Gadabouting In Baltimore

Templars' supper dance is gala ending to Old Year

with Lula Jones Garrett

A fat white Christmas tree, with red-berried holly drifting down the candle-lit expanse of a wall-to-wall buffet . . . laden with supper viands;

An orchestra beating out rhythm from the dreamy to the twistable. . . .

Those suave hosts, the Templars . . . and as chic a flock of guests as have parked at drink-loaded tables for chatting between hopping;

That was the Templars' annual holiday party in Union Hall, Cherry Hill, Friday night.

Templars, Inc., is made up of smart young men (and you can interpret that in more than one way) including:

Former Senator Harry Cole, Judge Robert Watts, Robert Diggs, Albert Jacobs, Wilson Henson, Robert Payne, Dan Brewington, Cecil Johnston, W. Emerson Brown, Royal White;

Melvin Callaman, Myles Robinson, Samuel Beasley, Perry Bradby, Adrian Datcher, James Gilliam, Cyrus Marshall Jr., Lester Marshall, Grand Master Sam Daniels, David Scott and Philip Turner.

Guests for the evening were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Claude B. Young, Emile Gibson, John Wood, Miles Harrison, T. Madison Garrison, Charles Michael, O. Bennett, Wesley Stubbs, M. Gee, A. Murray, D. Henry;

Messrs. and Mesdames Charles C. Mason, Gaines Lansey, William Griggs, Marvin Davis, Paul Scott, E. Lloyd Davis, Elwood Brown, Roland Williams, Philbin Scott;

Messrs. and Mesdames Charles Jackson, U. Theodore Hayes, Wesley McNeill, Carl J. White, Wallace Hall, James Datcher, Arnett Brown Jr.;

Messrs and Mesdames Edward Parker, William Gardner, Henry Horsey, Royal Weaver, Ben Foreman, Harry Sifford, David Wright, Milton Branson, Milton Allen, Harold Jennifer;

Messrs. and Mesdames Joseph Beasley, Raymond Pinderhughes, Arnold Woodlon, Christo Waller, Anthony Porter, Clarence Maiden, Marvin Poliakoff, Clement Nixon;

Messrs. and Mesdames John Stokes, Howard Collins, Armstead Jenkins, Ronald Addison, Lewis Gwynn, Edward Fisher, Lester V. Wallace, Robert P. Diggs, DeWitt Howard, Edward Young;

Messrs. and Mesdames Maurice Owens, Otis Sprow, Pierre Davis, James Ford, David Brinkley, Wilbur Johnson, Ossarew Gee Jr., George Lottier, Claude B. Young;

Messrs. and Mesdames Warren Parker, William Pinderhughes, Charles E. Brown, Clarke Davis, William Hays, Alfred Woodland, Alfred Taylor, William Perry, Robert Stewart, Harold Clark;

Messrs. and Mesdames Lewis Richardson Jr., Herman Claiborne, James Addison, Robert Umphery, James Cole, James Denkins, Howard Jones;

Messrs. and Mesdames David Mason, Rick Cummings, Thomas Lee; Drs. and Mesdames Archie Robinson, Charles Winter, Ted Phifer, Shirley Clinton;

Drs. and Mesdames John T. Chissell, William Garner, Albert Laforest, Maurice Moore Sr., Simon H. Carter, H. Garland Chissell, Albert Burwell;

Drs. and Mesdames Nathan Pitts, Bernard Harris, Harold R. Johnson, Bernard H. Christmas, Robert McDaniel, Tom Jones;

Mesdames Frances M. Wood, Alfreda Pinkney, Bernice Williams, Ellsworth Rhetta, Lula Patterson, Ruth Carter, Alice Nixon;

Misses Hilda Turner, Jane Penty, Esther Johnson, Georganne Smith, Anne Wood, Jerelle Foster, Gloria McDaniel;

Ronald D. Scott, Earl S. Britt, Malcolm Francois;

Bernard Miller, Warren Hubbard, Arthur Warner, William Simmons, Church Richards, Willie Goodwin and Thomas Brown.

THE BALTIMORE Continentals may some day host a livelier congregation of fashionably dressed guests at their annual holiday ball, but it appears unlikely.

The hostesses added their own accent to the festive surroundings and their party bids afforded many Baltimoreans the opportunity to dress to the "nines."

Immediately upon entering the hall, the guests were captivated by a lavishly draped red and white refreshment buffet which was serviced during the entire evening.

Mrs. Lillie Branch greeted her guests in a stunning turquoise brocaded ensemble—a "Branch" original—with matching slippers.

Dance chairman Edith Davidson, dressed in a white, red trimmed chiffon dress, complemented with a red stole, beamed with happiness at the success of the affair.

Attractive and slim Mrs. Esther Johnson in a two-toned number, the red skirt topped with a white stain bodice, white leather evening gloves completing the outfit.

Mrs. Jean Millard of Washington, charming in a new beige and gold metallic sheath.

Newlywed Mrs. Samuel (Gloria Tucker) Adams was ultra smart in black lace.

Continental Margaret Beaman also in sophisticated black — hers a heavy silk with a petal skirt.

Mrs. Lena Holland in becoming pink chiffon.

Mrs. Marian Russell, chic in black over pink, the bodice of black lace.

Mrs. June Rouse, looking her prettiest in vivid red chiffon with gathered skirt and long fitted sleeves.

Johnny Sparrow's music, and coffee and pastries served during the parting moments added to the success of the affair, proceeds from which go to underprivileged children in the city.

Hostesses were:

Lillie Branch, Margaret Beaman, Ellen Howard, Mattie Mumby, Delores Young, Frances Turner, Emily Peck, Edith Davidson, Helen Gatts, Sevilla Carroll, Frankie Hinchen, Sue Miles, Doreva Stanley, Phyllis Thompson, Serena Holmes, Odessa Dyson and Helen Quarles, president.

Continentals and guests from Washington included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Charles McLaughlin, Morgan S. Brown Jr., Charles Jackson, Sylvester Haynes, Moultie Wilson and Hubert Hinton; Mesdames Audrey Hurst, Pauline LaMar, Gladys Bettis, Ursula Holmes, Mildred Avery, Gloria Jones, Margaret Spriggs, Frances Bigby, Phyllis Quisenbury, Mabs Kemp and Kitty Higgs.

Miss Marie Britt, Messrs. Fred Thomas, Joe Sewell, Jimmy Pharr; and Walter Fields.

MR. AND MRS. Abraham Riley Sr. entertained the Florial Circle of Douglas Memorial at luncheon at their home in Pimlico, Sunday.

Their guests were the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Marion C. Bascom, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Barrett of Catonville, Mrs. Fannie Jackson, Miss Fannie Jackson, Mrs. Violet Marshburn and Mrs. Ethel Walton.

STAR PARTY was that on Saturday night, given by Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Barksdale in their Dorchester Road home . . . star because it was the kind of family affair that one thinks of when the holiday sparks sentiment. For, you see, the Barksdale not only had their contemporaries, but the children came along, too.

And while it was Dad and son (Benjamin Barksdale) who manned the club room bar, it was the MRS. who had cococted the eatables, which ranged from oysters to eggnog . . . with all the in-betweens.

Guests included Mrs. J. Logan Jenkins, Drs. and Mesdames William Watts, Bernard Christmas, Edward McDaniels, Louis Johnson; Messrs. and Mesdames Sinclair Swan, Charles Cephas, William Lewis, Alfred Woolridge, Irving Williams, Robert Bailey;

Also Mesdames Verda Welcome and daughter, Mary Lue; Lula Patterson; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Williams and son, Ronnie, and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Barksdale and sons, Benjamin and Robert; and Dr. Robert Jackson.

THE WILLIAM GARDNERS turned the spacious club room at their Wheeler Avenue home into a cabaret and invited friends in to welcome the New Year with them.

To the tune of 'Auld Lang Syne" and the bubbles from pink champagne, they greeted the infant year . . . and then dined to the customary fare of black-eyed peas and good luck herring to guarantee that '62 goes well.

After much "twisting" and "let's twist again" breakfast was served.

Their guests included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Leroy Bennett, Milton Branson, William Brown, Charles Darkins, Luther Harden, Edward Fisher, Frank Folkes, Benjamin Foreman;

Messrs and Mesdames William Hutchinson, Charles Payne, George Rosedom, James Smith, Alfred Woodridge, Avon Wright, David Wright;

Dr. and Mrs. Evan Gilkes; Mesdames Edna Dungee, Ethel Freeman, Beatrice Busford of New York; William Daniels, John Byrd and Robert Hammond of New York; and Miss Eula Watkins.

THE BRIDGE WHEELS met at the card tables and at the board of Bernadine Harrison on Friday evening.

Agnes Underwood garnered the first club prize and second club prize went to Dolly Walker, Arnette Lottier took the booby gift. Other members playing included Nicki Randolph, Fiozella Clark, Mabel Grant and Julia McDaniels.

First guest prize went to Mary Harris; second to Jimmy Laforest. Other guests were Frances Wood, Phyllis Diggs, Louise Gee and Elsie Clark.

Gifts were also exchanged during the evening.

POCAHONTAS and Casper Parker, whose New Year's Day formal dinner over the years has virtually become a tradition on Falls Rd. way, again presided over an elaborate festive board.

The Parkers, who seem to derive so much pleasure in their roles as hosts, had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Cortland Brown, Dr. and Mrs. Albert LaFoREST, Dr. and Mrs. Thurman Daniel and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Mackey.

The Chi Delta Mu Wives were in for a real treat when Saretha Greene, Celonia Walden, Eugenia Anderson and Alice Sykes acted as hostesses for the December meeting.

It was a party. Everything for an enjoyable evening was not forgotten. The Wives became quietly playing cards and chatting but as time went on, before you knew it, the tables were pushed back and everybody had every body doing the Twist. Gifts were exchanged and Secret Pals revealed, such excitement you have never seen.

In keeping with tradition, Savings Bonds were given to members with new babies born during the year. The recipients were Dr. and Mrs. Bernard White, who have a son; and Dr. and Mrs. Claude Hill, a daughter.

Rita Ross and Alice Sykes were given gifts of cheer for successfully fighting the flu virus.

Members of the club present were:

Mesdames Mabel Alleyne, Eugenie Anderson, Thelma Jando, Eloise Brown, Mabel Byrd, Vashti Christmas, Jeannette Christmas, Edith Davidson, Saretha Greene, Elsie Harris, Dorothy Hawkins, Gwendolyn Hill, Serena Holmes, Minnie Lee;

Mesdames Trudy Luck, Rosalond Lee, Bernice McDaniels, Doris Reynolds, Bernice Robinson, Rita Ross, Alice Shelton, Charlotte Sherrington, Alice Sykes, Janice Tribble, Celonia Walden, Pauline Watts, Ann White, June

Happy New Year and Thanks

The Frank W. Phillips Jr. family wishes you a happy and prosperous 1962.

We offer special thanks to our many well wishers who have brightened the past seven months during which the head of our house has been hospitalized and bedridden.

And we offer our thanks to God for all His goodness, and for sending us those of you who have given generously of your time to comfort us.

We enter the New Year with new faith, new courage, new strength, confident that God shall supply every need.

"She's Engaged"

By IDA MURPHY SMITH

EMILY CAROLYN FORD

WILLIS - FORD

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Ford have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Emily Carolyn, to AOC Hodges Gordon Willis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Willis.

Miss Ford was "Mayor" of Baltimore during the Model Youth City Council in 1958 and won the DAR citizenship award for that year. She was president and salutatorian of Douglass High School, Class of June, 1958.

Miss Ford made her debut at the Me-De-So Debutante Cotillion in 1959.

She studied voice for two years at the Peabody Conservatory Preparatory School on a Delches Scholarship. She is presently a senior at Towson State Teachers College, majoring in kindergarten - primary education.

The bride-elect is the paternal granddaughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Robert E. Ford. On the maternal side, she is the granddaughter of Mrs. Lillie M. Taylor and the late Arthur O. Marks of Windsor, Va.

AIRMAN WILLIS is a graduate of Central High School in Charlotte Courthouse, Va. and Morgan State College where he received his B.S. degree in art education. At present, he is an air policeman with the U.S. Air Force stationed in England. He is a member of Beta Sigma Tau Fraternity.

He is the paternal grandson of Henry Knight and the late Mrs. Daisy Knight, both of Green Bay, Va. His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Heran Hamlet, Keysville, Va.

The wedding is planned for June.

THE BALTIMORE CHAPTER of the Smart Set had a gala party for the members and their husbands in the beautiful home of John and Dorothy Wood, Friday evening.

Luscious food, spirited fun and laughter for the exchange of gifts highlighted the night's pleasure.

Seen about were:

Doris and Harry Cole, Louise and James Gilliam; Bertha and Allan Forte, Ruth and Harold Jennifer, Iris and Lawrence Mapp, Margaret and David Mason, Doris and Mike Moore;

Sarah and Joel Newton, Alice and William Pinderhughes, Thea and E. V. Stokes, Dorothy and John Wood, Kay and Simon Carter and Jacquelyn and Robert Watts.

ONE OF the happiest club groups in the city is the Jolei Jemas.

Having adopted a family for this year's activity and means so much to children, special gift packages were sent to each of the six children in the family of their choice.

Each child received a complete outfit of clothing and appropriate toys and games for Christmas. In addition, Christmas goodies consisting of candies, fruit, nuts and cookies went along to make Santa's visit at their home complete.

Members of the group are Carrie P. Carter, Mae G. Cornish, Essie Dorsey, Leava Ferrell, Geneva Johnson, Martin King, Mildred McDaniels, Bernice S. Turner and Elizabeth Young.

Widely differing versions of "the twist" were demonstrated New Year's Eve as the many friends of Meribah and Leslie Bell gathered at their lovely Clifton Ave. home to hail the advent of 1962.

The dancing followed the singing of the traditional Auld Lang Syne marking the departure of 1961 and signaling the arrival of the New Year.

A brief halt occured when the guests were directed to the dining room where a smorgasbord filled with everything from the traditional balckeyed peas and hog jowl to caviar.

Enjoying the food and fun were:

Messrs and Mesdames Fancis Richardson, Medford Reynolds, Joseph Howard, John Oliver, Ted Randolph, Walter Dow, Donald Brandon, Cliff Mackay, Leroy Armstrong, Edward Parago, Ernest Stokes and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Hunt.

ETHEL HARRIS was hostess on Wednesday, at her home, entertaining The Women.

The affair, a gala luncheon, was attended by members Anita Woodlon, Vernice Wynn, Ivora Evans, Juanita Kelson, Mildred King, Alice Young;

Also Edna Douglass, Mary W. Jones, Devida King, Pauline Paysour, Charlotte Brent, Helen Long, Mildred Brooks, Verna Gosnell and Lucille Monroe.

And adding more spice to the doings was the exchange of gifts by the girls.

IN A MOST Christmasy atmosphere, Mary P. Bacote entertained the members of "The Organization" at her Fernhill Uvenue home last Tuesday at five.

The early part of the evening was spent sharing Christmas activities and exchanging gifts which included gorgeous stemware, beautiful jewelry, and a wide assortment of exquisite linens.

At six, the guests assembled at attractively arranged tables for a most delectable candlelight supper, prepared and served by the most gracious hostess.

The guests added to the attractiveness of the setting having downed some of their prettiest holiday finery in vivid reds, brilliant greens, and snow whites.

The hostess was most charming in her red and black lounging togs.

There for a gay and festive occasion were Marian Amorey, Mae Cornish, Veronica Greene, Jeanette Johnson, Henrietta Jones, Ernestine Lewis, Aurelia Lonesome, Alphua Williams, Lillian T. Wilson and Mary's special guest Evelyn Wilkey.

—Back in the States after 20 years abroad in the diplomat ic service are Mr. and Mrs. John (Ida) George. He's retiring and they're settling in Washington.

Last stmt was in Japan.

George Handy flew over from Paris to visit with his motherin Washington and his sister in Baltimore. Has flown back to France.

Dr. and Mrs. Martin Rodney, off to Panama, South America, for the holidays, stopped for a visit with Elizabeth Telly in Miami.

POT - POURRI: Wives to envy include Anethia Williams, whose Roland gifted her with a mink coat, Christmas; Fiozella Clark, whose Harold jumped the calendar to mark her anniversary with a circlet of bagette diamonds; and Annette Johnson, whose Ernest's choice for her Christmas stocking was a magnificent diamond watch.

Yule gift to Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Cook, a chapter founder; and Mrs. Edna O. Campbell, a past national president.

On the second floor guests were served from a laden table, especially attractive in decor of cut flowers, tall silver candelabras and candles.

AT INTERVALS, AKA sorors made brief talks to the college girls, informing them of the history, activities and aims of the sorority.

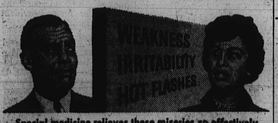
Has CHANGE-OF-LIFE Built a Wall Between You and Your Husband?



Special medicine relieves these miseries so effectively 3 out of 4 women tested found a happy middle-age again!

Too many women "give in" to change-of-life! Instead of enjoying middle-age, they spend those years in misery...nervous as a cat, smothered by "hot flashes", so weak they feel only half-alive! Really They're too tired, too tense to give their husbands real companionship.

Don't let it happen to you! Today, most women can go "smiling through" those trying years—with Pinkham Tablets! This clinic-tested combination of medicines (including iron), was specially developed for the ailments women alone suffer.

No Costly Shots!
