Braves farmhand dies in parked car

NEWARK, Del. — Carbon monoxide fumes ended the professional baseball career of (Herm) Hubbard here early Saturday morning.

Young Hubbard, a promising outfielder in the farm system of the Milwaukee Braves, died in his parked car shortly after Friday midnight. With him was his girl friend, Jennifer Wilson, 17, with whom he had attended a high school basketball game earlier.

Miss Wilson, pulled from the automobile by neighbors, regained consciousness at Wilmington (Del.) General Hospital and was discharged.

* * *

ACCORDING TO Dan Hubbard, the young athlete's father, his son and the girl apparently had returned from the basketball game at Newark High, where Herm had been an all - around sports star prior to his graduation in 1958.

The couple parked near Miss Wilson's Corbit Street home shortly after 10 p.m., leaving the auto's motor running. A neighbor reported hearing the hum of the engine during the several hours and went to investigate.

Herm and Jennifer were discovered in an unconscious state, and were dragged from the vehicle. Medical examination determined that they had been overcome by fumes leaked into the interior from the car's motor.

* * *

MILWAUKEE FARM director John Mullen described young Hubbard as "a fine prospect with all the physical equipment necessary to make a major league player of outstanding ability."

The Braves won out over the Philadelphia Phillies and Pittsburgh Pirates in a bidding contest for young Hubbard's services following his graduation on June 4, 1958.

Milwaukee scout John Ogden okeyed payment of a bonus estimated at $10.000, and with it Herm purchased the home at 74 New London Ave., for his parents.

* * *

MRS. VIRGINIA HUBBARD revealed that only the day before a contract had come for her son from the Braves home office. It couched a Class - A offer and directed Herm to report to the Austin Club at its training camp on March 18.

Last year, the strapping lefty hitting flychaser hit .321 for the Eau Claire team in the Class C Northern League.

HERM WAS one of six children. He had three brothers — Raymond Clifton, Pearlie Lee and Robert Allan, and two sisters, Joyce and Orabell.

"He was an influence on the-whole family," his mother said. "It seemed like he made friends very easily. He liked of the players he spent most of his time with. One of his best friends was Tommy Aaron, brother of Henry Aaron."

NEWARK

Frank Budd of Asbury Park, hundred yard dash record holder, was one of four outstanding New Jersey athletes honored last Thursday at the Newark Athletic Club's 22nd annual All Sports Trophy Award Dinner.

Budd, a senior at Villanova and the only person to run the hundred in 9.3, received the Newark AC's 1961 collegiate award.

Other winners were Tom Smith of Butler High School, scholastic winner; Bill Skowron, New York Yankee first baseman, professional winner; and Bob Gardner of Jersey Falls, an amateur golf champion, amateur recipient.

Rafer Johnson Y's top sports figure

NEW YORK—Rafer Johnson, the world's top all-round athlete, has been picked National YMCA Sports Award recipient for 1962. This is the only national award given annually by the National YMCA.

Johnson, whose sports career developed through the YMCA programs won the Decathlon at the 1960 Olympiad. He has just completed a special mission for the U.S. Peace Corps.

Previous honors were given Ted Husing and the Rev. Bob Richards who, like Johnson, was an Olympics gold medal winner and YMCA member.

ART LINKLETTER, chairman of National YMCA Week which is being recognized throughout the U.S.A., this week, presented the award to Johnson on the "House Party" TV show on Wednesday.

Linkletter presented the YMCA award as a member of its National Physical Education Committee.

The award recognizes Johnson's "contribution to sports and consistent support and assistance to the YMCA," officials said.

It also is a tribute to the 26-year-old sports star's dedication to the spirit of Brotherhood, of which his Peace Corps assignment was a part. Johnson interrupted a motion picture career to help set up the Peace Corps program.

Johnson is a product of YMCA training. He began Fresno County YMCA at in the Gra-Y program of Kingsburg, California for grade schoolers. He participated in junior and senior Hi-Y, summer camp activities (at Camp Gaines) and was a frequent speaker at "Y" father-son dinners.

In Memoriams

CARTER — In loving memory of my dear son, PAULINE BEST-THA, who passed away January 27, 1961:
If we had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your lips
We could not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had,
Nor did we see you suffer
We only know you went far away
And never said goodbye.
LOVING MOTHER.

CHILDREN, BROTHER AND SISTER

OWENS — In loving memory of our dear father, CHARLIE OWENS, who passed away January 30, 1949:
It is not as if we miss him—
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Years in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us years ago.
HIS LOVING CHILDREN.

TALIAFERRO — In loving memory of my dear wife VIOLA, who passed away January 31, 1961:
What would I give her hand to kiss,
Her gallant face to see,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
And be the days that used to be.
But some sweet day we will meet again
Then we will tell and strife,
And clasp each other's hand in Heaven, that happy life.
LOVING HUSBAND, DAVID TALIAFERRO.

THOMPSON — In loving memory of our dear beloved sister, OTELIA who departed this life January 28, 1960:
Dear sister, you was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all,
A bitter grief, a sorrow dear,
It was to part with one of you.
And speak of you in days to come,
We think you could not say goodbye.
Before you closed your eyes,
To tell us what you did you best,
Oh God, grant your eternal rest.
SISTER-BRIDGET, PAULINE, ESTELLA, BROTHER ST-VALL, GEORGE AND CLIFTON.

TILMAN — In loving memory of ESTELLA TILMAN, who departed January 28, 1961:
You're not gone,
Though you have wondered
Without a farewell message
Or parting word
Inside an open doorway
Hung a wreath of roses
That we sit in silence
Thinking of one who is happy,
Waiting for us to join her.
DEVOTED SISTER-FRIEND—GLORIA BERDER

And, You alone, Lord, know how we miss her

And, You alone, Lord, know our heart's sorrow
Know our hearts are broken
The memory of her precious love
Is our only sacred treasure.
