Alabama 'customs' outweigh courtesy in court setting

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — At the opening of the NAACP trial in the Montgomery County—Circuit Court here on Dec. 27, NAACP General Counsel Robert Carter challenged the segregated seating arrangement in the courtroom and demanded that the same courtesy titles applied to white counsel and witnesses in the record be applied to colored counsel and witnesses.

Judge Walter B. Jones ruled that the regular "customs and practices of this court will be observed."

However, colored and white reporters covgated in a jury box assigned to the press.

WILMA RUDOLPH WARD

On the campus at Tennessee State after being notified she had been selected as AP's Woman Athlete of the Year.

—Wilma

Ward — was notified last Wednesday of her selection to receive the 1961 Sullivan Award.

The Award is presented annually by the Amateur Athletic Union "to the athlete who, by performance, example and good influence, did the most to advance the cause of good sportsmanship during the year."

Selection of Wilma marked only the third time in history that a woman has earned the majority of ballots in a nationwide poll of sportsmen, sportwriters and sportcasters.

Ann Curtis, a swimmer, was the Sullivan recipient in 1944, while Pat McCormick, a diver, earned the award five years ago.

Last year, Wilma was runner-up to Rafer Johnson, the 1960 Olympic decathlon champion.

Aside from Rafer and Wilma, there have been only two other colored winners, Mal Whitfield in 1954, and Harrison Dillard in 1955.

* * *

TOMMY KONO, world champion weightlifter from Honolulu and a six-time nominee for the Sullivan Award, was runner-up after finishing fifth in 1960.

In third place was the world broad jump champion, Ralph Boston, Laurel, Miss.

Following herewith are some of the awards and outstanding achievements of the of the young star:

1. Won three gold medals (3) in the 1960 Olympics in Rome, Italy.
2. Won second place in the nominations for THE HAMES E. SULLIVAN AWARD (top amateur athlete in the U.S.A.).
3. Was awarded the 1960 HELMS WORLD TROPHY for the North American continent (the Helms trophy was created by Paul W. Helms to honor the foremost athlete of each continent of the world annually with selections dating from 1936).
4. Was awarded THE LOS ANGELES TIMES AWARD for women's track and field for 1960.
5. Was selected by MADEMOISELLE (fashion magazine) to receive one of its 10 annual awards for outstanding achievements for 1960.
6. Was selected by THE NEW YORK TIMES as one of the 10 most outstanding women in the U.S.A. in 1960.
7. Was voted most outstanding athlete of the year by the EUROPEAN SPORTSWRITERS' ASSOCIATION DIPLOMA, 1960.
8. Received the 1960 sports magazine award for top performer in track and field.
9. Received THE EAGLE-FRED-ERIC C. MILLER TROPHY (the associated press award for the world's top female athlete for 1960). And 1961.
10. Was selected by the NASHVILLE BANNER as its outstanding athlete for 1960.
11. Received THE NATIONAL NEWSPAPER PUBLISHERS ASSOCIATION'S ARUSWURM AWARD for 1960.
12. Was awarded THE BABE DIDRICKSON ZAHARIS TROPHY for the outstanding female athlete of the U.S.A. for 1960.
13. Was awarded THE CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS PRIZE (for outstanding sports achievement in Venoa, Italy on September 29, 1961.)
14. She holds every amateur athletic union, American and world record in the 100 and 200 meters in both indoor and outdoor tracks. She broke the 200 meters record in the Olympic trials in Texas last summer, 22.9, she also broke the old 100 meters record (11.3) in Germany of this year during the U.S. vs. Germany dual meet to make a new record of 11.2.
15. Features stories of her life and accomplishments have appeared in the following magazines: THE MEADENS (ESQUIRE) THE ROTARIN, W O U LD SPORTS, REPA, THE MESSAGE, THE AMATEUR ATHLETE, FIST O TALASI, SPORTS ILLUSTRATED and LIFE.
16. She is the only American athlete whose "Frozen Face of Fame" has been made, LAST AUGUST, AMONG THE MADAME TUSSAUDS WAX FIGURES IN LONDON MUSEUM.
17. Was awarded a personal citation by the governor of Tennessee for outstanding achievement in 1960.
18. Received THE BETTY CROCKER AWARD for outstanding achievement for 1960.
19. Her hobbies are as follows: READING, COOKING, HOBBY BACK RIDING, COLLECTING RECORD ALBUMS and "ANSWERING HER TAN MAIL".

Joe Brown Ring Mag's 'fighter of the year'

TAMPA, Fla.(ANP — Joe Brown of Baton Rouge, La., will set a new record for the lightweight division when he defends his title for the 12th time against Carlos Ortiz in a nationally televised bout from Las Vegas, Nev., Feb. 24.

The announcement by Brown's manager, Lou Viscusi, came after the 35-year-old champion was named fighter-of-the-year by Ring Magazine, the leading boxing publication.

* * *

ACCORDING to the terms of the contract, Brown, who will battle Ortiz in Convention Hall, is guaranteed $60,000 from television, another record for the division. He also has the option of taking 40 per cent of the receipts from the live gate and TV.

Ortiz, 25, is guaranteed a flat $17,500.

* * *

THE BOUT is to be promoted by Joe Dupier of the Silver State's Sports Club.

Brown, the most active of all the ring champions, has held the title for six years. He won it by defeating Wallace (Bud) Smith in 1956. Since then, he has easily defeated all challengers.

Hit all points in Rose Bowl

PASADENA, Cal. — Colored athletes wrote most of the scoreboard story Monday afternoon as Minnesota turned back UCLA in the 47th Rose Bowl extravaganza, 21-3.

Quarterback Sandy Stephens proved himself the complete All-American as he led the Golden Gophers from an early 3-0 deficit to a relatively easy win over the host Bruins.

* * *

STEPHENS tallied two touchdowns and his roommate, halfback Bill Munsey, scored the other for Minnesota. Halfback Bobby Smith kicked the field goal that marked UCLA's lone scoring success.

Except for the three aftertouchdown conversions made by the Gophers' Tom Loechler, Stephens et al accounted for all 24 tallies of the warm, sunny afternoon.

* * *

SANDY CAPPED two Minnesota drives by going over for touchdowns, the first time from the 1, the second time from 3 yards out. Munsey took a handoff from Stephens and drove in from the 3, for Minny's second quarter TD.

Bobby Smith's 28-yard field goal in the opening minutes gave the UclansMany others shortlived 3-point lead.

Denies being propagandist

NEW YORK (ANP) — Michael Struelens, a former Belgian civil servant, denied charges by a state department official that he spent at least $140,000 this year spreading propaganda for the Katanga governemtn of Mois Tshombe.

Carl T. Rowan, deputy assistant secretary of state for public affairs, said in a Philadelphia speech before the Phi Beta Sigma fraternity that Struelens, operator of Katanga Information service here, was part of a "clever, big money campaign to convince Americans they ought to support Katanga's secession."

Struelens said he was "very surprised to see how misinformed the state department can be."

As for expenditures of the Information service, Struelens said, "at the moment it would be so easy to check with the Department of Justice. My expenses are an open book."

Struelans lived in Katanga for 25 years. He was a director general of travel and tourism for the former Belgian Congo.

Guinea hits report Red aide expelled

PARIS, France (NNPA)—The Soviet Ambassador to Guinea, Dinl Solod, was "not expelled" but had been asked to leave for personal reasons, M. Tibour Tounkara, Guinea Ambassador to Paris, told the press last week.

He said Moscow had been asked to send another ambassador to replace him.

India 'friendly' to Goa critics

NEW DELHI, India (NNPA)—Prime Minister Nehru said here last week that India's action in Goa did not signify any change in her foreign policy.

Mr. Nehru said, "We shall continue to strive to be friendly even to those who have been critical of us in this matter." He denied that in seizing Goa from Portuguese rule, India had "in any way contravened the principles of the United Nations or international conduct.

Goa, he said, always belonged to India. By sending her troops into Goa, India had only "put the legal seal on a historical fact."

First Congo troops join UN at Katanga

LEOPOLDVILLE (NNPA) —Eighty members of the 850 Congolese Central Government troops who are being detailed to fight with United Nations forces have arrived in Kamina, the former Atlantic Treaty Organization base in North Katanga, the government reported.

United Nations Commanders are said to have opposed the putting of Congolese into UN uniforms because they feared they would be difficult to discipline. However, the Congolese public has welcomed their acceptance.

Charles Harris

Charles W. Harris, 58, of 830 Tyson St., was buried Wednesday in National Cemetery after funeral services from Katie Williams' Funeral Home.

Mr. Harris died last Saturday at his home.

A native of Baltimore, Mr. Harris was a WW II veteran. He served with the army in the Pacific.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Lillian Harris; two sisters, Mrs. Irene Bennett and Miss Edith Harris.

Jerome Carrington, musician, buried

Funeral services were held Thursday at the Elliott Funeral Home for Jerome Carrington, 58, a former Baltimore pianist who in his hey day played at the swankiest Chicago night spots and directed a church choir at the same time.

Mr. Carrington died Sunday in Chicago at the home of a sister, Mrs. Beatrice Simms, 312 S. Parkway, a school teacher.

His brother, the Rev. Mr. N. B. Carrington, is pastor of Union Memorial Methodist Church, Harlem and Warwick Ave.

During the height of his career, Mr. Carrington was a pianist with Dave Peyton's orchestra at the Cafe de Paris and with Erskine Tate's orchestra and with Charlie Cooks at the Dreamland.

* * *

IN ST. LOUIS he organized the Missourians which later formed the nucleus of Cab Calloway's orchestra.

Mr. Carrington played for Sunshine Sammy, Ethel Waters, Caterina Jarboro and Buck and Bubbles. He spent a short time in the Bridgeport, Conn. area across the United States, working at some of the fashionable hotels in the Far East.

Mr. Carrington was one of the first entertainers to crash the color line.

* * *

BORN IN Baltimore one of five children of the late George and Estelle Carrington, Mr. Carrington attended Douglass High School.

After graduating, Mr. Carrington studied music at Peabody Institute.

His career began as organist for St. James PE Church, pastored by the late Rev. George F. Bragg Jr. He later became choir director, playing for benefits and receptions.

He attended Morgan State where he took courses in printing, business and typing but devoted most of his time to music. He played occasionally at the Regent Theatre.

Mr. Carrington left Baltimore 1920 for Chicago where he played for 12 years. In 1940, Mr. Carrington moved to Washington, and then to Philadelphia, before settling in Chicago last year.

IN ADDITION to a brother and sister, survivors include, another brother, Oscar Carrington, California businessman; a sister, Dr. Leanora Carrington, teacher at Central State College, Wilberforce, Ohio; two nephews, Leslie Simms and nieces, Beatrice Myers, Florence Roberson, Lucille and Florence Carrington.

Burial was in Arbutus Cemetery.

Packages banned at Jail

"The jail commissionary store, formerly controlled by private persons, will be under the jurisdiction of the City Jail.

"Commencing Jan. 2, 1962, all profits will be utilized for the inmates' welfare and benefits.

"The receiving of packages has been discontinued, and the problem of contraband will be lessened. This has been a great concern of all institutions throughout the state."

Hiram L. Schoonfield, warden, Baltimore City Jail, gave his picture of new renovations at that institution in a report of the past year's accomplishments to Mayor J. Harold Grady made public this week.

Continuing on the matter of general improvements, Mr. Schoonfield's report stated further:

"Since my tenure of office, Oct. 16, 1961, in addition to the above, we have utilized the new North Building to full advantage, repaired jail walls, improved lighting in the yards;

"Established a 2,500 calorie diet for inmates, organized vermin control, regulated sanitary inspections, requested periodic Fire Department inspections, new communication system installed, and many other improvements."

THE REPORT revealed that over 19,000 persons were committed to the institution the past year.

Plans to modernize the present 102-year-old jail have been formulated, the report stated, and renovation will begin this year, at an approximate cost of $4,300,000.

"Intensified alcoholic and group therapy meetings are conducted twice weekly at the jail," Mr. Schoonfield stated. "Complete examinations of every inmate for tuberculosis and venereal disease have been started.

"Educational visual aids, movies and athletic programs are in progress to keep inmates from inactivity, and to teach them healthful habits."

The report further revealed that efficiency and morale of employees has improved, in view of the proposed increase in the salary scale, and that a thorough training program has been initiated.

LOOK WHO'S HERE!

The Right Rev. Zackary

The Gifted Man of GOD who, through GOD has helped many through his prayers and blessings.

Mr. B. H. was very down and depressed. She went to see Rev. ZACHARY to look for help into his private sanctuary. He prayed for her and GOD blessed her the next day.

Mr. B. W. was in trouble and almost lost his mind with worry. Rev. ZACHARY prayed for this sick man. And GOD blessed this man. Now he is able to go to work every day.

Mrs. W. was unhappy, misery was in her mind. She didn't know what to do. The lady saw Rev. ZACKARY. She, too, is a very happy woman because he prayed and GOD blessed her.

Now there's no need for you to be unhappy. GOD can and will help you through this God sent man.

Stop right now and let little GOD help you. BLESSINGS, BLESSINGS, BLESSINGS. Receive your blessings straight from the Blessed Lord. Be that different one to read the Bible Palm and 23rd verse. And they were happy after one visit. She has gone.
