Douglass up for tough tilt against undefeated Carver

Undismayed by the heavy favoritism Carver will carry into the game against him this afternoon (Friday), coach Mack Payne of Douglass is sure his boys "have a good chance" to surprise the unbeaten Trainers of Coach Charley Robinson in the 20th meeting between the two high school football teams.

Rivals since 1942, Douglass and Carver renew their traditional series at the Ducks' field at 3:30 o'clock.

* * *

"OUR BIGGEST effort probably will have to come toward stopping Milt Brown," said Payne in his only hint as to what strategy he will use to contain the high - scoring opposition.

"He didn't hurt us too much last year (when Carver won, 14-6) but Milt was just reaching his top form then. He has come along fast since then and shouldn't be underrated because the other two — Ted Manning and Clyde Milner— have outscored him.

"It could be those inside bursts of Brown's that will do the most damage," Payne went on as he prepped his youngsters for the big test.

"I'd say we have a good chance against them. We haven't won often this year, but the kids have improved very much in recent weeks. And it could be that a surprise is in store for somebody this time."

* * *

IT WAS ventured that the Douglass tutor was showing unusual confidence in view of the trend the past two seasons, and considering the comparative records to date.

Carver clinched the Division B championship two weeks ago, and Douglass is at the bottom of Division A. The former has not lost a game and has surrendered only three touchdowns in its rush to the division title.

Except for 20 points tallied by Southern in a 34-20 Carver win, the Trainer defense has not been scored against during the entire Maryland Scholastic Association campaign. Carver whipped Dunbar, 34 - 6, but that as an inter - loop contest which did not figure in the championship records.

* * *

"I'M NOT so brave. The boys make me feel that they'll give a good account of themselves. I go along because they've shown they can move the ball. We led Patterson into the fourth quarter and we had a good game against Loyola.

"In both those contests, the other fellows had the depth. I'm not sure that Carver has any better bench than we have."

* * *

THE CARVER - DOUGLASS series dates back to 1942. It has been only in recent years that the Trainers have been able to hold their own with the Ducks.

Robinson, in his first year as the Carver mentor, enters the game fresh on a 14-6 victory last season this is one of the few credited to the Blue and White over the past ten years.

* * *

ALTHOUGH records mean little in this 20 - year - old rivalry, it is interesting to note that they have only one common opponent for 1961.

Carver routed Dunbar, 34-6, while Dunbar defeated Douglass, 14-6.

Following are the season records of the contending elevens:

Fort Valley again succumbs to rally

FORT VALLEY, Ga. — Perpetuating a jinx that has cond s r e m a i n i n g in the Fort Valley State College Wildcats dropped a 14-13 decision to the Miles College Golden Bears Saturday, losing this time during the final five seconds of the game.

Leading 13 - 8 with only six plagued them all season, the fourth quarter, the Valleyites yielded the ball on downs to the Bears on the Miles 2, had it took only a few seconds and four passes for the Alabama boys to cover the 77 yards needed to upset the Nolan and Stits each a dislocated shoulder.

The Pittsburgh Steelers are at New York Sunday, and Webb will have to play the veteran Nolan's safety position.

MSA All Stars being selected

The MSA All-Star team, currently being selected, will practice at Homewood Field of Johns Hopkins University, when it begins preparation November 25, for the Fred Sturm benefit football game at Memorial Stadium, Dec. 10.

The contest will pit an all-star aggregation against Loyola High, with the proceeds earmarked for young Sturm who suffered a paralyzing injury in a pre-season school boy scrimmage.

* * *

OFFICIALS of the MSA on Tuesday night, selected three players from the City and Poly squads, and two players from each of the other conference schools, to make up the all-star group.

Names of the youngsters making up the squad will not be revealed until the parents of each have given consent for them to participate in the game. All are seniors, therefore, will not be under the direct supervision of their high school coaches.

THE STRUM benefit took on the aspects of a city-wide effort from its birth. The school board gave immediate approval to the post-season promotion, the park board obeyed use of Memorial Stadium, and local press media agreed to cooperate fully.

Tickets, priced at one dollar — with absolutely no passes to anyone — are on sale at all the high schools, at Memorial Stadium and at the Colt and Oriole offices.

YMCA teams prime for winter tiffs

The Druid Hill Avenue Branch YMCA athletic teams are preparing for an active winter season.

The swimming team, captained by Kent Oliver and Monterria Purdy, has had one practice meet with Towson YMCA. Coached by Joseph Montgomery, it will have around five meets plus participation in area championships.

The gymnastic team, co-captained by Eugene Caster and Stanley Waters, performs in various talent and variety shows in the area as the "Y" Tumblers. Their competitive schedule will take them to Washington, New Jersey and Pennsylvania for a five-meet schedule.

This year the YMCA will host the Baltimore Open Gymnastic Championships.

Rookie key man in Giant hopes

NEW YORK—Allen Webb, a New York Giant rookie who was signed as a free agent, could be a key factor in the tight eastern Conference race of the National Football League.

The Giants lost Sunday leaped into a first - place tie with defending champion Philadelphia by beating the Eagles but starting guard Jack Stroud and defensive backs Dick Nolan and Bill Stits of New York were injured: Strud has a torn ligament in the right knee,

Cards, Colts renew Sunday

It's been eleven years since the Colts and Cardinals last tangled on the gridiron. And in 1950 the Cards made their home in Chicago, whereas today's edition plans out of St. Louis.

In that first game the Cards prevailed by a 55-13 count in Comiskey Park.

When the teams square off again this Sunday at Memorial Stadium it will mark the Cards initial appearance in Baltimore, for either a regular or pre-season contest.

* * *

BOTH CLUBS will be endeavoring to rebound from losing efforts in their last outings, while improving on 4-5 records.

In bowing to the fired-up Minnesota Vikings last week, 28-20, the Colts lost valuable ground in their belated bid to climb back into Western Conference contention.

* * *

THEY MUST now recapture the spark and poise that enabled them to 'plot the Green Bay Packers, 45-21, two weeks ago.

If won't be an easy task against a St. Louis eleven that is also struggling for survival in the Eastern Conference.

6 Cardinals await Sun. kickoff against Colts

The addition of Charlie Granger, a 6-foot-2 tackle from Southern University early this week, raised the quota to six players integrating the St. Louis Cardinals and awaiting Sunday's kick-off against the not-so-haughty Baltimore Colts.

Granger joined the quintet of Prentice Gautt, Jimmy Hill, Luke Owens, Ted Bates and Willie West for the trek into the Monumental City birds. The Cards last left their Eastern Division hiatus to meet the Western Division Hosses 12 years ago, in 1950.

GAUTT, undoubtedly, will be the most carefully-watched of the invading sextet. He with the seldom-seen Redbirds the fleet halfback who became the first player to integrate the famed Sooner eleven at Oklahoma and later played behind Jim Brown with the Cleveland Browns.

The 200-pound sophomore speedster has been one of the mainstays in the tricky Redbird attack since the early-season injury to Lindon Crow took that great ball carrier to the sidelines.

Hill is a veteran of seven years in the National Football League at defensive halfback, and Owens is a one time Colt end-tackle who may be itching to prove the Steeds were wrong in letting him get away.

Bates is in his third year in the pro loop, a 220-pound linebacker who had some fine years at Oregon State when he captained the team in the 1957 Rose Bowl. West, from Oregon University, is a speedy halfback whose team lost to Ohio State in the 1958 Rose Bowl.

THE USUAL corps of Colts will be on hand for the home club in Sunday's action, headed, of course, by Lenny Moore.

Tackles Jim Parker and Joe Perry, and half-backs Bob Harrison and Lenny Lyles are healthy and eager to register a comeback after the unexpected loss last Sunday to Minnesota.

ACE CARD? — Former Oklahoma and Cleveland Browns halfback Prentice Gautt may be one of the main threats to the Baltimore Colts as the St. Louis Cardinals invade Memorial Stadium Sunday.

2 cops acquitted in brutality case

ATLANTA — (ANP) — Two Atlanta policemen charged with using excessive force in the arrest of Rayart Cox were acquitted in court last week.

The aldermanic board's police committee, however, warned officers C. E. Weeks and T. R. Smith that brutality will not be tolerated. Weeks and Smith were charged with beating Cox last August.

Wilt's 154-point surge widens NBA scoring lead

NEW YORK — Scoring 154 points in his last three games, Wilt Chamberlain of Philadelphia increased his NBA scoring lead to 113 points over Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles. Chamberlain in ten games has an average of 49.6 to Baylor's 34.8 in eleven contests.

The defending League champions, the Boston Celtics, who do not have a player listed in the first 20 scorers in weekly loop statistics, also do not have an individual leader in any department.

However, with a half-dozen performers scoring 10 points or more each time out, the Celts are leading the Eastern Division with 1 loss in 7 ny sorj aqj ,ttiqm ,sauen geles Lakers are setting the pace in the Western Division with a 9-2 record.

CLYDE LOVELLETTE of St. Louis Hawks has 235 replaced rookie Walt Bellamy of the Chicago Packers in the field accuracy column with a .508 listing. He is closely pursued by Jack Twyman of the Cincinnati Royals, who is hitting at .506.

Chamberlain's 278 rebounds in ten games for a 27.8 average is best in the League, while Bill Russell of Boston with 185 grabs in seven contests is averaging 26.4. Bob Pettit of the St Louis Hawks has 25 retrieves in his twelve outings.

OSCAR ROBERTSON of Cincinnati continues to lead the playmakers with 149 assists in eleven games for a 13.5 average, a pick-up of erage over last week, one-half point per game av

Dolph Schayes of the Syracuse Nats created a new "iron man" record last Saturday night when he participated in his 683rd consecutive NBA game, breaking Harry Gallatin's old mark of 682.

Bank's new name

Maryland National Bank is the new name of Baltimore National Bank, it was announced today by Hooper S. Miles, chairman of the board, following a special meeting of the bank's stockholders and approval by the Comptroller of the Currency.

Baltimore National Bank and County Trust Company consolidated on Nov. 3 as Baltimore National Bank, announcing at the time the intention to change the name to Maryland National Bank.

Bearcat back at Coliseum

Bearcat Wright, the Jamaican giant, returns to the Baltimore Coliseum Tuesday night to appear on the all - star wrestling show.

The 6 - foot, 7 - inch speedster is booked to tangle with another big fellow, Swede Hanson.

The 265 - pound bearcat will be favored to whip the Swedish star. Wright is returning from a six month tour of Canada, where he pinned every opponent in sight.
