The Recipe

Squeeze and reserve juice from 1 large orange. Measure juice and add milk to make 1 cup liquid. Grind orange rind and pulp with 1 cup seedless raisins and 1/3 cup nut meats; grind twice and set aside. Sift together 2¼ cups sifted cake flour, 3 teaspoons Clabber Girl Baking Powder, 1 teaspoon salt, and 1 cup sugar into large mixing bowl; add ½ cup shortening and 2/3 cup liquid. Beat 2 minutes using medium speed of electric mixer, or by hand beating 150 strokes per minute. Keep batter scraped from sides and bottom of bowl with rubber scraper. Add 2 eggs and remaining 1/3 cup liquid. Beat 2 minutes longer as before. Blend in fruit mixture. Pour into a greased and floured 9 x 9 x 1¾-inch baking pan. Bake in a 350° F. (moderate) oven about 45 minutes. Cool. Frost and decorate as desired. Cut in squares. Yield: 1—9 x 9-inch cake.

It's the BALANCE that Counts . . .

It's the balance of ingredients in baking powder that governs its leavening action. Only when these are scientifically balanced can you be sure of uniform action in the mixing bowl plus that final, balanced rise to light and fluffy texture in the oven.

Hoffman St. closing okeyed

The Planning Commission approved Wednesday the closing to traffic of the block of E. Hoffman St. facing Collington Square, to provide for the erection of a new school in the adjoining area.

The new elementary school site is to be bounded by Oliver St. on the east; Hoffman St. on the south and Collington Ave. on the west.

Closing of the E. Hoffman St. block facing the square follows the pattern of the closing in West Baltimore of the 1400 and 1500 blocks of Harlem Ave., facing Harlem Park, setting aside an adjoining portion of the park for a recreation area for students of a junior high school under construction there.

Two Fifth District lawyers kicked off their campaign for seats in the House of Delegates at an Afro-Cuban dance at the Baltimore Civic Center Hall, 2900 block W. North Ave., last week.

The two Democratic candidates are Ernest D. Young and Kenneth Holniker.

"Our task in running for public office is very difficult, and we must rely on the independent thinking people to support us since we are not supported by any political machines or pressure groups," they told supporters.

Flowers ideal for Yule gifts and decorations

This is going to be one of the biggest flower Christmases in history. Estimates are that flower sales will exceed a million dollars in the Baltimore Metropolitan Area alone.

Allied Florists say the reason for the great upsurge in flower - giving at Christmas is that the blooms are 'prettier than ever' this year, and they make 'memorable gifts.'

Joseph Shaner, executive secretary of Allied Florists, noted that wholesalers have estimated that over 150,000 poinsettia; 20,000 red carnations and 10,000 red roses will be purchased for Yule giving and decorating.

* * *

PRICES, THIS year, range from $4 to $15 for the multibloom poinsettia.

White orchids, too, will also be very much in demand, as most of them are grown in this area.

Allied envisions that greens ('anything that is green')—all kinds of pine and hemlock will be popular this season. The flocked greens—white and pink—are "fast-growing favorites."

A variety of cut flowers—pom poms, the spider mums and the Fuji mums, the Iris, gardenias and camellias are 'just lovely.'

Allied adds that heather this season is 'magnificent.'

And, of course, there is no shortage of mistletoe.

* * *

Florist experts suggest that you can decorate your home and make an attractive gift at reasonable prices by combining a number of things in small numbers.

For example, the red rose with the holly and berries, the jackpine and pom poms are ideal.

You can make your own arrangements, and still be in 'Perfect taste.'

Highly - covered Christmas balls, the pine, and say, a half half dozen carnations or roses, also work 'wonders.'

* * *

"THERE IS nothing like the aroma of sweet greens and Christmas flowers in the house at this holiday season," said Mr. Shaner.

Flowers are also ideal for decorating the altar at church. The poinsettia with greens can be arranged to make an impressive scene.

Mrs. Gilbert G. Cummings, wife of the owner of J. J. Cummings and Sons Florists, said she expects an abundance of poinsettia this week for Christmas giving.

Eli (Ward) Chaney, well-known chauffeur who has been delivering displays for Cummings for years, will also be busy getting out memorial wreaths.

Cummings specializes in wreaths of red ruscus combined with natural green. Many customers take them to cemeteries where they remain fresh in all kinds of weather, right up until spring.

Mrs. Mary Bruns, another well-known florist, is featuring a real evergreen Christmas tree, 12 inches high, decorated with miniature balls, ideal for table or centerpiece, or for use in hospitals and public places.

At the Burns shop, also, there is a wide selection of flowers for corsages, and church altars.

CARL T. NORWOOD, proprietor of Summers Florist Shop, is featuring center pieces of painsettia ('just beautiful,' he says), combined with Yule bells, green foliage and a variety of cut flowers.

"Modern displays in vases and centerpieces," make ideal gifts, according to Wadsworth Robinson of the Orchid Shop.

His bouquets will also have holly and a bit of mistletoe and red gladioli arranged with a Christmas motif.—B.M.P.
