Charge Four With Murder But 3 Already Given Life

Suspects are held minus bond in Mich.

DETROIT — Four men were charged with commiting a murder for which three other men already are serving life terms in prison.

The decision to file the new charges was made by Samuel Brezner, chief assistant prosecutor, after new information in the case was telephoned to him by Max Silverman, an assistant prosecutor, who had gone to question one of the prisoners.

Following the prosecutor's request, Recorder's Judge Bivin L. Daverport issued warrants charging first degree murder.

Named in the warrants are: Joseph Kelly, 29, formerly of 3524 Basset; Gene Adams, 21, of 526 Polk; River Rouge; Ronald Gilliam 23, formerly of 298 Frazier, River Rouge, and Kenneth Anderson, 28, formerly of 2223 Hurlbut.

Two other persons, Edward Lake, 46, of 282 Polk, and Delphine Coleman, 17, of 3610 Electric, will be held under bond as material witnesses, the prosecutor said.

* * *

ALL SIX are in custody. Kelley is at Marquette Prison and Anderson at Jackson Prison, serving sentences for other crimes, and the other four are being held by Detroit Police for investigation.

Adams and Gilliam were arraigned before Judge Davenport and pleaded innocent. He ordered them held without bond to await examination Nov. 28.

The two men also were arraigned on charges of committing other robberies, and pleaded guilty to those charges.

The murder of which they are accused was that of David Lipton, a Detroit druggist, who was shot fatally by robbers in his store last year.

The three men already serving life sentences for the crime are Lindberg Hall, Scesla Kuykendall and Robert E. Clark, they were convicted and sentenced last January by Recorder's Judge Gerald W. Groat.

Silverman, who had said he had "misgivings and doubts" about the trial, plans to go before Judge Groat to seek a new trial for the three.

* * *

EVEN IF they are cleared of the Lipton murder, only one of the three — Clark — could win his freedom immediately. Kuykendall would continue to serve a three - year sentence for theft, running concurrently with his life sentence, and Hall would be prosecuted on another robbery charge.

Adams, who was arrested two weeks ago, admitted he was one of the three men who entered Lipton's drug store to rob the owner, and named the other two as Kelly and Gilliam, Silverman said. He accused Kelly of firing the shot which fatally wounded the druggist.

Adams also named his girl friend, Delphine Coleman, as accompanying the robbers and remaining in the car while the holdup took place; Lake as the driver of the getaway car, and Anderson as having described the layout of the drugstore.

ADAMS' STATEMENT led to the arrest of Miss Coleman and Lake after the confessions of their roles in the holdup, Silverman said. The girl and Lake also implicated Kelly, Anderson and Gilliam, he said.

Gilliam, indicated he will waive extradition from Washington, D.C., where he was arrested Sunday, Nov. 12 at request of Detroit police.

Hall, Kuykendall and Clark were convicted mainly on the testimony of a "key witness," Edith Adams, 21, now of Cincinnati, who testified at their trial that she accompanied the three defendants to the drug store, remained in the car and heard shots fired before the men ran back to the car and escaped. Edith Adams is no relation to Gene Adams.

The trio were also identified during the trial by a woman drug store clerk who was an eyewitness to the robbery.

* * *

FOLLOWING THE jury's verdict, Harry Anbender, who had been appointed by the court to defend Clark, told Police Commissioner Hart, Prosecutor Olsen and several judges that the witness Edith Adams had recanted her trial testimony.

Anbender said he recorded on tape a statement made by Miss Adams, while in the County Jail awaiting sentence in another robbery case, that she had lied when she named Hall, Kuykendall and Clark as the holdup men.

However, when questioned again by police, Miss Adams refused to alter her original trial testimony.

A motion for a new trial by Anbender, based on the tape recording of the witness's changed statement and an alibi of the three defendants, was denied after a hearing by Judge Groat three months ago.

Lightfoot, top Red, beats 5-year rap

CHICAGO — Claude M. Party.

Lightfoot, former chairman of the Illinois Communist party, was freed in a surprise Government action this week.

Lightfoot had been charged under a section of the Smith Act which made it a crime to belong to the Communist party.

He was convicted on the charge in 1955 and sentenced to five years in prison and fined $5,000. The Supreme Court in 1957 ordered a new trial.

Assistant United States Attorney Donald Manion told Judge William J. Campbell that, in light of recent Supreme Court decisions, the Government could not prove it did not have sufficient evidence to try Lightfoot.

LIGHTFOOT, WHO is 50 years old, has a Communist record stretching back to 1934. When he was 25 years old he journeyed to Moscow for party training.

In addition to heading the Illinois Communist Party, Lightfoot is vice chairman of the American Communist Party, and a member of its National Committee.

On Jan. 26, 1955, he became the first American Communist to be convicted on a hitherto untested section of the Smith Act which made membership in the Communist Party a crime.

* * *

HE HAS been free ever since his 1956 conviction and has continued to direct the affairs of the Illinois Communist Party.

Lightfoot was in court when the Government's decision was told. After his release he said only, "I'm happy."
