Kappa party paces 1962 social affairs

Utter sophistication will be this year's theme of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity if their New Year party was designed to set their 1962 pace.

The Brothers held forth in Union Hall (gay in holiday's deco) served a gourmet menu (their buffet was wall-long; their good-luck peas backed up with rivers of champagne) provided a couple of orchestras so that Twisters would find no untruitful moments, or those who like theirs sweet and hot would not be sidelined.

From there in 'twas the usual calibre of Kappa hosting, which is no mean hosting in itself!.

HAPPY REMEMBRANCES of 1961:

The joy with which the girls of 8-5 class Dundalk Junior High informed me that our Kathy Boyd had been elected captain of their volleyball team.

Chatting with forme. Bannecker principal David S. Driver, now vice principal at Dundalk Senior when he attended the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra's concert at our school.

Seeing former faculty colleague Harold Griffin (Johnnycake Junior, Lola Mills (Bragg) and others at the Maryland State Teachers meeting.

The A and T-Morgan game which proved to be a Bennett College Homecoming. In the crowd were Mary Pelze Reed and Audrose Mackel, and at the party A and T grad Hobart Simmons and wife Audrey hosted later were Harold Green, Walter Carter, Lorenza and Mary Frances Collins, Charles Crow and C. Jeffries.

Also Annie Mills, all of whom were in College in Greensboro when we were there.

The progress made by the entire colored race, thanks to the courage and initiative of our youth.

• • •

SAD NOTES:

The situation which splashed our hometown, Elkton, Md., across the front pages of papers, but the most heartening way the Rev. Mary Brown and others took a courageous stand and unheld our racial pride, and dignity, disregarding the risk of personal reprisal against themselves.

Beautiful Holiday memories:

The festive party given for Mrs. Fannie Wilson of Chestertown, and Thelma Wilson of Washington by Charlie and Caperta Cann (he owns the classy establishment and she's a school 156 teacher at their home 4007 Edgewood Road home.

Welcoming the guests of honor were the Earl Lovings, Elliott's, William Cleys, Charles Wilsons and Delroy Wrights. Also Mrs. Phyllis Willey, William E. Black Angie Cooper and Juanita Hammond.

To celebrate their first Christmas in their new home, 3904 Woodhaven, the Samuel Jacksons (Dolores, Army Chemical Center psychologist and D.P.W. accountant, respectively) entertained New Year's Eve.

Guests were Linda and Kenneth Travis, Cambridge, Joyce and John Taylor, Ernestine Tayloe, Ruth Ann Ross and Susan Dudley, the William Youngs and the Tom Ballards.

Also, Henry Young of Hurlock, Clestine Hyers, William Hickman and Odell Henry.

HOME ON furlough from Texas is Pfc. George W. Harvey Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. George Harvey Sr., 451 Philadelphia Rd., Whitemarsh.

Alfred Amos, 314 Gum Spring Rd., spent the holiday with his uncle in Virginia.

The senior choir of Mt. Zion AME Church, Longgreen, was guests of the St. James Church in Towson at their Choir Night Friday.

Amos Harvey is president of the Mt. Zion Senior Choir and the Rev. E. B. Burch is pastor of the church.

Women to picket in Capital

Baltimore women will join women from other states all over the Union in the "Women's International Strike for Peace" on Monday, Jan. 15 in Washington.

All women interested may join the Baltimore group by gathering in the Pennsylvania Station lobby at 10:45 a.m. to take the 11:05 train to Washington.

To obtain further information, phone Mrs. Leon Shapiro, HU. 6-8219.

Benevolent Society opens fund drive

Warren Shaw, chairman of the Maryland Colored Benevolent Society announced Wednesday that he has received "tremendous response" to the new organization's first fund appeal.

Last week, the group initiated a plan to collect funds for the needy and persons on relief with the idea that "we should help take care of our own."

Mr. Shaw also announced the opening of a fund appeal drive.

Mrs. Warren Shaw is executive secretary. Dr. Logan Kearse, pastor of Corinthian Baptist Church, is vice chairman.

Other officers will be elected at a meeting early next week.

Laukaitis cited

Postmaster William F. Laukaitis of Baltimore received the Public Personnel Award of the President's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped (Tuesday) in the Postmaster General's Reception Room at the Post Office Department, Washington, D.C.

Postmaster General J. Edward Day participated.

In the years ending October 14, 1960, 7.4 percent of the total number of persons appointed to the postal service in Baltimore were physically handicapped.

During that time, 25 persons were given special assignments because of physical handicaps.

In addition, Postmaster Laukaitis has done much to promote National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, is observed the first full week in October every year.

• • •

HAD AN occasion the other day to talk to J. Ellis Robinson, who is a counselor for the night school at Cherry Hill Junior High 180. I found out the school will offer any course wanted if enough people will register and attend.

I did not know that senior high school courses are offered and I'm sure that some of the Cherry Hill folks who are now going uptown to school at night did not know it.

Registration is now going on for the second semester. All interested adults are urged to take advantage of courses offered. You may visit the school any Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Get Happy with Ground Round

What can be done with a POUND OF GROUND ROUND, chuck, shank, flank or plate of beef? This can be a passport to Hamburger Heaven or the Meadow of Monotony!

To the Teen-ager and the Adult with an average appetite, ground beef can mean juicy meat in a bun or meat loaf. To the Gourmet, it brings an opportunity for creativeness in making ground beef the crowning feature of the meal.

If you are in a dilemma about how to fix ground beef for your supper tonight, give this Easy-to-Fix Recipe a try:

• • •

TOPSY-TURVY PIE

1 pound ground beef
2 tbsp. cooking oil
¼ cup chopped green pepper
1 cup tomato sauce
¼ cup water
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. chili powder
4-½ oz. can ripe olives, chopped
⅔ Recipe Biscuit Dough (1 cup Mix)

HALF-BROWN meat in oil, add onion and green pepper. Cook until browned. Add remaining ingredients, mix well. Pour into a 9-inch pie pan. Make a biscuit dough by the usual method, add 1½ tbsp. salad oil before adding milk.

Roll to fit top of pie pan. Make slits on top. Place over meat mixture. Bake at 425 degrees F, 15 to 20 minutes. Remove from oven. Let stand a minute. Invert over serving dish. Cut into wedges. Serves 4 to 6.

• • •

THE CUTS OF meats, mentioned above, have a good amount of fat to make tasty hamburger dishes. If the cut is very lean, have about 2 ounces of suet added to the pound before grinding.

For patties and loaves, 4 servings to the pound can be allowed. If an extender, such as bread crumbs, rice, and spaghetti, is added, there can be 6 servings to the pound — depending on the appetites.

This Recipe for Delicious Cheese Meat Loaf, which has an extender, should give 6 servings;

CHEESE MEAT LOAF

1 pound ground beef
2 cups soft bread crumbs
1 medium onion, chopped
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon celery salt
½ teaspoon pepper
¾ cup process cheese, grated and firmly packed
1 cup tomato juice
2 eggs, beaten

Combine crumbs, beef, onion, seasonings and grated cheese. Add tomato juice and beaten eggs; mix well. Place mixture in a greased loaf pan. Bake in a moderate even (350 degrees F) for one hour.

IT PAYS TO have a "light-touch" in mixing ground beef with other ingredients. Over - handling makes tough, rubber - compact loaves and patties. To keep hamburger from becoming dry, keep cooking temperatures LOW. This is true for all meats.

Proper storing of ground beef is of utmost importance. Keep uncooked ground beef in the coldest part of your refrigerator — "lightly covered. Use within 24 hours. For longer storage, place in freezer wrappings and put in the freezer. Cooked ground beef may be stored in the refrigerator — covered; use within 2 or 3 days.

• • •

FOR DIFFERENT taste and looks in using ground beef, these tips are tops:

WRAP hamburgers with bacon strips, secured with wooden picks and broil.

• • •

MAKE A sandwich arrangement of meat-loaf mixture in a greased baking pan with sliced cheese or savory dressing. Bake. Top servings with sliced stuffed olives.

• • •

BAKE in a lightly oiled ring mold. Fill center with vegetables prepared as desired. Oiled muffin pan wells can be used also.

• • •

BRUSH PATTIES with garlic-flavored French Dressing before broiling.

• • •

SHAPE each burger around 2 tablespoons pickle relish before cooking.

• • •

BETWEEN 2 thin patties of uncooked seasoned ground beef, place 2 tablespoons blue cheese mixed with mayonnaise. Press edges together with tines of fork. Cook.

• • •

PLACE seasoned ground beef in Bakers Cup Cake Cut. Fill with Spanish Rice or Chili and bake. Garnish with cheese.

• • •

BEEF PINWHEEL RING

Have on hand ½ cups cooked ground beef and onions, seasoned with prepared mustard and your favorite herb. Prepare a Biscuit Dough from 2 cups of Biscuit Mix. Roll into a rectangle about ¼-inch thick. Spread beef mixture over biscuit dough. Starting with long side of dough, roll up and pinch long edge to seal. (Do not pinch ends of roll). Place roll on baking sheet, sealed edge down. Bring ends of roll together to form a ring.

Brush lightly with melted butter. With scissors or sharp knife, make cuts at 1-inch intervals around the outside of ring to within ¼ inch of center. Slightly pull out and twist each section so that cut sides rest almost flat on baking sheet. Bake at 400 degrees for 20 to 30 minutes or until ring is golden brown. Serve with Tomato-Cheese Sauce and garnish with parsley.

Banana aid to health plans

The world's banana boats are sailing faster than ever, delivering some 30 billion bananas to banana-eaters all over the globe.

The botanical name of bananas, "Musa sapientum" or "fruit of the wise men" is said to have originated as a result of a legend that "the sages of India reposed in its shade and refreshed themselves with its fruit." Today we might better call it "the fruit of the doctors" for medical men and nutritionists are finding more and more health reasons for eating bananas.

MOST OF US, of course, eat bananas because they're good. They're probably the world's most convenient, ready-to - eat food; peel — bite — enjoy!

BANANA REFRIGERATOR PUDDING is made with 3 eggs, ¼ teaspoon salt, ¾ cup sugar, 2 cups milk, and 1½ teaspoons pure vanilla extract, ¼ lb. box vanilla wafers (approx. 26 wafers), 4 medium bananas, ½ cup heavy cream, 1 tablespoon sugar.

Beat eggs lightly and blend with salt, sugar and milk. Stir and cook over very low heat or hot water (not boiling) until mixture coats a metal spoon. Remove from heat, add pure vanilla extract and cool. Arrange vanilla wafers overlapping over the bottom of a 6½x6x2½ inch serving bowl.

Top with a layer of sliced bananas, cut ¼-inch thick. Pour in a layer of custard. Repeat using remaining vanilla wafers, bananas and custard, having custard as top layer. Cover. Place in refrigerator overnight or 6 to 8 hours. Just before serving whip cream, sweeten with the 1 tablespoon sugar and spread over the top.

Garnish with sliced bananas. Serve at the table from the bowl.

YIELD: 6 servings.
