Mat strongman at Coliseum Tues.

The world's strongest wrestler, Art Thomas, is booked to appear in the main event on the gala holiday "show of the year" at the Baltimore Coliseum Tuesday night.

Thomas, a seaman nicknamed "Sailor Art", will try to break the 7-time winning streak of "The Great Scott", a villainous grappler who bars no holds or rules.

But then again, the superman also boasts an unbeaten ring record, so this bout should prove to be most interesting.

Bear Cat Wright, another star, has signed to match grips with Big Bob Orton, a Midwestern bully-boy. Bear-cat, a former boxer, recently challenged champion Floyd Patterson for a boxing bout.

Wilma's feat 4th in last five years

NEW YORK — Selection of Wilma Rudolph as the "female athlete of the year" for 1961, marked the fourth colored winner of the annual poll in the last five years.

Miss Rudolph, repeating her triumph of a year ago, joined Althea Gibson as winner of the award two years in succession.

• • •

ALTHEA TOOK the top-for-the-year honors in 1957 and again in 1958, after winning her second straight tennis double at Wimbledon and Forest Hills. Wilma scored last year afte her brilliance in the Olympic Games at Rome, and was cited a second time for her in international meets.

The only break in tan domination of the award the past five years, was accomplished by tennis star Maria Bueno, in 1959.

The city placed 21 among the top selections in the various classifications.

Those rated lower than tenth in their respective divisions are as follows:

• • •

Claudine Malone, 16th, women's singles; Sarah Allen, 19th, women's singles, and Clyde Freeman, 22nd, men's singles.

The team of Phil Lucas and Charles Berry was ranked 15th in men's doubles.

North-South Bowl integrated

MIAMI, Fla., — Two colored players have been named to the North squad of the North-South Bowl football game, to be played here Monday (Christmas) night.

Halfbacks Rennie McRae of University of Michigan, and Nolan Jones of Arizona State College, will integrate the annual show for the first time in its long history of Orange Bowl competition.

McRae is a senior. He was the chief breakaway threat of the Wolverines the past three seasons.

Jones, also a senior, has been one of the nation's top scorers the past two seasons. In 1961, Nolan was eighth in point-getting in the country. In 1960, he was second behind Tom Watkins of Iowa State.

12 slated to see action in Rose Bowl

PADADENA, Cal., — The 48th Rose Bowl football game, highlight of the Tournament of Roses New Year's Day spectacle, will feature a total of 12 colored players.

Seven will be in the lineup of the UCLA champions of the Big Five (Pacific Coast) Conference. Five, headed by All - American quarterback Sandy Stephens, will take the field in the Ivory of Big Ten (Midwest) Conference Champion Minnesota.

• • •

THE UCLANS will start a backfield that is three-fourths colored. Bobby Smith will open at left halfback, Kermit Alexander at right half, and Almose Thompson at fullback.

Others likely to get a call from coach Bill Barnes are halfback Ezell Singleton, tackles Bob Jones and Bob Weedess, and end Chuck Hicks.

Joining Stephens for the Gopher cause will be halfback Bill Munsey, fullback Judge Dickson, and tackles Bobby Bell and Carl Eller.

Minnesota has three other tan athletes. They are halfback Denny Roles of Wilmington, Del., guard Roland Mudd of Braddock, Pa., and halfback Charlie Smith of Minneapolis. None is likely to see action, however due to persistent injuries during the season.

• • •

THE APPEARANCE of 12 tan stars here Monday marks the largest number to compete in a Rose Bowl game in the past eight years.

Thirteen were listed for action on New Year's Day of 1954, when Michigan State defeated UCLA, 28-24. There were eleven on the scene in 1957, when Michigan State again downed the Uclans, 17-14.

Last year, Washington — with a quartet led by George Fleming — whipped Wisconsin and her two tansters, 17-7.

• • •

STEPHENS, THE first colored player ever named All-America at quarterback, has been described by coach Murray Warmath as the Golden Gophers' indispensable man this season.

Although the 215- pound senior from Uniontown, Pa., is not a great passer, he is considered the best triple-threat back in college football.

Late last year, he was named the Most Valuable Player in the Big Ten for 1961, and was cited as the total offense leader in the nation's most formidable collegiate conference.

• • •

MUNSEY, WHO mans the right halfback position in the Minnesota backfield, figures he was probably late for school more often than any of his grade school classmates, back in Uniontown, Pa.

"I used to pick up a tin can for a football and practice running with it on the way to school," said Bill. In this enthusiasm to master open field running, embryo halfback Munsey occasionally missed first bell at school.

"Bill has great offensive talent," says Warmath, "but what was even more surprising was the natural way he took to defense as a sophomore. That's the most difficult thing to teach a new man — playing the deep secondary."

"I had to play both ways in high school all the time," says Munsey, "it was a lot of work then, but I think it helped prepare m for college ball."

• • •

AS A SOPHOMORE and junior, Dickson was a frustrated halfback. That was because Minnesota had a raft of fullback talent and Coach Murray Warmath thought Judge would be more valuable at halfback.

"It wasn't his position and it was a difficult adjustment for him," said Warmath, "but Judge made a sacrifice for us. This year, we were able to put him at fullback, where he belongs."

• • •

NAMED ON most of the 1961 All - American squads, Bell, a junior from Shelby N. C. is another in a long line of outstanding Minnesota tackles.

He does not have the usual heft which has been a trademark of Gopher tackles for so long, however. Not that he is a midget, at 6-4, 200 pounds, but he does rely more on speed and agility than brute force.

• • •

BELL, incidentally, looks up to only one man on the Gopher squad and that's sophomore tackle Carl Eller, a 6-6, 235 pound youngster. That makes Eller two inches taller and some 17 pounds heavier than Bell.

Coach Warmath said at season's outset that much of the Gophers' 1961 success would depend on the play of Eller, the quiet, dignified young giant from Winston-Salem, N. C.

"Eller is a better blocker than Bell," according to the Gopher coaching staff. "He's got some more learning to do on defense, but he improves with every game. He's a worker."

• • •

QUARTERBACK Bob Stevens of UCLA, will have some talented performers working with him in the trio of Smith, Alexander and Thompson.

Bobby is a 190-pound senior with blazing speed from Compton, Cal. He led the Uclans in just about every major department — rushing with 786 years, passing with 305 yards, and in total offense with 930 yards net.

• • •

SMITH'S 85 points were 37 more than his closest scoring rival, and his 19.33 average on kickoff returns was second only to his fellow halfback, Kerm Alexander.

Alexander was UCLA's top pass receiver, catching 11 tosses for 271 yards and a 24.6 average. His punt return average of 16.37 was better than Singleton's though Ezell was credited with 126 yards in runbacks.

Kermit weights 187 pounds and hails from Los Angeles.

• • •

THOMPSON, who picked up ten pounds somewhere between his junior and senior years to weight 198, is alternate captain of the UCLA eleven.

The Los Angeles youngster stands third in total offense on the club, with his 270 yards all gained rushing. He is third in scoring, third in rushing and third in kickoff returns, proving that he has unusual versatility for a fullback.

• • •

SINGLETON, 161 pounds, plays behind Smith on both offense and defense. He spells his fleet teammate at left half on attack and at safety when the other team has the ball. Ezell hails from San Francisco.

The two tackles total 470 pounds on the scales. Jones, a product of Oakland, hits 230, and Weeden, a native of Los Angeles, touches down at 240.

Hicks, a 190-pound senior from Memphis, Tenn., occupies the role of No. 3 end.—SAM LACY.
