PARTICIPATION in social and civic activities on a national and local basis is the purpose of the Girl Friends, a national organization comprised of 22 chapters in various states throughout the United States. In line with this purpose, many chapters of Girl Friends have been presenting debutantes in an effort to service both a social and civic need.

The Thursday evening cotillion was the Baltimore Girl Friends' initial one. Its purpose was three - fold: to encourage the young people of the community to build toward a fuller, richer life, to introduce a group of worthy young women, and to make a financial contribution to the New Provident Hospital Build Fund.

• • •

TOWARD the latter end, Mrs. Elmer Patterson chairman of the cotillion committee, presented $1000 to Theodore Perkins, administrator of Provident Hospital, who represented the hospital board.
