COL. AND MRS. VERNON GREENE were among participants at the gala Military Ball held in the Winchester Armory, Baltimore, by the 229th Truck Transportation Battalion, Saturday evening.

229th Battn. host at resplendent ball

The 229th Transportation Battalion held its 83rd Anniversary Ball in Winchester Armory, Saturday evening.

The Battalion, as it is known today, traces its history back to February 20, 1879, when it was designated the Monumental City Guards. In 1882 it became a company of the Maryland National Guard.

THE BATTALION saw service in the Pacific in the 1940's and was inactivated at Oahau, Hawaii at the end of the Second World War. It also saw service in the Korean War, in continental United States, performed in Germany, and saw action in Korea.

The unit participated in eight campaigns in Korea and was awarded the Meritorious Unit Commendation twice, in addition to the Republic of Korea Presidential Unit Citation.

LT. COL. MELVIN H. CADE is battalion commander. Other key personnel include:

Major Lester C. Hudgins, executive officer; Major George M. Brooks, transportation officer; Major Lorenzo Felder, plans and training officer; Capt. John E. Leath, battalion adjutant; Capt. Hollis Posey, supply officer;

Capt. S. Porter, motor officer; Capt. Thomas H. Briscoe, company commander; 1st. Lt. Walter Hairston, assistant plans and training officer; 1st. Lt. Herman Sydnor, communication officers;

ALSO CHIEF WARRANT OFFICERS Wilbert Armstead, Earl Jackson, Joseph Locklear, also Capt. Joseph B. Bracy, Capt. Joseph Mills, Capt. William A. Harris, 1st. Lt. James Smith.

AN HONOR Guard dressed in the Army Greens with chrome helmets, ushered in the honored guest and furnished an escort for the Queen of the Ball, one of the bright features of the night.

The Queen, Miss Lorraine Mondeweney, crowned Miss 229th, along with the members of her court, were dazzling in flowing gowns.

Members of the Honor Guard were:

AS HOST of the ball Lt. Col. Cade was resplendent in dress blue uniform. The guest of honor was the commanding general of the 29th Infantry Division, Maryland National Guard, Major General William Purnell.

The receiving line, which began at 10 p.m. was composed of Lt. Col. Cade and Mrs. Barbara Smothers, General Purnell, Col. and Mrs. George W. Brooks, Col. John Mahoney, Major Lester C. Hudgins.

Other guests were Assistant Adjutant General Col. George Gelston, Head of Military Science Instruction, Morgan State College; Lt. Col. Fowler, Major and Mrs. McCalin; Staff member of 207ist USAR School, Lt. Col. and Mrs. Vernon Greene; Urban Renewal executive, Clark Davis and Linwood Koger Sr.

NO LESS splendor was added to the Ball by the feminine guests.

Glamorous Mrs. Walter Hairston wore a short length formal of orchid, hand sewn silk and lace on satin with a wide back panel from the waist to end of skirt. Jeanette Leath, wife of staff assistant Capt. John E. Leath, was fabulous in a floor length formal of white crepe chiffon.

Smart, smart, smart, was Mrs. Barbara Smothers in a creation of white deep lustre satin, with an attaches stole which fell from the shoulder to the floor.

Expectant mother, Mrs. Joseph Mills, was lovely in beige shantung. Mrs. Lester Hudgins wore a red satin sheath, back treated with a panel of white print and shoes of red satin. Mrs. Richardson, mother of the 229th Colonel Cade, wore a maize poie de soir long length formal with a shawl collar.

Mrs. William Durant selected a floor - length gown of crush - strawberry satin. Mrs. Herman Sydnor was in a gown of black, with a black sequin bodice.

Mrs. Juanita Smith was most charming in black floor - length lace gown.

Mrs. Oscar Harley wore a short - length gown of silk organza over three bouffant skirts.

Mrs. Max Ruhl's gown was a hot pink chiffon floor length creation. Mrs. Vernon Greene, the former battalion commander's wife, was pretty in a short length blue gown. Willie Horne wore mint green nylon, with neckline scooped back and front, with matching shoes. Mrs. Herman Broscoe chose a short black formal frock,

Mrs. Earl Jackson, a strapless black gown of silk organza; and Mrs. George W. Brooks a short formal of green satin.

Mrs. Lorenzo Felder was lovely in green print dress, with a very full skirt, under which was worn several bonf fant slips. Smart was casual Mrs. Beetley, in her gown of orchid nylon net.

An additional, bit of glitter was added to the affair with the appearance of the army dress blue uniform doned by the members of the battalion for the first time.

2000 women pack Carver's for League's fashion show

Miss Clarice Lav. Brooks, designer, staged the fashion show, Sunday, which drew 2,000 women to the auditorium of the Carver Vocational Technical High School.

The show, sponsored by the Maryland League of Women's Clubs, had as general chairman, Mrs. Naomi Camper. While a packed auditorium saw fashions exhibited by models presented by 40 club affiliates of the League, and a dozen guest models, those unable to get into the auditorium were entertained by a dance group under direction of Mrs. Nikki Randolph, and served punch by a committee under direction of Mrs. Virginia Brown. A second show was staged for this group, and the first entained in the gymnasium.

THE FASHION SHOW was staged in a Hawaiian setting with the backdrop done by that 12-year-old genius, Phillip Bell. Mrs. Randolph followed up with her dancers doing Hawaiian dances, and Miss Brooks' script opened and closed with a bon voyage and a welcome party, respectively, for a voyager portrayed by Mrs. Roland Williams.

Miss Brooks, who narrated the show, wore a black dressmaker suit in wool hopsacking, accessorized by a printed tie silk turban in various shades of rose.

THE 52 models showed clothes from beach wear to that for formal occasions.

Cynthia Harvey posed a short green-blue-gray shortie over a stark white bathing suit to win fashion approval.

Shirley Strother modeled a two-piece costume of beige and white checked silk blend. The jacket, fastened with smoke - pearl buttons, was short in front, slightly longer and curved in back, and featured an unusual neckline and slit pocket corded in charcoal silk. The pencil slim skirt featured a single pleat over the right knee. She wore with this a tall profile Italian straw hat in white with a black velvet band trim. This was a Brooks' original.

An especially attractive coat was shown by Vivian Scott. The wrap was of white llama with black dyed muskrat lining. An afternoon frock of floral print, with shoes and bag of the same material was shown by Doris Moaney.

GEORGIA POLSTON was stunning in a gold lame gown the sheath dress cut very low in the back. Florine Washington wore her own creation of suit of cream basket weave wool, with ocelot fur fabric coat. Dora Braddy designed the printed shantung sheath modeled by Tenyo Wiggins.

Reva Lewie wore a white brocade cocktail costume ensemble, the coat featuring Chinese slits at the side and a mink collar, under, which was a sleeveless sheath with low cut front and back.

TOWN SHOPS presented models, including Melinee Yerrell of the Pauline Brooks Fashion Salon, in a natural poplin raincoat-capé ensemble, with matching hat; and a black silk suit simulating three tiers. Her white straw hat with hugh organdy bow worn with the suit, was designed by Nell Sheridan.

From Charm Center was a printed silk shirtwaist dress with full skirt, and three-quarter length sleeves, worn with a shiny black straw hat. Model was Ruth Tibbs.

HATS, designed by Elise Hunt and Ruth J were a great attraction at the show. Leroy Taylor, the sole masculine model, showed several ensembles, supervised by Menicover. One was a three-piece hound's tooth suit of light brown with shadow stripes. With this a dark brown coat, French made suede shoes, calf skin gloves and lace tie. Other accessories were a German made beaver hat and a walking stick of mahogany. Stressing the international flair, Mr. Taylor's accessories for other ensembles included straw shoes, Jamaican hat, and ebony wood and ivory walking stick from Africa.

MODELS who participated in the show also included:

Patelle Green, Theresa Newkirk, Joy N. Tarter, Carmen Carter, Florine Bowen, Maebelle Moore, Frankie Hinchen.

Tenyo Wiggins, Ann Moore, Rose Wallace, Liz Burney, Garnetta Jackson, Eleanor Massie, Rosemary Backus, Doris Moaney, Ruth J. King, Anna R. Johns.

Vivian Scott, Dazee Rawlings, Joan Patterson, Vivian Hill, and Anna Burton.

MRS. CAMPER was assisted in the project by other committee chairmen including Mrs. Queenie Lane, hostesses; Mrs. Mary B. Adams, decorations; Virginia Brown, tea; Miss Marion Jones, tickets; Miss Fannie Glascoe, Miss Vivian Young and Mrs. Gladys Wallace finance; Mrs. Lula Patterson, publicity; Mrs. Beryl Williams and Mrs. Flossie Dedmond, program; and Mrs. Nikki Randolph, dancers.

Mrs. Lena K. Lee is president of the League.

STARTED ON CARNATION —STAYED ON CARNATION
the milk with extra Vitamin D for sound teeth and strong bones!
"Bobby grows out of his clothes so fast I can hardly keep him in jeans," says their mother. "But Francis is growing right into them."
Their father, Dr. Robert Higginbotham, is physician for the Midland, Pennsylvania High School. His private practice takes him many miles through neighboring country.
Mrs. Higginbotham left her art-teaching career several years ago. But she is still an artist in the kitchen—with an eye to nutrition. "I get extra Vitamin D into this family by using Carnation as the milk in puddings and pies and cocoa—and on cereals!"
Carnation is the healthy family milk—with extra Vitamin D to help build sound teeth and bones. No wonder this milk in the red-and-white can is the world's favorite evaporated milk, by far.
"I get the creamiest cream pies—just by using Carnation," Mrs. Higginbotham declares. (See recipe below.) Even when you add an equal amount of water, Carnation is richer than sweet, whole milk—for smoother results in all your cooking!
recipe:
CARNATION'S EXTRA-CREAMY CHOCOLATE CREAM PIE (Makes one 8-inch pie)
1 package chocolate pudding-and-pie filling mix
1 cup undiluted CARNATION EVAPORATED MILK
1 cup water
1 baked 8-inch pie shell
Combine the pudding and pie filling mix with Carnation Evaporated Milk and water in saucepan. Cook according to label directions on mix. Pour into 8-inch crust. Cool. Top with toasted coconut or sliced bananas.
Carnation EVAPORATED MILK "from Contented Cows"

Healthy country boys "growing up overnight." Bobby and Francis Higginbotham, aged 7 and 4, were both Carnation babies—and they're both Carnation boys! Mother is an artist, Daddy is a doctor.

Dr. Templeton's son elected frat head

Furman Templeton Jr. was recently elected president of 17 Lambda Phi Fraternity, Tau Omega Chapter, at Franklin - Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa.

He is the son of Furman Templeton Sr., executive director of the Baltimore Urban League.

Mr. Templeton, 19, a senior pre - med student, will head the chapter of 65 members, including two other colored students. They all live in the fraternity house on the campus.

The first of his race to hold the post, Mr. Templeton was a student council member in his freshman year.

School 145 exhibits at Walbrook Branch

Rodman Elementary School No. 145 has an exhibit of ceramic, sculpture, string prints and collage pictures on display at the Walbrook Branch Enoch Pratt Library at North Ave. and Ellamont St.

The art work was placed in the display windows at the invitation of Mrs. Allyn Dongey, children's librarian, who extended the privilege to all neighborhood schools who wish to show the children's work.

The library hours are Monday through Thursday, 12 noon to 9 p.m.; Friday, 12 noon to 5:30 p.m. and Saturday 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Assisting the No. 145 pupils was Mrs. Mary B. Adams, art resource teacher in Area D, who aided with mounts and display techniques. George Simms is principal of the school.

DURHAM, N.C. — Singer Della Reese will be featured in a scholarship fund benefit concert at North Carolina College Thursday, sponsored by the alumni. The concert will be billed "From the Gospel to the Blues —Portrait of Della Reese."
