Cleveland Browns draft 6 of 37 picked by NFL clubs

CHICAGO, Ill. — The perennially strong Cleveland Browns selected six colored players from the pool of college gridders available at the annual draft meeting of the National Football League here Monday.

The Browns, already possessed of six tan stars headed by Jim Brown and Bobby Mitchell, led all the NFL clubs as they went about compiling a list of 37 new prospects for the pro gridiron wars.

Next in line — with picks of four each—were the New York Giants, Pittsburgh Steelers and St. Louis Cardinals.

THE WASHINGTON Redskins, lowering their bars against colored athletes for the first time, took three tan prospects.

Los Angles, Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions also chose three apiece, while the Baltimore Colts, Philadelphia Eagles and Green Bay Packers selected two, and the Dallas Cowboys one.

The San Francisco 49ers, who have ten already on their roster, and Minnesota Vikings, who have five at the moment, did not take any.

EVIDENCE of the growing respect for athletes from predominantly - colored colleges is to be found in the fact the NFL bigwigs chose 16 players from schools of this category.

The pros picked up three from North Carolina College, three from Florida A. and M. University, and a like number from Grambling University in Louisiana.

They took one each also from St. Augustine's, Maryland State, Langston, Central State, Southern University, A and T, and Wiley College, Texas.

FOLLOWING herewith is a breakdown of the 12 teams and their selections:

CLEVELAND BROWNS (6) — Quarterback Sandy Stephens, Minnesota; tackle Charles Hinton, North Carolina College; end Sam Tidmore, Ohio State; end Clifton McNeil, Grambling; tackle Frank Gardner, North Carolina College, and halback Leroy Jackson, Western Illinois.

NEW YORK GIANTS (4) — Center Curtis Miranda, Florida A and M; fullback Bill Triplett, Miami of Ohio; halfback Joe Taylor, A and T College, and halfback Roger Johnson, Oregon State.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS (4) — Fullback Bob Ferguson, Ohio State; halfback Nat Tucker, Florida A and M; end Vern Hach, North Carolina College, and tackle Joe Knight, Valparaiso.

ST. LOUIS CARDINALS (4) — Tackle Fate Echols, Northwestern; quarterback Wilburn Hollis, Iowa; halfback Don Smith, Langston, and fullback Judge Dickson, Minnesota.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS (3) — Halfback Ernie Davis, Syracuse; halfback Joe Hernandez, Arizona, and fullback Ron Hatcher, Michigan State.

LOS ANGELES RAMS (3) — Halfback Ben Wilson, Southern California; tackle Isaac Lassiter, St. Augustine's and tackle Foster Anderson, UCLA.

CHICAGO BEARS (3) — Halfback Benny McRae, Michigan; halfback Kelton Winston, Wiley, and halfback Jerry Robinson, Grambling.

DETROIT LIONS (3) — Halfback Larry Ferguson, Iowa; tackle Sherlock Knight, Central State, and halfback Bobby Lee Thompson, Arizona.

BALTIMORE COLTS (2) — Fullback Charley Holmes, Maryland State, and halfback Scott Tyler, Miami of Ohio.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES (2) — Halfback Frank Budd, Villanova, and end Ronald Turner, Wichita.

GREEN BAY PACKERS (2) — Fullback James Taylis, Florida A and M, and tackle Junius Buchanan, Grambling.

DALLAS COWBOYS (1) — End Donnie Davis, Southern University.

Colonial golf dinner slated

Final plans were completed this week for the annual banquet of the Colonial (Ladies) Golf Club, scheduled for December 17, at the Sheraton Inn.

Highlights of the dinner will be presentation of trophies to winners of club tournaments during the 1961 season, and movies of activities on the fairway during the summer.

and their guests participated in a bingo party, sponsored by the Hackers, last Thursday at the YWCA.

A similar affair is anticipated in early 1962.

The club held its last regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Johnnie Garrett. Cohostess was Mrs. Morphelia Winston.

Mrs. Alma Arvin reported the results of all tournaments during the year ended, this qualifying recipients for the trophies to be awarded at the annual banquet.

Cream of schoolboy talent set for Sturm grid benefit

By SAM LACY

A galaxy of the finest football players in Maryland scholastic circles will take part in Fred Sturm benefit game scheduled Sunday afternoon at Memorial Stadium.

Top performers from each of the city's other 19 schools have been drilling daily in preparation for the meeting with Loyola High on the 33rd Street greensward.

AMONG THOSE named to the all - star squad are the following:

Linemen Fred Brooks of City College, Bill Lewis of Poly, Dave Brown of Edmondson, Jim Biddle of Forest Park, and Everett Fullwood and John Broadway of Dunbar;

Ends Gerry Boy of Douglass and buddy Taylor of Edmondson; linebacker Larry Oliver of Douglass;

Halfback Clyde Milner of Carver, fullback Norm Burkett of Forest Park, and quarterback Eddie Golder of Crver.

YOUNG STRUM, a student at Loyola, suffered a paralyzing injury during pre-season practice and the effort is designed to set up a fund for use on his behalf.

Coach George Young of City's Division 1 titlists, is tutoring the young all - star squad. He has been taking them through the paces at the Homewood filed of Johns Hopkins University, since the Saturday after Thanksgiving.

Young has had the assistance of all schoolboy coaches who are not restricted by winter programs, and indications are that a well-drilled unit will oppose the crack Loyola aggregation.

THE BALTIMORE COLT band, under the direction of Bob Gissin and complete with majorettes and cheerleaders, will provide the musical entertainment at the game.

The Colt band was one of the first organizations to offer its services when the game was announced. In addition to supplying pre - game and halftime entertainment, the members of the band, like all other observers, have volunteered to pay their way into the game.

IN ADDITION to the band Ed Adams, of the Colt Associates, who handles the field activities for the Colt games, has offered to perform the same task for the Sturm game. He will also handle the public address system during the game.

Tickets for the game are available at all high schools, at the ticket office of the Orioles and Colts at the Stadium, and at all Amecheline restaurants throughout the city.

Cage champion Carver scores

Defending MSA basketball champion Carver High School put on a strong final quarter to dispose of Towson Catholic, 45-36, in the opening game for both at the Carver gym on Tuesday.

Ted Manning just off an all - city performance on the Trainers' championship football team, shared high scoring honors with Charley Turner in pacing the win. Each tallied 14 points, with Ronnie Epps hitting for 11.

Gene Brittle's 14 markers led the losers.

SINCE THE game was a non - league affair, preparatory to the post - holiday opening of the conference schedule, coach Lloyd (Sodie) White was able to do with his youngsters.

One such was the concentration on outside shots by Manning, and the free use of Willie Johnson who, like Epps, is up from last year's junior varsity five.

Going into the final period leading by a narrow two points, 23-21, Carver outscored her rival, 22-15, to seal the verdict.

Honduras soccer club here Sun.

The Galicia Honduras team the nation's only all-colored professional soccer aggregation, invades Kirk Field Sunday afternoon to meet the Baltimore Soccer Club, local entry in the American Soccer League.

Headed by two of the East's finest individual performers, the rival teams will be battling for eighth place in the 20-team loop, which stretches from Maine to Maryland.

Fullback John Herseling, a 24-year-old Jamaican, who twice represented his country in the Olympic Games, leads the Galicia clan. Herseling has performed in international contests no fewer than seven times and was a star at the Pan - American Games in Chicago two years ago.

Baltimore - born Joe Speca is the mainspring in the works of the BSC. He was a member of the U.S. squad in the 1960 Olympics at Rome.

In an earlir meeting between the two teams, Baltimore won, 2-1, in the final minutes.

Sunday's kickoff is at 2:30 p.m.

Unbeaten Rams

The unbeaten Rams, unlimited football championship of this city, will meet the Stonewall A. C. of Washington, D.C., Sunday afternoon at Henion Park at 2 o'clock.

Coach Charlie Robinson's two - time city champions are 6-0 for the 1961 campaign, thus winding up a record that shows 24 victories in their last 27 outings. Twice they went through unbeaten campaigns to capture the amateur title.

MUCH OF the success has hinged on the performances of Gene Armstead, offensive guard and defensive linebackers: Charlie Rheinhart ex - Morgan College star who has quarterbacked Louis Gross, halfback; John Woods, middle linebacker, and James Lindsey, the team's leading ground gainer.

Following the Sunday tiff with the Stonewalls, the Rams will play hosts to the formidable St. Cyprian eleven, also of Washington.
