Standing ovation for Baylor finale

LOS ANGELES (ANP)—When pro basketball star Elgin Baylor was introduced at the start of his final West Coast appearance with the Lakers at the Sports Arena last week, he got a standing ovation from the 7,000 excited fans.

By scoring 36 points and 13 rebounds, the dynamic star lead the Lakers to a 123-118 win over the Chicago Packers.

Baylor got another roaring ovation when the walked off the floor with only 31 seconds to play. This one lasted a full minute.

IN PAYING this last tribute to Baylor before he is inducted into the army, Angelenos helped to prove that he is one of the most sensational and most valuable players in the field today. He will be sorely missed by Coach Fred Schaus, the Lakers and the general public.

Although Baylor has played his final home game of the year, he will play six of the eight road games, the final a nationally televised game from Detroit Nov. 25.

SAID SCHAUS: "You know it's not like losing a starting pitcher or an all-pro half-back. It's like losing a whole starting outfield or backfield. Don't forget, we've only got 10-man squads and we really count on seven or eight.

"With Baylor, we're actually losing one-fifth of our team, since he averages 45 to 46 minutes a games."

MSA All-Stars set for benefit game

The Maryland Scholastic Association's All Senior football team that will face Loyola High School in the Fred Sturm Benefit Game in the Stadium, December 10, reached full strength yesterday (Thursday) when the final eight players were announced.

The final eight participants are from Calvert Hall, City, and Poly — all of whom closed their 1961 campaigns with traditional Thanksgiving Day games in the Stadium.

BOB BALDWIN, hailed as City's finest fullback in a decade and one of the best backs to come out of Baltimore in recent years, end Charles Meadowcroft, and center Fred Brooks will represent the Alameda school.

Ray Fisher, Bill Lewis and Dick Staedtler, three members of Poly's bearskided forward wall are the Engineers' choices.

Completing the list are guard Larry Sigwart and halfback John Connor, of Calvert Hall.

TEN PLAYERS from Patterson, Carver, Douglass, Forest Park and Edmondson had been chosen on Wednesday.

Eddie Golder, Carver's classy quarterback, and Norm Burkett, Forest Park's dazzling fullback, are included in the 10 players named today. Clyde Milliner, a speedy halfback, is Carver's second representative.

Burkett will be joined on the squad by teammate Jim Biddle, a 190-pound end.

TONY PRISCO, a hard running halfback and center Ted Angli, will represent Patterson, with Gerry Boyd, a 6'2", 180 pound end, and guard Larry Oliver, 5'6", 160 pounds being chosen from Douglass.

Two more linemen, Jim Taylor, 180 pound end, and tackle Dave Brown, 6'2", 190 pounds, represent Edmondson's contributions to the game.

Tickets, priced at one dollar, are on sale at all high schools, the Oriole and Colt Ticket Offices, and at all Amecho — Gino restaurants throughout the city.

NBA rates Liston No. 1, Brown boxer of month

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (ANP) — Sonny Liston, Philadelphia heavyweight contender, who lost his No. 1 national Boxing Association's rating when he was suspended for difficulties with the law, last week returned to the top spot in the association's rating for the month of October.

He regained the top contender's spot following his recent reinstatement by the Pennsylvania State Athletic Commission. He had been suspended since two charges of loitering and impersonating a policeman were lodged against him last summer.

However it was cleared of the charges in court recently.

IN THE October ratings, released last week, Liston was listed as the No. 1 contender behind Floyd Patterson of New York, the heavy weight champion.

Listed behind Liston in the No. 2 spot was Eddie Machen of Portland, Ore. Cleveland Williams and Zora Folley were rated 6th and 8th respectively.

The NBA also named Joe Brown, lightweight champion, the Boxer of the Month for October.

Bearcat Wright seeks world mat title Mon.

Bitter rivals will meet in a best-of-three-falls showdown for the National Wrestling Alliance's world heavyweight title when Bearcat Wright, sixfoot, seven - inch, 260-pound Jersey giant opposes title-holder Nature Boy Rogers at the Washington Coliseum Monday night.

Promoter Vince McMahon finally has closed out a bout that has been two years in the making.

Rogers, now in his 21st year as a pro matman won the NWA crown, and championship belt he risks Monday night, from Pat O'Connor before a gate exceeding $125,000 in Chicago's Comiskey Park last summer.

HOWEVER, WRIGHT not only is undefeated locally, but has teamed with Swede Daddy Siki in twice defeating the team of Rogers and Eddie Graham on disqualification matches at Griffith Stadium here two years ago, one of these attracting a record breaking gate of more than $42,000 here.

Rogers, one of the mat's best conditioned and hardest working athletes, proposes to make the best possibid use of his figure four grapevine body scissors that he considers unbreakable in his bid to eliminate Bearcat.

Wright, the younger and bigger man, insists that he will wear Nature Boy down with a variety of acrobatic specialties, and put him away with a bear-hug.

ROGERS ACTUALLY will be making the first defense of his NWA championship here, and is confident that he will win over the previously undefeated Bearcat.

Sweet Daddy Siki and Johnny Valentine will team up against the Japanese duo of The Great Sogo and Mr. Sato in one supporting tag team attraction while The Angel and Billy Darnell will test Roy Heffernan and Al Costello, the Australian Kangaroos, in another.

Other matches will pair off: Curtis vs. Lou Albano, Jolly Charlie vs Tony Altimore, Baba The Giant vs. Man Mountain Campbell, The Mighty Atlas vs Swede Hanson and Carlos Milano vs. Tommy O'Toole.

—City beats Poly

forced 4 Poly quarterback William Dempsey to hurry his passes as they repeatedly stormed in on him.

Operating from the "T" formation made famous by Notre Dame, Poly scored first in the second quarter, after a scoreless first period.

Dempsey tossed nine yards to end Ray Fisher to score, capping an 80-yard drive.

City the mxobe the ball on its own 23-yard line and marched 77 yards to score. Leading the drive was Robert Bailey, a 200-pound fullback, earlier chosen most valuable player for the game by Baltimore newspapermen.

He gained much of the yardage on rushes up the middle, made possible by end sweeps, and screen passes to halfbacks Thomas Duley and John Fisher. Duley went over to score from the five. Wisner passed to Baldwin for the two-point conversion and the score was tied at halftime.

In the third quarter, the beefy City line literally had things to itself, opening up gapping holes, as the Engineers rolled 95 yards in 11 plays to score. The pay-off maneuver was a 36-yard pass from Wisner to Fisher.

Dempsey's roll-out passes had which had been so effective earlier in the game, failed to click in the third quarter. His receivers were well covered by the City secondary, and he was repeatedly dropped for huge losses.

LEADING THE defensive charge for City were Charles Latrobe, Bert Hopkins, Frederick Brooks, Alonzo Tabron, and Richard Collier, all weighing close to 200 pounds.

In the fourth quarter, after receiving the ball on the punt, City marched 70 yards, but stalled on the Poly 26-yard line, but a five-yard off-side penalty retained the ball for City.

Wisner rifled a pass to Duley who took it to the five-yard line. On the next play, Duley again carried to the one. From there Wisner wet-backed for the score. Wisner hit Baldwin with a pass in the end zone for the two-point conversion.

Late in the final quarter Poly's offense began to roll, moving from its own 20 to the City 30-yard line, largely on the passing of Dempsey.

But the drive was stopped short of the goal line on the first of two Wisner interceptions. He took it on the goal line and raced back to his own 40 before being bumped out of bounds.

Wisner's ball-hawking paid off again a short time later, as he again intercepted a Dempsey pass, this time at the mid-field stripe.

Then he set in directing his team to a final touchdown, to the delight of some of the 24,000 fans. In the final minutes, Wisner dropped straight back and hit end Ronald Handy for a 28-yard scoring toss.

Wisner connected with Baldwin with a pass for the two-point conversion, and it was all over until next year.

Hearings set in Chicago coin theft

CHICAGO (ANP) — A hearing on charges against Policeman George Smith, 41 and William Thomas, 26, a porter at O'Hara international airport, was continued until Nov. 29, last week by Judge F. Emmett Morrissey in Felony court. Both men were released on bond.

Policeman Smith is accused of receiving stolen property single Thomas with larceny in the theft of six antique gold coins valued at $600 lost by a coin collector Nov. 1 at the airport. Police said Thomas was trying to sell the coins for a cash sheep when Smith took charge of them.

Galloping Gallie!

MIAMI — Willie Galimore, an all - time great halfback at Florida A. and M. University, holds the Orange Blossom Classic Bowl Stadium single game rushing mark of 295 yards as the Rattlers routed Maryland State, 67-13.

—Gov. Tawes seeks

Gov. Tawes denied the judgeship promise with this statement:

"I don't remember making any promises to appoint a colored judge. I assume by judge, you mean to the Supreme Bench.

"I never made such a promise."

THERE STILL remains a key spot vacant on the Tawes ticket. This is a candidate for congressman - at - large, as a result of a population increase in Maryland.

This eighth congressional seat was designated by the General Assembly at its past winter session to be made up of a new district carved with Prince George's and Howard Counties.

But the new district is held up, pending a referendum vote of Maryland's citizens on whether they agree in the next November general election.

Meanwhile, the new congressional seat will go to a congressman - at - large, elected by all voters of the state.

In his announcement of candidacy speech, Gov. Tawes said:

"MY DECISION is not hasty, nor is it predicated on recent developments. I am proud of the accomplishments of our administration, but there is further work to be done as government is a continuing process.

"I will go before the people of Maryland with my record of support on the basis of the record established by this administration.

"I intend to see that this record is presented factually and with candor.

"I can promise you nothing but hard work and a dedication to the principle that state government should be fiscally sound and devoted to the welfare of the people it serves."

The Democratic State Central Committee and some other groups have been campaigning for Gov. Tawe's reelection since early summer.

On Sept. 21, they staged a campaign dinner for the then stated "Tawes ticket" which raised a reported $220,000.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

Judge I. Sewell Lamdin heard these cases at Western Monday:
Mrs. Dora Mae Fisher, 28, housewife of the 500 block Baker St. was given a $10 suspended fine for striking Mrs Gloria Corey of the 1100 block Laurens St. Mrs. Corey, mother of nine said that she and Mrs. Fisher used to be friends during the church. Mrs. Fisher denied the defendant to pay court costs. Judge Lamdin told Mrs. Floyd, "See a lawyer. Don't slap her around."
Stanley Vernell Scribner, 30, a porter of the unit block N. Bentalou St. was fined $25 and costs for striking Mrs. Theresa Scribner, mother of 10. Mrs. Scribner said she had to leave her home through a bathroom window when her husband threatened her. Mr. Scribner described the incident as, "Just one of those things."
Norman Lee Fowlkes, 22, a porter, of the 1300 block W. Lanvale St. was given a 30-day suspended sentence for threatening Mrs. Dorothy Sellman of the 800 block W. Lexington St.
Christopher Jones, a 49-year-old barber of the 300 block N. Vincent St. was fined $15 and costs for disorderly conduct at a tavern in the 1000 block Pennsylvania Ave. The tavern owner, Mahlon Lloyd Fund Halpern, said the court was told he had been bothered by Jones and had never heard anyone use language" like that of the defendant.
James V. Tyre, a 20-year-old ship yard worker of the 1000 block Pennsylvania Ave. was fined $10 and costs for disorderly conduct at a tavern in the 1000 block Pennsylvania Ave. The tavern's owner, Carl Freedman of the 2300 block Eutaw Place said that Tyre's language was severe when turn-out of a bar and tried to pull him out of a telephone booth because he thought he (Freedman) was calling the police. The defendant said Mr. Freedman called him names.

In Memoriams

BARNES — In loving memory of our dear husband and my husband, TOMMIE BARNES, JR. "Tommie" who departed this life November 25, 1960.
Why did you care for his departure?
Why did you sit alone and broken hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship, we know
The pain it was to see you go,
Yet memory softens everything—
It gave us victory—death its sting.
We, who loved you, sadly miss you;
We, who held you very dear.
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with us every day.
Wife, NANNIE
Daughter, BARBARA.

BENNETT — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, HARRY F., who passed away November 25, 1952.
"THE MASTER'S WAY"
Not ours to know the reason why
Disappointed are our prayers.
But ours to wait for God's own time
To lift the cross we bear.
Not ours to know the reason why
When loved ones from us part
But ours to live in faith and hope
Though bleeding is the heart.
Not ours to know the reason why
Life's pain, strife and pain.
But ours to know a crown of glory
Sweet; graces for us gain
Life's troubles and sorrows and crown
Life's greatest gifts are given
Be still, my soul, dare not murmur
Nor dare to question God
These are the keys of Heaven.
DEVOTED WIFE, ANNIE
Son, HARRY E. JR.

BROWN — In loving memory of our dear sister, BERTINA, who departed this life, November 26, 1956.
Somewhere above this troubled sea
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Sister, BERTHA. In Heavenly peace
Rest and Praise your day we'll meet you there.
LOVING SISTERS AND BROTHERS.

BROWN — In loving memory of our dear mother, BERTINA, who departed this life, November 26, 1956.
How dear, how near her memory
Her loved ones keep alive
To watch above her children
And guide them thru the day.
Now perfect is each thought of her
Free comforting to know
Her own dear love is with us still
To bless the way we go.
Loving Children,

Gone but not forgotten.
By His Loving Wife, MARY GILES.

GLENN — In loving memory of our dear son, CPl. MARION GLENN, who passed away November 25, 1945.
Twelve sad lonely years have passed
Since our great sorrow came to us last.
The shock that we received
Was a mighty blow indeed
We still remember
Your last
What his last look or thought
Could he did
His duty—
He died a bravely fought,
Loving Mother and BROTHER.

JONES — In loving memory of our dear husband, CLARENCE, who died November 26, 1943.
We need you so, we miss you dearly
In our memory you are dear.
Sweetest, purest, longed for always—
Regards of you are ever near.
LOVING CHILDREN.

KENNEDY — In loving memory of my mother and our grandmother, ELIZA, who passed away November 22, 1960.
God made lots of beautiful things;
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends
And after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare;
A loving mother, God's own gift
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare.
A mother as dear as you.
FLORENCE EDMUNDS and FAMILY.

KING — In loving memory of my dear mother, ROSEBEN KING. God saw fit to call from labor to rest on Thanksgiving Day two years ago:
Sleep on dear Mother
We take your rest.
We loved you.
God loved you best.
LOVING FAMILY.

MITCHELL — In loving memory of our dear son, MAGNOLIA MITCHELL, who departed this life November 26, 1960.
Lonely are my days and nights
Upright and just to the end of her days.
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind
Beautiful memories she left behind.
GRANDCHILDREN.

MILES — In loving memory of our dear son, PFC. ROBERT MILES of Nutbrville, Virginia, who died November 26, 1952.
November brings and memories
A world of sorrow and pain
Dear Robert, we miss you so dearly
Life's great gift, which never
Was a day, we do not see dear,
We often sit and think of you in silence we remember you.
Though many years have passed
And many tears have fallen
But some sweet day we'll meet
Again beyond the pale and cards
And clasp each other's hand once more
For what it meant to lose you the world it cannot restore.
HENRY TAYLOR and ALBERT TAYLOR
Baltimore, Maryland

Wife, ANNIE McDANIEL.

TUCKER — In loving memory of our dear mother, ANNIE MARIA, who passed away November 30, 1960.
No one knows how much we miss you;
No one knows the bitter pain
We have suffered. Since we lost
Her.
Life has never been the same.
Her loved hearts your memory lingers
Sweetly, tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
IRENE, SARAH, SYRINGA, EUNICE and IRVING.

BEWELL — In loving memory of our dear father, LEVI BEWELL, who passed away November 25, 1957.
We do not forget you, nor do we think of you often, and will to the end.
Come and forgotten by some you but dear
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
From The Old Home
LUCILLE, HELEN, OLLIE and LEVI JR.

WIGGINS — In remembrance of our dear father and our brother and father, WILLIAM WIGGINS, who passed away November 27, 1952.
Sad and sudden
Was the call
Death came to nearly
Loved by all.
A bitter grief, a
Sorrow deep
Has left you one so
Dear.
Devoted Mother,
SARAH YOUNG,
SISTERS, BROTHERS,
SON AND DAUGHTER.
