Baltimore County —'Old Ward' ghosts haunt

By DORIS B. ADAMS

County teachers are proud of the progress made by them in the Baltimore County School System. The last 10 years have produced a record that is known by few.

All Baltimore County Schools are integrated. Faculties are integrated too. Our teachers are serving actively in professional organizations on the national, state and local levels.

BANNEKER'S William Grace is a member of the executive board of the Teachers Association of Baltimore County and a member of the county and state Institute of Public Affairs.

James Chambers, Sollers, is chairman of the TABCO membership committee and member of the Maryland State Teachers Association Building Fund.

Delores Ridgely, Banneker, serves on the TABCO ethics committee while Beatrice Pitts, Fleming is on the general dinner committee.

Paul Scott is a TABCO nominating committee member Geraldine Smith of Fleming and Fred V. Anderson of Sollers serve with the publicity and public relations folk.

Josephine Young, Catonsville Junior reception and orientation; Merrill West, Banneker, tellers committee and elections committee, John Watkins, Sollers, welfare, and Rose Ferguson, welfare.

Of the 125 teachers in the county, we boast almost 100 percent membership in TABCO. And by merit, several of that number have been made librarians, vice-principals, administrative assistants and teachers of special subjects in newly integrated schools.

BUT MOST of all we are proud of our supervisor of elementary schools, Mrs. Pauline V. Hobbs.

The time is ripe for a feminine member to be elected to the executive board of the Maryland State Teachers Association. Some of our male members have served on the board with dignity and honor.

There is a vacancy on the board and the women educators of Baltimore County feel it's time a lady joined the board.

Letters have been sent to all the countries urging them to support our nominee, Mrs. Hobbs. It appears the enthusiasm to have her be the first woman mer on th to hav herb Hobbs. It appears the enthusiasm to have her be the first woman member on the board is snowballing throughout the state.

So teachers...get out your Dec. 19, '61 issue of The Maryland Teacher and send your vote for Mrs. Hobbs to Milton Raver, executive secretary of the MSTA.

County educators have organized. Members of the Women Educators of Baltimore County held their first meeting and luncheon at the Sheridan-Baltimore Motel last Saturday.

Among those present were Mrs. Arabella P. Ross, Josephine Flourney, Mary Flourney, Myrtice Bennett, Hortense Franklin, Theodosia Owens, Hortense Hackett, Jennie Robinson and Pauline Hobbs.

Also Bertha Sembly, Iona Smith and Margret Yates.

FABULOUS WAS the Ladies of Today post holiday party held at the beautiful 2211 Montecello home of L.O.T. May Lee. After the business meeting, the festivities began, concluding with the exchanging of lovely gifts.

L.O.T.S. attending were Ester Morris, Vivian Moody, Doris B. Adams, Margret Singletary, Lucretia Datcher, Meldora Datcher, Beulah Weslott, Mary Harley, Elizabeth Carter, Bettina Baker, Vicky Jones and Palestine Anderson. Co-hostess for the affair was Mary Hurley.

THE OFFICIAL board meeting of the St. James A.U.M.P. Church Towson was held Monday night. The group planned their approaching Women's Day. A new format will be followed. There will be ten leaders, each leader having nine workers.

Recuperating from a tonsilectomy is House of Good Shepherd schoolmarm, Mrs. Mary Johnson, now at home.

Get well wishes to Mrs. Martha Myers of Towson.

The stork dropped its first bundle of joy at the home of The Carl Harris's of Asheville (Sarah Long, Bennett grad) and was named Carl Jr.

Faith Mahood Patterson writes from Germany that the stork will visit their home the latter part of this month. Captain and Mrs. Patterson have two other children, Karen and Eric.

Lambda Kappa Mu Sorority's Founder's Day Observance will be Sunday at Christ Methodist Church, Chase and Washington St. at 3:30 p.m. The speaker will be Atty. Margret Heyward of Washington, D.C.

Education takes time—Dr. Pullen

Dr. Thomas G. Pullen Jr., state superintendent of schools told a conference on education last week that education is a matter of time and every one involved in the process needs time to think.

Dr. Pullen was speaking on Friday at the two-day Maryland State Conference on Education at the Sheraton Belvedere Hotel.

Calling for a common sense approach to education, Dr. Pullen said, it does not mean being reactionary and clinging to the old, but thinking about which changes should be made before making them.

More than 300 persons, members and civic group representatives attended the conference, invited by education boards throughout the state.

In Memoriams 1

BEAMER — In loving memory of my mother, Mrs. Ruby Beamer, who departed this life January 19, 1961.
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Gentle and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
Loving Son, EDWARD.
Granddaughter, LARETHA.

BOYKIN — In loving memory of my dear father, ANDREW JAMES, who departed this life January 19, 1960.
We walked together, you and I;
We talked together, you and I;
We shared our pains and happiness.
With love without alloy,
In death dear father we part and say goodbye.
For thy the mist I see
Hides thee from me in the sky—
For all eternity!
Loving Devoted Husband, WILLIAM S. BOYKIN.

DUPPINS — In loving memory of our dear father, RICHARD DUPPINS, who departed this life twenty-one years ago, January 19, 1941:
Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
The world troubles and trials are past;
In silence he suffered, in patience he bore,
Till God called him home to suffer no more.
God saw the road was getting rough,
He gently closed his loving eyes and whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hands in days of pain,
His weary minds are past;
His eyes closed, worry and frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Sadly missed and loving, Daughter-in-Law, ELSIE Grandchildren, LISA.

ODEN — In loving memory of our love one, WILLIAM, who departed this life January 17, 1961:
If we had seen you to the last
And held your dy-ing hand,
And heard the last sigh from your heart,
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had
We did not see you die.
We only know
you went far away
And never said goodbye.
LOVING WIFE, MOTHER, CHILDREN BROWDER AND SISTER.

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my dear father, MALTON A. ROBINSON, who departed this life January 19, 1957:
Gone, dear father, gone forever,
Now I miss your smiling face;
But you left me to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed
Now only memory dwells
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Loving Daughter, ELNORA ROBINSON CARR.

SMITH — In loving memory of our dear father, ANNIE D. SMITH, who passed away January 19, 1958:
Your loving smile is all her style,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories, Mother, you left behind.
Loving daughter, LILLIE A. GAITHER, FAMILY.

SPEARS — In loving memory of our husband, who passed away January 19, 1961:
The shock of your sudden passing
Was hard for us to bear,
For ours was a love everlasting
With none to doubt or fear.
We miss you; we miss you; we miss you, dear
Memories will never cease,
God bless and keep you forever—
May your soul rest in peace.
Loving Wife, ELIZABETH SPEARS and CHILDREN.

WILSON — In loving memory of my dear mother, MRS. SYLVIA WILSON, who departed this life 19, 1955:
I have you in His keeping
I still have you in my heart.
Daughter, MRS. MAGGIE W. PATTON

In Memoriams 1

THOMAS — In loving memory of our mother and grandmother, MARTHA, who passed away January 19, 1961:
A picture we see of a beautiful face,
Reflecting an image of heavenly grace—
A picture which shows many traces of care,
And yet an expression of sweetest prayer.
We think of an artist, the loveliest of all
A painter called "Mother" that is framed in our hearts;
And though she has ceased to her heaven of rest,
Memories of Mother lie wrapped in our breasts;
The print of her footsteps again we can see,
Her voice we hear, saying, "My dears, why not meet us a picture so fair?"
Be kind to a true mother, her love, faith and care.
Loving DAUGHTERS and GRANDSONS.

WILLIAMS — In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, ELNORA, who departed this life January 19, 1960:
We do not forget you, nor do we intend,
We think of you often, and will to the end,
Gone and forgotten, but not by a one
You may be,
But dear to our memory you will be,
Loving HUSBAND and CHILDREN.
