Bias-Mitchell rites at St. Cecelia's

with Lula Jones Garrett

(By Elizabeth M. Oliver substituting for Lula Jones Garrett who is on vacation.)

Misty, lovely, sweet, these are the words to describe the former Miss Clarice Elizabeth Bias as she became the bride of Clarence Mitchell 3rd, Saturday, in ceremonies at St. Cecelia's Catholic Church.

Her gown of Chantilly lace and organza was becomingly fashioned with a wide ballet length skirt. Her bouquet trailed white orchids as she was escorted to the altar by her father, Charles Bias, a Baltimore school teacher.

Bridesmaids, pictures of roses in the snow, in frocks of red and white peau de soie, were the cousins of the bride, Misses Yvette Williams, Springfield, Mass., a Howard University junior; Peggy Brandon, Baltimore, a Virginia State College senior; Laverne Johnson, Washington; and junior bridesmaid, Harolyn Clarke, Baltimore.

MOTHER OF the bride, Mrs. Willard Bias, wore beige rose embroidered silk organza and matching flowered turbin.

Mrs. Juanita J. Mitchell, mother of the bridegroom, wore eggshell brocade with gold lame accessories and matching turban.

Maid of honor was the bride's sister, Miss Joyce Bias, student nurse at Provident Hospital.

Best man was Mr. Mitchell's brother, Kelfer Mitchell, a pre-med student at Lincoln University. Ushers included another brother, Michael Mitchell, a City College Junior; Carl Edward Smith and Robert Utley, Mr. Mitchell's fraternity brothers.

A third brother of the bridegroom, 9 - year - old George Davis Mitchell, was junior usher.

MUSIC AT the wedding was by the trio, Misses Pamela and Carol Jones and Ann Dashields and soloist, Mrs. Marian J. Downes, aunt of the bridegroom.

Highpoint of the reception at Morgan Christian Center was the serenade by Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity brothers of the bridegroom who encircled the bride as they sang the Kappa Sweetheart song. Mrs. Mitchell sang the solo, "Fairest of the Fair."

Hostesses were Mrs. Donald G. Brandon, aunt of the bride; Mrs. Alphonso Burge, Mrs. Emma Kelly and Mrs. Harold Clark.

Present at the rites and reception were Mrs. Roy Tyler, Oxford, N.C., maternal grandmother of the bride; and Dr. Lillie M. Jackson, Baltimore, maternal grandmother of the bridegroom; and Clarence Mitchell II, father of the bridegroom who is Washington director of the NAACP.

The bride is granddaughter of the late Charles Bias, president of State Teachers College, Elizabeth City, N.C., for many years. She is a sophomore at Morgan State College.

Mr. Mitchell is a senior at Morgan. The couple is at home at 1220 Druid Hill Ave. Their honeymoon was spent in New York.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Alphonso Bryce, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Greene, Mr. and Mrs. George Holland, Mrs. Melvin Forrest, Mr. and Mrs. Ignatius Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Case, Mrs. Francis Medine, Mrs. Mattie Brown, Mrs. Frances E. Vell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Poulhaus, Mrs. Wyoming Arnold, all of Washington, Erader Mills, Springhope, N.C.

THE FORMER Miss Alma Arbor Gathers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gathers Sr., was wed to Richard Colcough Jr., in equally as beautiful ceremonies at Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church with the Rev. William Tapscott presiding in single ring ceremonies.

The bride wore spanish lace over white taffeta in an ankle length gown with pearls and sequins at the scalloped neckline and carried a prayer book with white orchids.

The reception was at the home of the bride's parents, 2325 Edmondson Ave.

The bride is assistant dietician at Henryton State Hospital and a graduate of Morgan State College. The bridegroom is a District of Columbia postal clerk, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Colough Sr., Sumter, S.C.

Maid of honor was Miss Mary Gaithers, sister of the bride. Bridesmaids were Misses Thomasina Butler, New York; Louise Harvin, Mary Watson, Nancy Nichols, Baltimore; with Rosa Mae Gillard, cousin, flower girl; Andrew Smith Jr., ring bearer.

Best man was John C. Smith, Washington. Ushers were Robert White, Delano McCullum, Millard White, James Gathers, Baltimore.

The bride's mother wore beige brocade with matching accessories while the bridegroom's mother wore yellow organza.

THE FALL Membership Campaign of the Cooperative Women's Civic League ended triumphantly with an enrollment of 35 new members. Hence, the occasion of the Saturday Christmas party at the Fellowship House to celebrate.

With Mrs. Bernard Harris as president, the members of the Membership Committee as hosts, the affair saw the group present in chic frocks which were rivaled in beauty only by the breathtaking Yuletide setting of the party.

The table was adorned with silver punch bowl, silver candelabra, good things to eat garnished in red and green and overall, the soft glow of tall candles.

Greeting the new recruits were Mrs. Anethia Williams, membership chairman, and her corps of hostesses Mesdames Philathia Hall, Nikki Randolph, Queenie Lane. Souvenirs were ballpoint pens, first aid kits and other practical tokens.

Official greetings were extended by Mrs. Harris. Mrs. Vivian Bundy, vice president, gave the purposes and history of the organization.

A check for $20 was presented Fellowship House and then the ladies went on to planning a shower for Provident Hospital before they went into the social hour.

THE FEMMES Continental Club of Baltimore, Peter Louck, editor of the Annapolis daily paper and the United Church Women received citations from the Crownsville Women's Auxiliary at a tea at the hospital on Sunday at 2 p.m.

Witnessing the impressive ceremonies in the Nurses Dormitory living room was Mrs. J. Millard Tawes, wife of the governor of Maryland, honorary vice president. Mrs. William H. Richardson, president, Annapolis, presented the awards.

Receiving the citation for the Continentals was Mrs. Alverta Lee, president. Present were club officials, Mesdames Cornelia Lowe, Charlotte Johnson, Zelma Parker, Bettye Lindsay, Elizabeth Dals.

Dr. Ruth Laws, Dover, Del., a supervisor of Home Economics for the state of Delaware, was guest speaker. Music was by Mrs. Joyce McManus, contralto.

In addition to other committee reports, those present heard the report of the Tag Month project first begun by the late Mrs. Vashti Turley Murphy, the group's first president and organizer.

• • •

Mrs. Ann West, president of the Annapolis branch of volunteers asked that more women join to work with patients, a rewarding duty. Also speaking were Mrs. Richardson who reviewed the year's program and Mrs. Shirley Diggs, vice-president.

JEANETTE L. JOHNSON was hostess when "The Organization" met last Saturday. Plans were made for a round of holiday parties and luncheons with the exchange of gifts included.

MR. AND MRS. CLARENCE MITCHELL III
