Lester Norris weds Mrs. Audrey Butler

with Lula Jones Garrett

A picture-book bride in pink was Cynthia Camper Cannady, as she became the bride of Arthur Harvey, in Washington, Saturday.

The high-noon ceremony, which took place in the chapel of Howard University, was read by the dean of the chapel, the Rev. Daniel Hill.

Mrs. Cannady's frock was of a pink satin skirt, with bodice of crystals. With it she wore an Elise Hunt original made of tiny pink roses on a pink satin leaf base, and with an eyebrow veil; matching slippers, long white gloves and a white orchid.

She was attended by Mrs. Christina Young of Washington, who se ensemble was in slate blue, with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

Mrs. Douglas Camper, mother of the bride, also wore a pink rose corsage with her gown of blue taffeta. The dress was re-embroidered with seed pearls.

The Campers' Powhattan Avenue home was decored in pink . . . the flowers which filled the rooms were in pink, and even the tall fern, used as background, were sprayed in pink.

The 100 guests were served a buffet luncheon.

Background music throughout the afternoon was provided by Barton L. Bond, pianist.

For their motor trip to the Poconos Mountains the bride wore a beige wool suit with a mink turban and alligator shoes and bag.

Upon their return they will be at home on Lake Drive, where they have an apartment.

MRS. AUDREY BUTLER, for her wedding to Lester Norris Sr., on Wednesday, wore an engaging costume suit in turquois.

The three-piece costume had a brocade blouse. With it she wore a matching velvet hat, black shoes, white gloves and a white orchid. Her wrap was a cerulean mink stole.

Her sister, Mrs. Eunice Hall, who attended her, wore an ensemble — dress and jacket — in magenta, with matching accessories and a natural orchid.

The ceremony, which took place in the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. W. Leroy Berry of Morgan Park, was performed by the Rev. Marion Bascom* and attended by 20 me.bers of the family.

After the ceremony, informally invited guests filled the Longwood Street home where the newlyweds will live.

Add to weddings coming up that of Clarice Bias, Morgan State College sophomore and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Bias, to Clarence Mitchell 3rd, son of Clarence Mitchell of the Washington NAACP and Mrs. Mitchell, city attorney, and grandson of Dr. Lillie Jackson, NAACP city and state head, and Keifer Jackson.

The ceremony will take place Dec. 3-in St. Cecelia's Catholic Church.

MRS. MATTHEW A. HENSON, chic in black peau de soie jacket frock, matching accessories and a huge corsage of purple orchids, was guest of honor at luncheon in the Sheraton - Baltimore Inn, Saturday afternoon.

The luncheon followed the ceremony in Annapolis during which a plaque was placed in the State House, memoralizing her husband, the famed explorer.

Mrs. Henson was seated with Mrs. Lena K. Lee, president of the Maryland League of Women's Clubs; which also entertained Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Frisby, Mrs. Rosalie McGuire, Mrs. Burl Williams.

Mr. Frisby, as you know, was instigator of the honors that went to the late Mr. Henson, and chairman of Gov. J. Millard Tawes' advisory committee which arranged the Henson Memorial . . . which credit, Mrs. Henson was lavish in giving during her acceptance speech in Annapolis.

In addition, Miss Ruth Russell, sister of Mrs. Frisby, entertained at two tables of guests.

Among them were Mesdames Louise Dennis, Dora Hutchinson, Viola Wright, Charles Watts, Irma Rawlings, Charlotte Brent, Elmira Miller, Anethia Williams, Alice Keys, Helen Woodland, and Elizabeth Crudup; Calvin Ashe; Mesdames Catherine Mayo, Wahseeola Male, Frances Vessells, Olga Rodney, Hilda Higgins, Katherine Johnson, Imogene Douglas, Bertha Anderson, Elsie Carter, Sarah Rayne, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wood.

I'M A MOST HAPPY GAL that I live in a time when children are heard as well as seen . . . for, think of the pleasure that must have been missing a generation ago.

I'm thinking of Monday evening and while Georgeanna Chester was busy putting touches on the delectable dinner she served at the November meeting of Girl Friends, daughter Paula was equally busy receiving and entertaining the guests.

The entertaining was the showing of and commenting on films made during the family's recent trip to Europe. Paula shared this chore with her dad, Paul Chester.

After the seated dinner, the Girl Friends proceeded with plans for their post-Christmas Cotillion, the plans for which are going along fabulously, according to Agnes Patterson, chairman of the project committee.

Attending the session were Mae Williams, Elizabeth Stewart, Catherine Law, Anita Wheatley, Olga Parker, Bernice Chatman, Eliza Robinson, Erma Roy, Laura Jones, Gavnelle Spaulding, Vera Williams, Frances Vessells and Lula Patterson.

MEMORABLE MOMENTS also include Thursday evening and guesting with Vivian Washington.

The glow of burning logs in the charming living room of her Ellamont Road home . . . and Pierians perfectly entranced with exciting music of Mack Statham.

Mr. Statham, who plays practically every instrument mentionable, and particularly the organ, was playing piano this evening.

Afterwards (long afterwards) and when we had begged Mr. Statham into playing his own arrangement of the theme song of "Exodus") Vivian served a spicy hot cider-tasting drink and crisp cookies among other things . . . and the committee got down to completing plans for its art show.

The annual affair, which includes the show held jointly with the Art Department of Morgan State College, will be held in the Murphy Fine Arts Building, with a formal opening on December 3rd.

The Pierian will entertain several hundred guests at that black-tie event . . . will show items from the famed Blum collection, the Smithsonian Institute of Washington and from the collection of the Ambassador of the Sudan . . . among others.

BIG SISTERS met this past Saturday for an evening of dining and fun — and to talk over the results of their benefit Card Party.

Each sister invited a friend to share in the fun.

One look at the beautifully decorated and lavishly laden tables and calorie counters forgot the whole deal. Helping to add to the gayety was the champagne that was served throughout the evening. Cards and games were played after dinner, and of course the Twist got into the act.

Taking home prizes for bert, Vivian Burnett, Gladys either cards or games were Gwendolyn Seaborne, Aneitha Williams, Evelyn Hayshert, Idell Pugh, Helen Gatts, Vivian Burnett, Gladys Parker and Madora James.

Hostesses with the mostest were Mae Chamberiain, Lucille Brown and Mamie Greene.

Members present were Madora James, Bernice McDaniels, Iris Wheadon, Bernita Fuller, Bernice Watson, Lillian Slater, Mary Robinson, Credella White, Phyllis Shamwell, Helen Gattis and Frankie Hichen, president.

Guests were Idell Pugh, Aneithia Williams, Lucille Williams, Lucille Venture, Hedy Brown, Evelyn Hays-Parker, Mary Peck, Patricia Press, Gwendolyn Seaborne, Doreva Stanley and Mary Graves.

Saturdays ago the Big Sisters held their Card Party and Mad Hatters luncheon at Wilson's Restaurant.

An added attraction this year was Mme. Pochonet and her models who delighted fascinated and intrigued those present with their "three minute" showing of how an addition of the Perugue can change your looks and your personality.

Janet Woolridge showed how very glamorous she could look as a blond. Club members Bernita Fuller and Credella White modeled the more conservative dark brown tones. A peruque is a hair addition, you know.

Many little sisters will benefit in the form of Campership for needy youngsters from the affair.

Guests turned out in fall finery and the oh so new shapes in hats were much in evidence.

After luncheon, some of these ladies doffed these lids and donned Mad Hats, and mad they were. Selection of prizes gave the judges quite a job. Gathering prizes were Madeline Harding, whose hat was a scooped out pumpkin half, inverted, decorated with fall leaves, nuts and fall vegetables.

Isolene Crowner's hat could easily be worn to church or what-have - you. It was in pill box style, made from corn stalks — the crown being adorned with grains of corn—very colorful.

Dorothy Williams had on a very high rising hat, small brim, and it was artfully decorated with playing cards.

Walking off with top prize was Lou Lockerman, who wore a wide brimmed hat decorated with all the things you think of as representing the harvest season — Corn husks, nuts, leaves, etc.

After that the ladies went on to the more serious task of playing cards. A prize was given to the winner at each table.

Chairman of the affair was Mary Robinson, Frankie Hinchen heads the group.

Other members include, Lucille Brown, Willa Bouldin, Imogene Douglass, Helen Gattis, Bernita Fuller, Helen Mae Chamberlain, Lillian Slater, Bernice McDaniels, Mamie Greene, Iris Wheadon, Bernice Watson, Carrie Staten, Phyllis Shamwell, Madora James and Credella White, co-chairman.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS—of the Frat Men, who entertained in Baltimore, recently, were, left to right: Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Earle, Cornelius Pitts, Miss Dolores Foster, Dr. and Mrs. W. G. Tompkins, Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Davis, George Thompson and Miss Jean Booker of Washington.

MR. AND MRS. VIRGIL MOORE were married in Douglas Memorial Church, Sunday. The bride is the former Miss Bettye Ann Harrison.

MAN OF YEAR—for outstanding community service went to Dr. W. O. Bryson, right, Morgan State College professor and president of the Advance Saving and Loan Association, on Sunday when the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity observed its annual achievement week at Douglas Memorial Community Church. Fraternity president Earl L. Hagan makes presentation.

Hammond, Henrietta Johnson, Edna White, Virginia Burton, Sherdina Williams, Clara Williams. (Advt.)

Hawaiian still going strong after 48 years

The expression "Go Hawaiian" means more than a travelogue for the Hawaiian School of Cosmetology.

It refers to the Hawaiian Hair Products Corp., one of the oldest manufacturing and beauty culture schools.

Founded by Mme. Bramlett - Willis in 1913, it is no Bramlett - Willis in 1913, it is now a school and a system demanded by beginning beauty culturists all over the country.

Mme. Bramlette began in Indianapolis, Indiana, on a house-to-house canvass. Soon her products were in heavy demand, carrying her to many states. Each state deluged her with orders for Hawaiian Hair Products.

Today, there are day and evening classes at the Washington, D.C. headquarters which has been here since 1924. The course extends over 1,500 hours for a period of not less than 8 months at a reasonable price of $198. The balance is paid at $5 per week, with a $25 down payment.

Each student is supplied a theory book, a working kit and a mannikin head to practice on. All the students wear white uniforms and regulation nursing shoes for sanitation and comfort.

THE PRESENT school staff includes Hassell D. Robinson, president - secretary; Clyde F. Robinson, treasurer-business manager; Bert T. Johnson, plant superintendent; Theron J. Robinson, another plant superintendent; Josephine M. Robinson, public relations; Hattie N. Council, Ellen T. Ford, both instructors; Roosevelt Rayford the business administrator; and Dr. Raymond Davis who teaches anatomy.

"It's good to be independant," reflects Mme Bramlette"- Willis' creed, as she felt from the outset that the school was the road to opportunity for those who enrolled.

HER ADVICE to her staff, her students before her death was: do not be dependent. Do not be a kept student, with the state having to assume your care.

Being a beautician and being trained by the Hawaiian System has enabled hundreds of women to live up to the Bramlette creed.

Another creed of Mme. Bramlette is selling only high calibre products, built on merit. It is this that makes the Hawaiian Hair Beauty product one that has been accepted and respected since 1913.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES A. RIGBY, JR. were married in St. Peter Claver Catholic Church, Sunday. The bride is the former Miss Brenda Hill.
