony were Mrs. Marion Smith, mother of the bride; Mrs. Bennett Cook, mother of the bridegroom; Mrs. Ica Roberts, his sister; the Robert Chaneys, Zelma Johnson Parker and Josephine Brown.

After the wedding the couple left for Atlantic City for a short honeymoon.

TOP WEDDINGS coming up include that of Catherine Eula Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hughes Murphy, to Charles H. Dade, Jr. on the 25th.

Mr. Dade is of Germantown, Pa., and works with the telephone company, there.

The ceremony will be in St. James Episcopal Church at noon. Reception will follow in the Morgan Christian Center.

Also that of Shirley Owens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcellus Owens, to Hiram Ammons on the same day, at three in the afternoon.

This ceremony will take place in St. Cecilia's Catholic Church, with the reception in the Me-De-So Club. Mr. Ammons is in the city school system.

ALL ORGANIZATIONS have their key men . . . even women's organizations.

For instance the Maryland League of Women's Clubs has its Dr. Dwight O. W. Holmes, and Woman Power has its Dr. G. James Fleming.

It took just five minutes of the organization's luncheon time, Sunday afternoon, for Dr. Fleming to wrap up nearly all the talking and speaking that had gone on the past couple of hours.

Dr. Dolores Hunt made an eloquent plea for support of the orgafization's plan to raise funds for the new Provident Hospital . . . suggesting among other things, than women forego one dress or hat and contribute the price to the fund.

Dr. Fleming went farther. He wasn't for women doing all the sacrificing of hats and dress . . . they, and their other halves, too, could sacrifice a good deal of unneeded spirits and add a sizable sum to the fund . . . the 150 - odd doctors in this city, who also have a decided need for the hospital wouldn't need to sacrifice, and had a duty to give.

And then he tapped the girls lightly on the wrists, chastising them for putting too much of their money in food at fund - raising affairs.

But the girls were happy about all he said . . . they were still convinced that he loves them, or else why would he have cut a conference short to fly from Gatlinburg, Tenn., just to keep the sequence of always being at their luncheon.

Dr. Fleming, Dr. Frank Walker and Dr. Robert L. Gill, all of Morgan faculty were in Gatlinburg attending the sessions of the Southern Policital Science Association.

After the luncheon, Victorine Adams narrated the fashion show of beautiful models in Charm Centre's elegant clothes.

And I'kept thinking how silly to diet is one who can possibly look as lovely as Otelea Bullock, who models the Centre's size 18's; or to squint if one can be as enchanting as be-spectacled Lorretta Bryant; or hesitate to be sport-brain and talent if one can be as dashing as Architect Cynthia Camper Canady.

Incidentally, Cynthia isn't only "engineering" these days, she's marriage planning, too.

Her fiance is Arthur Harvey White, Perdue University graduate, native of Indianapolis, Ind., and also an electromics enginner. Both are with the air arms division of Westinghouse. They will be married in Howard University chapel, next Saturday.

POT-POURRI: The Jack Glosters (He's assistant to the President of Morgan State College) are increasing their family to four. Their one and only (now) is two years old.

New in the family of the W. Emerson Browns (town attorney) is a manse at 4903 W. Forest Park Avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Brailey chalked up 25 years of happy marriage on Sunday. Celebrating with them were their daughter, Alice Faye, city school teacher, and son, Norman, a senior at Morgan State College.

Shirley Kyle, of the Housing Bureau, is winter vacationing . . . flew off to Minneapolis, Minn., this week, for a three-week stay.

Que-Ettes are hostesses at Coffee Hour following recital

The Que-ettes, an auxiliary of the Omega Fraternity, added their support and talent to make the Morgan Chamber Music Festival a cultural success. This organization of active civic-minded women planned and participated in an after-concert reception for the artists and guests of the Morgan Chamber Music Series.

This event marks the first community project of the new club year under the leadership of the new president, Mrs. Bernice McDaniels, who has a long and envious record for leadership and civic interests.

THE AFTER - CONCERT reception, which was financed by the Que - ettes, marks a step forward in a program of community support for cultural programs in the city. This community project sets the pace for the broad and versitile program planned by the group for the coming year. Mrs. Janet C. Woolridge was chairman of the project with Mesdames Myrtice Bennett and Lucrita Williams, co-chairmen.

Pouring coffee was Mrs. Mattie Gardner, a former president. She was assisted by Mrs. Margaret Jackson, financial secretary.

OTHER QUE-ETTES who acted as hostesses were: Mesdames Laura Waller, Dorothy Koger, Beryle Williams, Lucrita Whitten, and Constance Ward. The guests were delighted to have a chance to talk with the artists and other outstanding personalities.

Among guests were Mrs. Camille Nickerson, a native of New Orleans, and a pro-

Neal, Kelvin Bryan, Sandra Dorsey, Arthenia Johnson, Deborah Ann Jones;

Also Bryan and Wednell Holland, Linda Diggs, Sandra Taylor, Yvonne Bowels, Carrie and Jakie Matthews, Gwendolyn and Renee Diggs Thomas Creek.

Among adults were Messrs and Mesdames Edward Creek, Bertrand McZeal, Thomas Hawkins, Joseph Booze and Mesdames Charlotte Taylor, Sophia Davis, Alfred Williams, Jr., Joe Goodrum and William Keller.

Friends who called in the late evening to wish her a happy birthday were Mrs. Jenrietta Green and granddaughter, Linda Bradford. Mrs. Violet Turner and granddaughter Angela Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Larkins.

Postings from the J. Everett Wauls who are out in California for the winter, were enjoyed by the William H. Richardsons recently. The Wauls enroute to Los Angeles, were guests of the J. Wallace Halls at Mrs. Elva Stephen, the mother of Mrs Richardson in Indianaplis, Ind. They write that they are having a gay time.

LITTLE Christine M. Ladner was honored on her seventh birthday, Oct. 29, at a party by her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keller in Forest Villa. Christine received the grandest gift in her whole life — a piano, presented to her by her grandparents and her father, Woodrow Ladner, who lives in Oakland, Calif.

Gay seasonal decorations were carried out in the Halloween motif. Her guests were greeted at the door by "the old witch" and "Mr. Pumpkin."

Guests were:

Brenda Carter, Althea and Clyde Copeland, Thomasjue Hawkins, Leandas, Loyanda, Robert, Thelma, Carl and Janet Goodrum, Matilda Keller, Dona Perkinson, James Emily Bryant, Lillie Strothers, Gladys Brown, Aray Laws, Yvonne Morton, Pauline Butler and Rose Kinney.

AND WHILE we all, in our own way, will be praying for and with the Freedom Riders tomorrow (Saturday) the following is the prayer which Lillian M. Hopkins has offered:

"Oh, God, help me to see more than the color of a man's skin when I look at him. Let me see behind his face and the shape of his eyes to that part of him that is the same in all people. Help me to remember that Your love warms him, too, as if we stood around a camp fire, all equally close and no one left out in the cold. Do not let me feel noble as I reach out my hand, as You do, but let me say simply 'My Brother.' Amen."

Tormenting Rectal Itch Stopped In Minutes
Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles
New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles." It is most embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.—
No matter what you've used without results — here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids — without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.
In tests, hemorrhoid cases after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.
The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H® Suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H® Ointment with special applicator. Available at all drug counters.
