WHO OWNS YOUR ELECTRIC COMPANY?

Would you be surprised to learn that your electric light and power company is owned by Dr. Johnson, Lawyer Browne, Mr. Jones the grocer and Chief Petty Officer Moore?

Maybe you yourself are an investor-owner in the company that provides your area with dependable, low-cost electric service.

The point is: people own your power company. Not the government, or the city, or the state. But people in every walk of life, with savings they want to invest.

Your electric company (like the more than 300 electric companies throughout our country) is investor-owned by people like you and your neighbor.

That is free enterprise at work to help keep America Powerful!

Off The Beaten Path —

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

Here is a letter I would like to share with you.

It is written by Mrs. Louise Kerr Hines, former AFRO reporter, known for her interesting style.

You'll enjoy it for it will bring memories of days gone by — and it tells more about a young woman we all know.

Dear Elizabeth:

I wish to congratulate you on your beautiful story about Mrs. Juanita Mitchell. Your graphic description of Mrs. Mitchell's activities brought tears to my eyes.

Those of us fortunate enough to have known Mrs. Mitchell since childhood days know that hers has always been a life of service dedicated to others. She was a Sunday School teacher in her teenage years at the Sharp Street Methodist Church. Any program there was enhanced by her participation either giving dramatic readings, singing, or playing the piano. She has a beautiful alto voice and is an accomplished pianist.

I recall how Juanita and her sisters Virginia (Kiah) and Marion (Downs Pierce) helped pay for their education. They traveled around to various churches giving concerts. While their father, Mr. Keiffer Jackson showed religious moving pictures, Mrs. Lillie Mae Jackson, the mother, lectured.

The Jackson sisters participated in solos, duets, trios and with the mother as a quartette. Their repetoire was extensive and they were capable of presenting several hours of interesting and inspiring entertainment.

* * *

PROCEEDS OF the concerts were shared with the sponsoring church.

Mrs. Mitchell played a special and unique part in the revival of the Baltimore Branch of the NAACP. When police brutality was rampant in Baltimore in the 30's, jobs practically non - existent and the plight of the colored citizenry deplorable, Dr. Carl Murphy, AFRO-AMERICAN president, called together a group of men and women to seek means of improving the situation.

From the meeting came the rebirth of the local NAACP branch, and the dynamic Mrs. Jackson was elected president. To Juanita, Mr. Carl gave a herculean task: To bring the next NAACP National Convention to Baltimore.

Records of this organization show "a charming Baltimore girl, Juanita Jackson" shook up the convention with her dynamic plea for a place for youth in the NAACP program. In addition, she succeeded in carrying out the unique task assigned her.

Juanita talked herself into a job, for she became the first Youth Secretary of the NAACP, and toured the country organizing and advising youth groups. I can recall her picture in an issue of the Crisis magazine, standing with the Scottsboro Boys in Alabama.

PRIOR TO her marriage, Mrs. Mitchell garnered her greatest laurels as the president and founder of the City - Wide Young People's Forum.

This dynamic organization flourished for 10 years as a sounding board for the problems of youth with meetings held Friday nights in either Sharp Street Methodist or Bethel AME Churches.

"See you at the Forum" was a familiar saying among the high school and college set. There was work for all, as members of the speakers committee, the choir, the courtesy committee, the social committee, the ushers.

Every seat was taken every Friday night. Every session was a "good show," with the beautiful Juanita unwittingly the star.

The music was lively, the promotion effective and the results effective.

Members of the Forum, joined with the late Prophet Costonie in the forerunner of the current youth demonstrations. Theirs was a "Buy Where You Can Work Campaign," conducted on Pennsylvania Ave.

With her supporters, Juanita Jackson Mitchell trod the picket lines which brought employment for colored youth at the A and P, American, Brill's and Tommy Tucker stores among others.

Few of us will forget Juanita's wedding day, in September, 1938. Candlelit Sharp Street Church was packed to capacity.

As Clarence Mitchell, her intended husband, and she joined hands at the altar, a terrific storm broke. Zigzags of lightning created a "Hollywood" backdrop as it played behind the stained glass windows.

Even more unusual was the fact the late Bishop W. A.C. Hughes, so overcome with emotion, was unable to lead the couple in their vows.

Alone they repeated the time honored words to each other to the audible admiration of the guests. So gripping, and stirring with this whole episode, that, as they walked up the aisle as man and wife, the guests applauded.

To me, my friend, Juanita is one of the most remarkable persons I have ever known.

Dr. Drake talks today at Coppin

Dr. St. Clair Drake, a well-known sociologist and anthropologist will be featured (today) Friday at Coppin State Teachers College, in an all-day conference on the problems of modern communities.

Dr. Drake, professor at Roosevelt University, Chicago, is noted for his study made of the Deep South and for his book written with Horace R. Cayton, "Black Metropolis", a study of the colored-white relations in a Northern urban center.

He will be available to answer questions on problems arising from immigration and desegregation, particularly as they effect schools.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain
New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.
In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observation.
Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or retraction (shrinking) took place.
And most amazing of all — this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!
In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" And among these sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' standing.
All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—the discovery of a world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyne is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.
This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment forms called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.
