Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching and relieve pain—without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observation.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all, this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Chili Stuffed Snack Rolls please appetites of the 'Cow Boy Set'

When your family cowhands, rangers, sheriffs and U.S. Marshals — good guys all— snap off the TV program and reluctantly jump from the fast horse of makebelieve, they're in the mood for real Southwestern food.

Time to give them something two - fisted, like chili con carne or chuck - wagon stew, where there's the mingled aroma of meat, beans, onions, tomatoes and tastetingling chili.

Chili con carne, you may tell your young ones, is the "state dish" of Texas. Officially or unofficially it's the "state dish" of many another part of the country, for the appetite for chili dishes—especially chili con carne—has spread all over, not only the southwest, but the rest of the country.

• • •

IT TAKES quality ingredients, careful blending, unhurried cooking and plenty of good chili powder to make the best chili con carne or chili beans. There are no doubt hundreds of good recipes for chili - Texas chili concoctions, some of them guarded by six - guns! Some prefer their chili hot, others relatively mild, with meat or merely with beans. In any case, it's mighty fine, pardner!

Chili powder is a lusty spice blend consisting of chili peppers as the basic ingredient, plus some ground cumin seed, ground oregano and garlic. Some manufacturers add ground cloves, allspice or powdered onion. Don't limit your use of chili powder to Mexican - style foods, however— its good in lots of other things.

• • •

TRY IT, for instance, in these good recipes tested in the kitchens of the American Spice Trade Association. Even though chili dishes were first originated in the warmer parts of this country, they're twice as good when there's a nip of frost in the air.

• • •

CHILI STUFFED SNACK ROLLS are made with one pound chopped lean beef, one tablespoon shortening, two teaspoons chili powder, one teaspoon salt, one eighth teaspoon garlic powder, one eighth teaspoon ground black pepper, one cup drained chili beans, one slice processed American cheese, ten frankfurter rolls, and stuffed olives, sliced.

Brown beef in shortening. Add chili powder, salt, garlic powder, black pepper and chili beans. Cook 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Cut cheese into one half-inch squares. Stir into the mixture.

Heat only until about half melted. Heat rolls and fill each with the chili mixture. Garnish with sliced stuffed olives if desired. Serve hot.

YIELD: 10 rolls.

• • •

FOR CHILE BEANS use two cups (one pound) dried red kidney or pink beans, one ham bone, four cups cold water, eight - ounce can Spanish type tomato sauce, one fourth cup onion flakes, two tablespoons sweet pepper flakes, one tablespoon salt, one tablespoon chili powder, one teaspoon powdered mustard, one fourth teaspoon ground black pepper, and two bay leaves.

Wash beans and soak overnight in cold water. The next day add ham bone and more water to cover, if necessary. Cover and simmer one hour or until beans are almost tender. Add remaining ingredients and simmer one hour. Serve hot.

YIELD: 6 to 8 servings.

CHUCK WAGON STEW is made with three pounds beef stew meat, two cans (four cups) solid - pack tomatoes, one third cup dried onion flakes, one can (one pound) red kidney beans, two teaspoons salt, three teaspoons chili powder, one fourth teaspoon ground black pepper, one fourth teaspoon garlic powder, one half teaspoon oregan leaves, one teaspoon sugar, two tablespoons flour, two tablespoons water, and six cups hot cooked rice.

Trim off excess fat from stew meat and try out enough fat from it to brown meat. Cut beef into one and one half - inch cubes, add to hot fat and cook until brown on all sides. Add tomatoes and onion flakes, cover and simmer one hour or until meat is almost tender.

Drain kidney beans and add along with salt, chili powder, black pepper, garlic powder, oregano, and sugar. Blend flour with water and add. Cover and simmer 30 minutes or until thickened.

Serve over hot cooked rice.

YIELD: 8 servings.

Stew is delicious way to stretch good budget

Stew is a most delicious way to save on the food budget.

Take an inexpensive cut of lamb breast, beef chuck or veal shoulder, add vegetables, herbs and a generous dash of ingenuity, serve in a gay casserole and you have gala company fare.

• • •

STEWS DO best with long, slow cooking. Another aid to a good stew is careful browning of the cubes of lean meat on all sides in a little fat before adding water. Of course, careful seasoning is a prime factor.

Once the stew is made, it may be served in many different ways for variety. Try it with a border of riced potatoes or flaky rice.

Make it into a meat pie by topping it with a lid of biscuits, pastry or mashed potatoes; or scallop it with macaroni or spaghetti. Dumplings give a stew added distinction.

• • •

A FAVORITE is this beef stew.

Use one and one half pounds ground chuck, one large onion, one green pepper, one and one half cups macaroni, one quart tomato juice, salt and pepper to taste.

Chop onion and pepper. Brown with chuck in a heavy kettle. Add tomato juice and simmer about one-and-a-half hours.

Add macaroni, and continue cooking slowly, stirring often until macaroni is well done. Serve with a green salad and toasted Viennna breadd, spread with garlic butter.

• • •

FOR LAMB or veal stew with dumplings, use two pounds breast of lamb or veal, cut in one - inch cubes, two tablespoons lard or drippings, three cups hot water, salt and pepper, twelve small white onions;

Also two medium - sized carrots, quartered, two tablespoons chopped parsley, one tablespoon chopped green pepper, one teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, two tablespoons flour, one fourth cup cold water.

Brown cubed meat in hot drippings. Add hot water and salt and pepper to taste. Cover and cook about 30 minutes, then add vegetables.

Cover and cook 30 minutes longer. Add Worcestershire sauce and thicken the liquid with flour stirred to a paste in cold water. There should be enough thin gravy to nearly cover the meat and vegetables.

DUMPLINGS: Sift two cups flour with two and one half teaspoons baking powder and one fourth teaspoon salt. Add three fourth cups milk and stir until blended. Drop by small, rounding teaspoonfuls into hot stew. Cover tightly and steam about 15 minutes without removing lid. Serve hot.

YIELD: eight servings.

Lima beans and sausage

Try this excellent Lima Bean and Sausage Casserole dish some day soon. It's sure to please.

Use one cup large dry lima beans, two and one half cups water, one teaspoon salt, three medium - sized carrots, sliced, one pound sausage, and two tablespoons chopped onion.

WASH BEANS. Add the water, boil 2 minutes, then remove from heat and let soak one hour. Or add the water and let soak overnight in a cool place. Add salt and boil gently for 30 minutes.

Add carrots the last 5 minutes. Do not drain. If bulk sausage is used, blend onions with it, shape into small patties, and brown in fry pan.

IF LINK SAUSAGE is used, cut in one half inch slices and brown with the onion. Add the cooked sausage and two tablespoons of the dripping to the beans.

Bake at 350 degrees F. (moderate oven) in a covered casserole until beans are tender, about 1 hour. If necessary, add extra water during baking. Makes 4 servings.
