Detailed planning occupied the attention of the Alpha Wives Tuesday night. Arrangements for playing hostesses to visiting wives during the Alpha Eastern Regional Convention at the Hotel Stafford, April 6-8 were debated.

Highlights of the planning include a fashion show featuring the Pauline Brooks models, a luncheon and a cocktail sip. Mary Pitts is general chairman of the convention program.

With the convention details settled upon, Maxene Higginbotham, chairman of the travel committee, offered suggestions for a shopping, theatre-going and fun weekend in New York City during May.

Members present were Estelle Pinkett, Josephine Kimbers, Rubye Walker, Thelma Lawrence, Hortense Winder, Maxene Higginbotham, Catherine Adams, Mary Pitts, Ida Veney, Margurite Brown, Louise Dennis, Blanche Hughes, Ida Smith, Audrey Davis, Ellen Johns, Susan King, Frances Pennington, Dorothy Harris, Ella Edemy and Francis Mackay.

THE ORGANIZATION (Baltimore is the charter club of the group which now has a unit in Philadelphia) had a jam-up session with Mae Cornish in her Braddish Avenue home on Thursday.

They arrived at 3:30 in the afternoon, when they went into a fun and snack session... and then into the theme Mae had concocted: "What is the True Twist."

As the group, in their George Washington Birthday finery sauntered to the club room, they were greeted with decorations of advice and admonition in re America's greatest, "The Twist."

Members were breathless as they read and digested the pertinent advice.

A brief business meeting, and then dinner...the full courses. Mae, assisted by daughter, Zenobia (Towson Teachers College student and a Me-De-So deb) was the perfect hostess.

Enjoying the session were Lillian Wilson, Aurelia Lonesome, Jeannette Johnson, Alphua Williams, Marion Amphrey, Veronia Green, Mary Bacote, Henrietta Jones, Ernestine Lewis and a guest, Geneva Johnson.

THE "MODERN MOTHERS CLUB"— entertained their children and guests with a party, at Coppin College, a Saturday ago.

There were square dancing, games and the Twist sessions. As a highlight they had George Peck Jr., a magician, whose performance was superb. After this the children were served sandwiches, cokes, candies, and cakes.

Mothers about were Bea Holley, Lottie Watkins, Rosa Murray, Lucille Williams, Ruth Redwine, Clarice Parrish, Jennie Mason, Dorothy Johnston, Merita Stokes, Mabel Gee and Rowena Wingfield.

Children and guests attending were:

Skipper Stokes, Clinton Jennifer, Gregory Brown, Debra Holley, Elaine White, Bernadette, Bascomb, Johnny Murray, Jacques Leeds, Bruce Hawkins, Billy Watkins;

POT-POURRI: Charming interval on Saturday, Mrs. Donald G. Murphy (she's wife of Capt. Murphy, who is in charge of Morgan State College's ROTC) pouring coffee for her mother-in-law, Mrs. George Bishop of Chicago, who visited from Thursday to Sunday, here.

Mrs. Bishop is a social worker in the Illinois city... holds a post with the Housing Authority, there.

To meet her, and have coffee-plus from a beautifully appointed table were Mesdames Charles Cox, James Marrow, James Bradley, Russell Parrish and Gladys Shepherd.

Off to Williamsburg, Va. Saturday, went Bernice and George White, Merrial and Percy Brinkley and Ruth and Luther Jackson for a fun-filled weekend. After a bit of sight-seeing in the afternoon the group was whisked off to Ruth Pope's home for luncheon and cards...climaxed by an elegant party given by C. L. and Hattie Anderson at their Scotland Street residence.

Ann Adams, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams who is an exchange student from Fisk University, Nashville, Tenn., to Pomona College in Claremont, Calif., will be at the latter college this entire semester.

Following this she will return here for the vacation.

In an earlier edition I stated that she had returned to Fisk University campus. Ann is an honor student at Fisk, as she was at Western High School, this city.

Up from North Carolina is Verda Welcome's sister, Emma Oliver, for a physical check-up.

At Girl Friends' meeting, Saturday, Doris Wheeler looked especially chic in a tangy red knit, a new swirled and bouffant hair-do, an elegant single strand of pearls...but then she was equally as fetching in fireside pants of purple velvet and paisley top at her dinner party, Sunday ago. 'Twas a club group meeting with the James H. Murphys, the Medford Reynoldses, Lula Patterson, members; and the Charles Lews, guests, about.

Incidentally, the James H. (Yvette) Murphy's new pale gray Chrysler is something to see.

Lovely Ann Williams jetted in from Nashville, Tenn., Sunday, having been the guest of President and Mrs. Harold D. West of Meharry Medical College, and where, incidentally, she received that Keepsake ring from Wayman C. Lattimore, initiating their formal engagement. Mrs. West entertained at tea for her. Mr. Lattimore is from Mt. Vernon, N.Y., and studying medicine at Meharry.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.

"And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

POET AND INSPIRATION — Miss Adele V. Holden's collection of poems, written over the years, are available in her first Book, "Figurines and other Poems." The Dunbar High School English teacher got her inspiration for the poem "Figurine," from a statue which hangs on the wall.

'Figurine' she didn't like led teacher to book of poems

A figurine that at first she didn't, is largely responsible for a book of poems, "Figurines and other Poems," by Miss Adele V. Holden.

It has been on sale three months.

Her book had a full-window display last month at the main Enoch Pratt Library, Cathedral and Franklin Sts.

A reviewer says Miss Holden "shows the true lyric beauty of poetry and is most moving in her imaginative thoughtful poems.

"Her poem to her grandfather is exceptionally striking and we recommend to everyone Church Bells and her penetrating, soul searching interpretation of the Lord's Prayer, "Our Father."

"Exquisite as her love poems are, we feel that her descriptive poems such as "Colette" are most unusual."

* * *

MISS HOLDEN, teacher at Dunbar High School since 1946, has been writing poems for seven years. Her writing career began 10 years ago with short stories, but none has been published.

Her reason for writing is, she says, "I have things I wish to express and poetry is my way of telling what I feel about things.

As for the poem "Figurine", it is the result of the owner's admiration for it, and a motion picture on Africa.

It belonged to a friend who was highly impressed with it.

Miss Holden, not immediately impressed, had a change of heart after she saw the African picture. She said she saw "gracefulness and beauty" not there before — at least not to her eye.

This she set down in her poems by the same name:

"... No figure ignorant of nakedness
Could wear a flaming scrap
At head and hip
And be so dressed
In dusty lines of lithe graceful fullness
Primordial beauty suffuses her ugliness; . . . ."

HER DECISION to set some of her poems down in a book came after Miss Holden took a special graduate course in writing under Elliott Colemen, head of the writing department at Johns Hopkins University.

"It was my idea to write the book. "Miss Holden said but she was aided considerably by Mr. Coleman in choice of poems and getting a publisher.

Miss Holden also did the jacket for the book.

After six months of preparation, the book went to press.

Now, says Miss Holden "I'm going to sit back and see how this one goes before I try another."

A native of Pocomoke City, Md., Miss Holden is a graduate of Morgan State College.

Two brothers, Leon and Elroy, and two sisters, Misses Elizabeth and Dorothy Holden, also are teachers.

Her parents, Snow and Laura Holden, live in Wilmington, Del.
