CAMPUS NOTES

Acquatic Club plans water show at Morgan

By ROBERT WATTS

The Acquatic Club of Morgan State College has scheduled a water show for the spring semester. The date will be announced.

The Spanish Club plans a theatre party for .El .Cid when it arrives at a local theatre.

The personality of the week is Charles Washington, a psychology major, who seeking to discover the roots of beatnik behavior, posed as one, in their local gathering place.

Mr. Washington's findings are not ready for publication as yet, and if and when they do become ready, they will be made available.

CONGRATULATIONS to Percy Bond, director of admissions and placement at Morgan State College, who was named to the Board of School Commissioners by Mayor Grady.

A noted educator, Mr. Bond, also has a long history of serving with the United Nations relief and refugee program during World War II.

Miss Lavania Rice, sometimes contributor to this column, is the first of her race hired as a receptionist at the Church Home and Hospital, Broadway and Fairmont Ave.

Miss Margo Wilson, along with other Morgan students who crowded the 5th Regiment Armory Saturday night at the All-Eastern Indoor Games, was practically at track side-cheering Bear stars to victory.

Morgan students who won events were Lawson Smart, 600 yard dash, and John Bethea, 60 yard dash, who was voted most valuable athlete.

Municipal Courts

The following cases were heard at Northwestern Police Court: Aaron A. Beal

A 23-year-old man accused of robbing an AFRO newsboy of $2.50, held on $5,000 bail for action of the grand jury.

Charges of assault and robbery were filed against Charles Edward David of the 4100 block Fairfax Ave.

Marvin M. Hill, 19, of the 2100 block Oakleaf Ave., accused Mr. David as the man who took his glasses. Witness testified a tall man in an alley, and threatened to break the glasses if he did not give him money.

James Dadson of the 1500 block N. Rosedale St. was sentenced to six months in the House of Correction for shooting William E. Thompson, 1700 block Druid Hill Ave., with a pistol.

Joseph Spivey, 22 of the 1400 block Laurens St. was held on $6,500 bail in connection with five burglaries that stolen $18.50 in cash, food, cigarettes, candy and whiskey.

Spivey is charged with breaking into a food store near his home on two occasions, with breaking into a Laurens St. lunch room a candy store in the 1800 block N. Fremont Ave. and another firm in the 800 block of N. Gilmor St.

Vernon O. Garrison, 19, of the 1900 block Whatcoat St. was held on $2,500 bail in the two food store burglaries, and a third burglary in the 1900 block Lanadowne St. Garrison is also charged with the Spivey burglary and holding a $1,000 bail.

All were held for action of the grand jury.

Final rites held for WW II vet

Final rites were held yesterday (Thursday) for a 39-year-old World War II veteran who died suddenly last Friday.

Morse Preston Loving, 1015 North Carrollton Ave., a native of Charlottesville, Va. spent a total of eight years, in the Armed Forces, first in the Army during World War II, and later in the Air Force.

He saw action in the Pacific Theater — Japan, Okinawa, New Guinea — during the war, and was stationed in Japan during most of his Air Force career. He came out in 1950 as a master sergeant.

He lived with his guardian Mrs. Josephine Fortune, of the Carrollton Street address, who adopted him as a son.

His parents were the late Emmett and Lillie Loving of Charlottesville, Va.

Mr. Loving is survived by three brothers: Emmett, Jr., and Clarence of Charlottesville, and Jorn Loving, of 411 Bareva Rd., Baltimore; a sister, Mrs. Eva Stinnie of Charlottesville, Va.; four aunts and four uncles.

The funeral was held at the George G. Kelson Funeral Home, 1848 N. Calhoun St. with the Rev. James Saunders officiating. The body was interred at Baltimore National Cemetery.

Cornelius Brown

Funeral service, will be held today, (Friday) at 1:30 p.m., at the Charles A. Law Funeral Home for Cornelius Brown, 62, 2136 McCulloh St., golfer and winner of many trophies.

Mr. Brown was found dead at his home Monday morning by his sister Mrs. Evelyn Daniels, 1154 Longwood St., who was called after her brother did not report for work at the Maryland Club.

Mr. Brown had worked for the club some 30 years.

Firemen from a few doors away, were called in to remove the body.

• • •

A NEIGHBOR reported he had talked to Mr. Brown at 6 o'clock that morning and he showed no signs of illness.

Born at Pimlico, Md., Mr. Brown was the son of the late Thomas and Della Brown. His father died a month ago.

Mrs. Daniels and her brother had won many bowling trophies playing golf. The last one, she said, was at the Morgan State golf tournament last summer.

• • •

IN ADDITION to his sister, Mr. Brown is survived by sister, Mrs. Alice Young and Mrs. Edna Welch, all of Baltimore; and brother, Carey Brown, Anne Arundel County.

Burial will be at St. Luke Cemetery, Reistertown, Md.

Henry C. Brown

Henry C. Brown, 69, 1118 Myrtle Ave., a pullman porter for some 44 years, was buried Thursday at Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mr. Brown died Monday at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Born September, 1893, in Caroline County, Va., Mr. Brown was the son of Mrs. Esther Watkins and the late Richard Watkins.

After moving to Baltimore, Mr. Brown attended school in Catonsville. He began work as a pullman porter for the B and O Railroad and was still there at the time of his death.

• • •

IN ADDITION to his mother, Mr. Brown is survived by three sisters, Mrs. Florence Williams, Mrs. Martha Douglas and Mrs. Edith Watkins, Washington; three brothers, Theodore, Richard and George Watkins, all of Baltimore, and a daughter, Mrs. Helen Boyd, Washington. Charles A. Law Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

J. Herman Page, postal employee

Funeral services were held today (Friday) at the Charles A. Law Funeral Home for James Herman Page, 63 of 1700 Westwood Ave., a retired postal employee.

Mr. Page died at his home Monday.

After graduating from Baltimore public schools, he entered the post office and retired three years ago after 35 years of service.

Burial was at Arbutus Memorial Park.
