Burkett, Golder, Milner primed for Sturm benefit

A bevy of the finest football players in Maryland scholastic circles will be assembled at Homewood tomorrow (Saturday) to continue preparation for the Fred Sturm benefit game, scheduled for Memorial Stadium next Sunday afternoon, Dec. 10.

Included among the all stars selected to oppose Loyola High are Norm Burkett, the spectacular Forest Park fullback who led scorers in Division 2, this fall, and Eddie Golder, who quarterbacked Carver to an unbeaten season and the Division 2 championship.

* * *

CARVER also has Clyde Milner, a shifty halfback who was among the top scorers in the Maryland Scholastic Association, is expected to run opposite the classy Calvert Hall halfback, John Connor, or McDonogh's fleet Don Peddy.

The game is being played to establish a fund for young Sturm, a star at Loyola before being permanently injured in a pre-season scrimmage. Participating athletes at the other MSA schools who have completed their senior year.

* * *

TO ASSURE conference-wide representation, at least two players were selected from each team in the MSA.

Larry Oliver, a guard, and Gerald Boyd, a pass-catching end, were picked from Douglass the only team to defeat Carver's Division 2 titleholders. The game, however, was an inter-division contest and did not count in the final tabulations.

John Broadway, winner of the "unsung hero" award last year, and Everett Fullwood were chosen from the Dunbar roster. Broadway is a guard, Fullwood a tackle.

Coaching the All Stars will be George Young, mentor at City College, the Division 1 champions.

Assisting him are other coaches who, because of their freedom from winter programs, were in a position to volunteer their services.

Selection of Walcott as the third man in the ring for the go at Maple Leaf Garden was approved by all partice concerned, following a demand by the Patterson camp that an out-of-town official be imported for the scrap.

Floyd's manager, Cuba D'Amato, delivered an early ultimatum which ruled out the use of any local referee. The promoters as well as Peter Fuller, manager of McNeeley, agreed to the choice of the former titleholder from Camden, N.J.

THE PROMOTER, Al Bolan of Championship Sports Inc., said Thursday that he is anticipating a gate of $200,000 and a gross in excess of $3,000,000 for the bout.

While he said he "will be happy with anything close to $200,000 from the "live" audiences, Bolan figured the receipts should go to $3,100,000.

Movie and radio rights are estimated at $750,000 with closed circuit TV expected to net approximately $2,150,000.

Carver, Dunbar, Forest athletes cop MSA honors

Carver and Dunbar High school athletes emerged with two South Atlantic Conference football titles in the 1961 campaign recently brought to a close.

The Trainers under coach Charley Robinson, took down the Division 2 varsity crown, and the young Poets of coach Don Patterson scored in the junior varsity class of Division 1.

CARVER SWEPT all six of her conference games in racing to the first grid championship she has won since joining the MSA. The only loss of the season was to Douglass in the final game, one which crossed division lines and did not count in the standings.

Dunbar's JV eleven wound up its campaign with a 8-3 mark, tied with Poly for top honors.

Robinson was in his first year as varsity coach at Carver, and Patterson accomplished his feat in his second year at the helm.

* * *

THE TWO divisions which produced the Carver and Dunbar champions also uncovered a pair of individual standouts.

Varsity athletes en Division 2, were led in scoring by Norm Burkett of Forest Park. The MSA sprint champion tallied 38 points despite the fact his team could finish no better than fourth. His closest rivals, Don Peddy of McDonogh, and Clyde Milner of Carver, were 40 points behind.

Dunbar's 16-year-old fullback James Blanton, was easily the brightest star in the junior varsity ranks. Blanton tallied 19 touchdowns and gained over 1,000 yards during the year. He covered 575 yards in touchdown runs alone.

Birds send Kay to Cleveland Indians

BALTIMORE

Righthander Artie Kay was one of two players dispatched by the Baltimore rioles to the Cleveland Indians in the opening hours of the minor league baseball meetings at Tampa, Fla.

Kay and outfielder - first baseman Buddy Barker were identified as the two players in the deal which brough second baseman Johnny Temple to the Birds last month.

Artie is 27. Last year, at Rochester in the International League, he had a 9-10 record, but most of his work was in relief. His earned run mark was an impressive 2.86.

Spring Lake golf champs

RICHMOND

The Spring Lake Golf Club of Richmond, has crowned the champions of 1961, as a result of a month-long match play tournament held on its home course.

The final rounds, in four flights, were played Sunday, Nov. 26.

The champions for 1961 are:

R. L. (Dick) Armistead, medalist; Claude Stewart, winner of Championship Flight; T. T. Duncan, winner of First Flight; Anthony Malloy, winner of Second Flight; Robert Smith, winner of Third Flight.

* * *

TROPHIES were awarded to each of these champions by Grant Gilchrist, tournament chairman; and a banquet was enjoyed by all of the members.

This event concluded a very successful first year of operation of the Spring Lake Golf Club, located in Glen Allen, Va.

A major project is underway now, during which six new greens are being put in and the club hopes, next spring, to open with a much improved and re - vamped course, and a challenging program for its members throughout the summer season.

Davis, Ferguson 1-2 for Heisman

NEW YORK — Ceremonies at the Downtown Athletic Club will honor Ernie Davis All - American halfback of Syracuse University, as the 27th winner of the Heisman Trophy, emblematic of selection as the best football player in the nation.

Davis polled 824 points in the balloting among 840 selectors throughout the United States to become the first player to integrate the ranks of winners of the award. The nationwide canvas has been conducted annually since 1935.

* * *

IN A YEAR when the versatile, 212-pound star was the first colored player to be so honored, his counterpart, Bob Ferguson of Ohio State, finished second, and Sophomore Stephens of Minnesota, was barely edged for third.

Ferguson, power - driving fullback of the Big Ten champion Buckeyes, pulled 771 points. Stephens, the first colored quarterback to call signals for a team in the Rose Bowl (Minnesota last New Year's Day), was nosed out for third by halfback Jimmy Saxton of Texas.

* * *

A TOTAL of 179 voters named Davis as the top player. He also received 103 second-place votes and 81 third place votes for a total of 824 points. Three points were allocated for a first-place vote, two for second, and one for third.

Ferguson received 122 first place votes and a total of 771 points. Saxton, had 81 first place votes and 551 points for third place.

Stephens had 104 first-place votes but only 543 points to miss third place by the narrow margin of 8 points.

* * *

LAST WEEK'S developments proved gratifying to Heisman runner-up Ferguson in another respect. The sensational Ohio State fullback was cited as "player of the week."

Bob was honored for his big day against Michigan, when the Buckeyes clinched the Big Ten title. He tallied four touchdowns and rushed for 152 yards in 30 carries as his team drubbed the Wolvernes, 50-20.

Globetrotters in D.C., Dec. 16

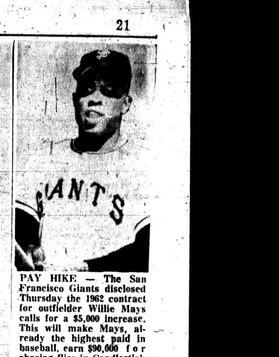
A tripleheader sports carnival, headlining the Original Harlem Globetrotters and the new Washington Generals, has been scheduled for the Washington Coliseum two weeks from tomorrow night, Dec. 16.

A musical variety show in which Cab Calloway doubles as entertainer and master-of-ceremonies and a world championship table tennis match involving England's Richard Bergmann and 23-year-old African champion, Emmanual Quaye, will complete the three-way attraction, starting at 8:30 o'clock.

The Globetrotters currently are launched upon their 35th annual tour backed by an outstanding 34-year record in which they have won 7,125 games while losing only 309 for a percentage of .958.

Meadowlark Lemon, 6 - 3 center and the team's Clown Prince; Murphy Summons, 6-3 forward and dribbling sensation, and Charlie "Tex" Harrison, a colorful and well-rounded 6-4 forward, are among the established Old Pros returning with the Trotters.

HEISMAN RUNNER-UP—Fullback Bob Ferguson of Ohio State, finished second to Ernie Davis in balloting for the Heisman Trophy, voted annually to the nation's outstanding football player.



PAY HIKE — The San Francisco Giants disclosed Thursday the 1962 contract for outfielder Willie Mays calls for a $5,000 increase. This will make Mays, already the highest paid in baseball, earn $90,000 for chasing flies in Candlestick Park this summer.
