'Looking forward to Colts' 1962 contract' —Moore

"You may say that I am looking forward to signing my 1962 contract with the Baltimore Colts."

Lenny Moore points up this one sentence as the most emphatic way of denying a report he contemplates playing football in Canada next year.

The brilliant Baltimore halfback was identified as one of four National Football League players who are alleged to have agreed to join the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian League next fall.

• • •

LEW HAYMAN, general manager of the Argonauts, announced Wednesday that Moore, Pete Hall of the New York Giants, Hugh McInnis of the St. Louis Cardinals and one other unnamed player are negotiating with him preliminary to being signed as free agents.

According to Hayman, the four athletes have played out their options and are available.

• • •

"I HAVE NOT played out my option," Lenny told the AFRO Thursday morning, "and I have no intention of doing so. I am quite happy in Baltimore and I am happy with the Colts.

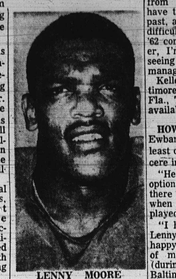
"You may say that I'm looking forward to signing my 1962 contract — in fact, I'm rather anxious to see what it looks like.

"If you can think of any more positive way of denying this report, you're free to use it as a quote from me. I don't know how I can be more emphatic than that."

• • •

HAS LENNY had any discussion whatsoever with the Canadian people about the prospect of playing football up there?

"I certainly have not," replied the slender star. "I don't even know anybody in Canada — among the officials, that is. I know a few players, but that's all."



LENNY MOORE

• • •

IS IT TRUE that Moore is disgruntled about the huge figures reportedly being offered untried college rookies and that he is displeased at being unable to wangle off-season employment through the Colts?

"Of course, it kinda shakes up the veteran players when they read about these kids being paid big bonuses for signing, plus the handsome salaries.

"But that is the business of the ball club. So long as they pay me what my contract calls for, I have no complaint.

• • •

"AS FOR THE off-season matter, I am working on several ventures now — at least two of which look somewhat promising," Lenny continued.

"It could be that the club will help me on one of these. The other, I think, can be done independently.

"I this, though, is aside from football. The Colts have treated me well in the past, and I'm anticipating no difficulty with regard to my '62 contract. As I said earlier, I'm looking forward to seeing (Don) Kellett (general manager) about it.

Kellett was enroute to Baltimore from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Thursday and was unavailable for comment.

• • •

HOWEVER, coach Weeb Ewbank said he had not the least doubt that Moore is sincere in his denial.

"He hasn't played out his option. As a matter of fact, there has never been a case when a member of the Colts played out an option.

"I have reason to believe Lenny when he says he is happy with us. He was one of my boosters last year (during the period that the Baltimore mentor was under fire).

• • •

"I FINED him last December for breaking rules on our trip-to-the-Coast, and he accepted it in good faith. I'm not concerned about the Cadian report."

Moore and Joe Perry and Jimmy Orr were fined by Eubank for tardiness during the two - week stay in California for games against San Francisco and Los Angeles. Lenny admitted his guilt and paid the fine, as did the others — SAM LACY.

Ex-champ Hartsfield Jackie enter Miami golf

MIAMI, Fla. — Myrt McIver and Zeke Hartsfield, two more former champions, are among the latest entries in the ninth annual North-South Golf Tournament, Feb. 19 - 23, at the Miami Springs course, according to Ray Mitchell, tourney director.

All three of last year's winners plus five other ex-victors were among earlier entries and Mitchell promises the closest action in the history of the tourney.

Miss McIver injured her arm last year and couldn't compete. White Hartsfield was third in 1961.

BASEBALL HALL of Famer Jackie Robinson will be another contestant.

More than 300 men and the women are expected to compete in the event, which also includes swim and fashion shows, a beauty contest, treasure hunt and barbecue as well as the Trophy Ball, at which the prizes and cash awards are distributed.

• • •

THE TOP pro prize is $700 with 11 other cash awards. There are six flights for men and four for women, including a senior division.

2 Baltimore boys share ring feature

REVERE, Mass. — Baltimore fight manager Elmo Hughes succeeded in lining up both ends of the co - featured windup of the Feb. 13th show here, with the grandmaster of welterweight Billy Robinson.

Robinson joins his stablemate, Bobby Harmon, to put the Baltimore stable in the two 8 - round bouts.

Robinson meets Bob Cosmier of East Boston, and featherweight Harmon takes on George Colton of this city, in the other event.

Bel Air team wins game, loses fight

Two rival teams came to blows Friday night at the Havre de Grace Consolidated School, when the basketball team of Central High in Bel Air out - pointed Havre de Grace for the first time in three years.

Following the game, which ended with a score of 43 to 35, there was a confused meelee of students on the basketball floor, and later outside the building.

State police were called in to quell the disturbance, but were not needed. School authorities kept the excited students under control.

A Central High student was taken to a hospital when it was feared that he suffered a broken arm. He was treated for bruises and released.

Bears Top Eagles, Eye Tourney Spot

Flushed by victory over North Carolina College here Wednesday night, coach Brutus Wilson and his Morgan State College Bears have set their eyes once again on a berth in the CIAA basketball tournament, scheduled next month at Winston - Salem, N.C.

"If we can get my Maryland State tomorrow (Saturday) night, we'll be right in line for a place in the tournament.

You shouldn't count us out of it yet," Wilson told the AFRO.

• • •

"OF COURSE, we have a long way to go, but things are certainly looking brighter for the second half.

"The return of James Hill gives us the balance we were lacking the first half of the schedule. He was ineligible and we had to go with three freshmen and only two men with experience.

"Hill gives us that third player with experience. You can be sure he's a welcome addition."

• • •

IN THE Wednesday w i n over North Carolina, Morgan jumped in front on baskets by Aaron Johnson and Hill, but a pair of field goals by John Jones enabled the Tarheels to knot the count.

North Carolina tied matters again at 11 - all, mark, but more at the 17 - 17 mark, but thereafter Morgan boasted the advantage. At halftime, the home team was in front, 44-33.

• • •

HILL BORE out what his coach said about his return to the team by leading the Bears in scoring with 23 points. Aaron Johnson had 221 and Harry Johnson 21.

The losing Eagles were led by John Jones, who was high for the evening, with 28 counters. Tommy Martin gave the visitors a 21 - point effort.

• • •

THE VICTORY over North Carolina gives the Bears a clear shot at a CIAA tournament berth. Now 5-6 in conference play (5-9 overall), Morgan can move into the first division of the Dickinson standings by licking the tough Maryland State five.

An even mark of 6-6 should lodge a team in the seventh slot of an 8 - team division.

• • •

DISCUSSING THE Morgan chances, North Carolina coach Floyd Brown said:

"With most of the teams bunched as they are, Morgan may make it. It looks as though most of Wilson's worries are behind him."

BRUTUS WILSON

Prentice Gautt school teacher

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ola.—Prentice Gautt, star halfback of the St. Louis Cardinals pro football team, became a teacher in the local public schools early this week.

Gautt, who was the first colored athlete in University of Oklahoma history, played three years of varsity football with the Sooners. He was drafted by the Cleveland Browns upon graduation in 1960, and played one year with that club.

Last season, the 24 - year-old halfback was a key man with the Cardinals.

The Board of Education on Monday hired Gautt as a teacher of science and biology with substitute status. This is preliminary to full appointment at such time as Gautt desires to quit the professional gridiron.

To bury brother of Pinky Clark

ORANGE, N.J. Funeral services will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at 1 p.m. for Harry N. Clark, 49, brother of former Morgan College star and coach, Daniel N. (Pinky) Clark.

Mr. Clark died at his home, 326 Halsted St., East Orange, on Wednesday, following a lingering illness.

Interment will follow services at Colson-Woody's Funeral Home, Oakwood Ave, in this city.

IN ADDITION to Daniel Clark, now employed in the Baltimore (Md.) Department of Recreation, the following persons survive:

Mrs. Anna Clark, mother; Mrs. Grace Golden, sister; three daughters, Mesdames Lorraine Kendrick and Patricia Fletcher of Newark, N.J., and Gwendolyn White of Washington, D.C.
