If you can't work there, then don't buy there: CORE

By EDWARD FEEKS

WASHINGTON CORE this week issued a selective buying guide with a call to the colored community to put an end to economic injustice based on job discrimination.

CORE released the first of a series of guides to the AFRO, showing firms in the city that practice merit hiring and those that don't.

"The list is not complete, but it shows where we are in the Merit-Hiring Campaign and how far we must go to achieve economic justice in Washington," said Julius W. Hobson, CORE president.

Leisenberg's and the Hub Furniture Co. are among those listed by the guide as failing to practice merit hiring.

THE GUIDE begins with automobile agencies and dealers which fail to practice merit hiring. They don't employ colored salesmen and office personnel, according to CORE's Survey.

They are Addison Chevrolet 14th and Florida Ave., NW; Barry-Pate, 1130 Connecticut Ave., NW; Hicks Chevrolet, 5529 Georgia Ave., NW.

Torrey Motor Co., 1137 19th St., NW; Royal Motors, 4100 Georgia Ave., NW.

Flood Pontiac Co., 4221 Connecticut Ave., NW; Colonial Oldsmobile Co., 1241 Sixth St., NE; Capitol Pontiac Motors, 22nd and N Sts., NW; Star Pontiac, 407 Florida Ave., NE.

Pohanka Oldsmobile - First 1126 23rd St., NW; Curtis-Mandell Chevrolet, 1800 Nichols Ave., SE; Stohlman Chevrolet, 33rd and M Sts., NW.

Capitol-Cadillac-Oldsmobile Co., 1222 22nd St., NW; Hayes, M and First Sts., SE; Handley Motor SCo. 6323 Georgia Ave., NW.

Logan Motor Co., 1136 20th St., NW; Parkway Motors Co., 3040 M St., NW; Steuart Motor Co., Sixth and New York Ave., NW; Triangle Motors, 2019 Rhode Island Ave., NW.

Leo D. Butler, 1121 21st St., NW; Moore-Crear Motors, 4400 Connecticut Ave. NW; William and Baker, 2819 M St., NW.

In addition to Langsburgr and the Hub Co. Ida's Department Store, 5601 Georgia Ave. NW, was listed as failing to practice merit hiring.

Only one chain drug store appears in the non-hiring category, which is Dart Drug Stores, 1111 G St., NW, and in other parts of city.

CORE listed the Elite Laundry and Dry Cleaning Co., 2119 14th St., NW, as a firm that employes no colored office clerks, typists, deliverymen and service personnel dealing with the public.

CLOTHING stores that fail to hire colored sales and office personnel are:

Raleigh Haberdasher, 1310 F St., NW; Lewis and Thomas Salts, 1409 G St., NW and 1109-A Connecticut Ave., NW; University Shop, 1318 G St., NW.

Farnsword Reed, 1625 H St., and 1325 F St., NW; National Shirt Shop, 942 F St., Bond Clothes, 1335 F St., Webster Clothes, 1012 F St., NW, and D. J Kaufman, 1005 Pennsylvania Ave., NW.

Shoe companies that fail to practice merit-hiring:

Thom McAnn, 5350 Queens Chapel Rd. NE., and in other parts of the city: Jarman, 1339 F St., NW; Regal, 1345 F St., and 915 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, Holiday and Flagg Brothers, 1301 F St., NW.

William Allen Originals, 1014 F St., NW, and 1203 Connecticut Ave.

Figures and charts show how job discrimination holds the income of the colored family below that of the white family in the city.

"The economic plight of the non-white population of the District is due primarily to the denial of job opportunities to colored residents by private employers, "CORE said.

"The community should be alerted to these practices, and where a firm refuses to hire colored personnel, it should not be patronized and supported by any citizens who is interested in established a healthy economic community."

CORE said colored families lost economic ground between 1950 and 1958 by comparison with the median income for white families in the city.

In 1950 colored families had a median income which amounted to 64 per cent as much as that of white families the organization said.

"By 1956 the income picture for colored families had deteriorated, amounting to only 59 per cent of the total for white families," the report states.

"And by 1958, colored family income was still below what it was in 1950

"Thus, in the decade of the 50's the economic position of the colored resident declined.

"This is indeed a glaring situation when considered in the light of a declining white population and an increasing colored population in the District."

CORE said that there is reason to believe that "the glaring income situation of 1958 is, if anything, worse in 1961. The rate of unemployment among colored citizens in the nation's capital is more than twice that among whites."

The buying guide is based on information gathered by CORE/ survey teams, interviews/ and replies form employees.

"Some establishments answered our inquiries, but others didn't," Mr. Hobson said.

"The answers were evaluated by CORE committees and where it was apparent that a firm employed colored in the job categories spelled out in our letter, such firm was so listed.

"Where there was apparent evasion of the answer or no answer, CORE listed the firm among those that don't hire colored as sales or office personnel."

The organization notes in the survey that "some firms listed on the favorable site of ledger are guilty of token hiring practices."

Firms hire "one or two colored persons in sales or office positions and are apparently making no attempt really to adopt extensive merit hiring practices," CORE says.

Mr. Hobson told the AFRO that token hiring made the organization decide this week to resume picketing of Lansburgh's Department Store after announcing earlier that a settlement had been reached. Picketing lines removed

"We were misled by the store's management," he said "We were given names of colored persons who used to work at Lansburgh's, but who are no longer there.

"We think the store should hire more colored help."

A 24-YEAR-OLD man lost his life Christmas morning when he allegedly went to visit a friend in the 1600 block Linden Ave.

Benjamin Carey of the 1600 block Mount St. was pronounced dead on arrival at Provident also from a shotgun wound of the chest.

Central District Patrolmen Billy Vest and Thomas Badik said they found Mr. Carey lying inside the hallway of the house, and a shotgun under a pillow in a bedroom.

Ben S. Scurry, 54, of the Linden Ave. address was arrested as a suspect in the shooting.

Before Judge John A. McGuire in Central Municipal Court Tuesday, Mr. Scurry was ordered held without bail pending a hearing.

On Wednesday a third homicide victim, Gene Davis 26, of the 900 block N. Carroline St. died from a gunshot wound of the chest.

Mr. Davis was admitted to Johns Hopkins Hospital on Saturday.

The judge said 'let her go home for Christmas'

A 46-year-old blind woman has good reason to believe that there's a Santa Claus.

Mrs. Viola T. White, 500 block W. Biddle St., charged with murdering her blind friend, was acquitted.

Charles E. Moylan Jr., prosecutor, told Judge Carter that Mrs. White stabbed Arthur Wells, 57, to death during an altercation resulting from a drinking party.

The sightless woman testified she was attacked by Mr. Wells while she was paring food for dinner, including onions.

Mr. Wells became angry, she said, when a neighbor, sent to the store for wine, was too long in returning.

"He struck me in the face and kicked me in the side," she said.

"I struck out in his direction with the knife," she continued. "I don't know how many times I struck at him, but I believe I hit him one time."

JUDGE CARTER acquitted the blind defendant when Mr. Moylan said Mr. Wells died from the loss of blood resulting from a severed leg artery.

"Under normal conditions," Mr. Moylan said, "it couldn't be nothing more than manslaughter."

"But are these normal conditions, with two blind people involved?" Judge Carter asked.

"I don't think they are. Verdict is not guilty. Let her go home for Christmas," the jurist concluded.

a broken arm and fractured skull."

Harrod took the three-story plunge, police said, when a table he was using as a ladder to enter the building, overturned.

The defendant was hospitalized six weeks before he could have his day in court.

HARVEY J. ROBINSON, 42, 2700 block Riggs Ave., got a five-year gift certificate (good at the penitentiary) when the Supreme Bench confirmed a second-offender lottery violator verdict handed down by Judge Carter last June.

Robinson was nabbed by racket busters last year when they saw him making the rounds at alleged numbers pick-up stations.

A forged drug prescription spotted by an alert druggist, was instrumental in getting John Miller a 10-year holiday term.

Miller, 32, 1300 block Berry St., was asked to pick up the "medicine" later, after presenting the phony prescription.

On his return, the druggist testified, Miller was met by narcotic officers, who had been called during the delay, Judge Carter was told.
