PICTURE OF DESPERATION

Backs to the wall, this family almost lost hope

placing the family in a warm apartment.

Food, clothing, money came from everywhere.

A Mrs. Daisy Perry, 2106 Callow Ave., shared her apartment, hot water, heat, to help thaw out the family, restore faith in mankind and bring their souls back to life (there was little left but soul).

BUT, THERE is more. The children's grandmother, about 60 years of age also residing with the family, refused to leave the cold, dark, deserted home.

All day Tuesday, she stayed, guarding her few possessions in the world.

All day, she refused help, sat there, alone, hungry and cold.

She refused all aid.

Later, just before dark, she was persuaded that if she remained hungry and cold, without protection it could mean death — before dawn. She is now with the mother and ix children.

AT PRESENT, under the watchful care of the Maryland Colored Benevolent Society, the family is returning to normal living.

This is the work of the Society. As Mr. Shaw states: "Christ is in it. We are determined to help our people who most often suffer such deprivation, such pathetic circumstances.

He added: "There is more suffering than you can ever know."

Issuing an urgent appeal, Mr. Shaw asks that all persons make a cash contribution at once for funds to help this family and others.

He further states, "Don't leave a few of us alone to fill the vast needs of our poor. They need us all to put them back on their feet."

He is offering the services of his phone, office and desk space free as headquarters at 1821 Eutaw Place. Phone NO. 9-6262.

Checks may be made out to Maryland Colored Benevolent Society, 1821 Eutaw Place, Baltimore, Md. Phone NO. 9-6262.

Mrs. C. E Smith

Funeral services were held Thursday at New Union Baptist Church for Mrs. Clara E. Smith, 43, 2723 Edmondson Ave., who died Saturday at University Hospital.

Mrs. Smith was the widow of Linwood L. Smith and a lifelong member of the New Union Church.

Born in Baltimore Dec. 13, 1918, she was the daughter of Mrs. Maggie Leach and the late Claude Leach.

Survivors include her mother, two sisters, four brothers, a niece, a nephew, two aunts, an uncle, a cousin, three sisters-in-law and two brothers-in-law.

Mrs. E. Moulden

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. at Allen AME Church for Mrs. Elizabeth Moulden, the oldest member of the church, who died Friday at the age of 93.

A native of West River, Md., Mrs. Moulden was the mother of Mrs. Helen Moulden Brown, a Patapsco Park public school principal.

She died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gayzelle Moulden Brooks in West River.

In addition to the two daughters, she is survived by a son, Edward Dixon, a resident of East Baltimore; a son - in - law, Elmer Brown, 3120 Mondawmin Ave., husband of the school principal.
