POT-POURRI: Shirley Lottier Hughes flew in from Berkeley, Calif., Saturday for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William I. Lottier. With her was her daughter, Robin. Mrs. Hughes was taking a break between posts. She has been with a social service agency in Berkeley...will begin as a supervisor in San Francisco, Monday. She and Robin flew back to California Friday.

At the meeting on Saturday evening of Epsilon Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha, sorors mapped plans for two important affairs, a Bus-cade to the regional conference in Harrisburg, Pa. this weekend, and their annual spring dance in May.

They also transacted important business, including a study of narcotics and their effects on society; and making a substantial contribution to the Civic Interest Group.

To Harrisburg, Pa. will go Gladyce B. Jones, Rubye Taylor, Jean Turpin, Edith Gordon, Nancy Arnaz, Verniece Reynolds, Florence Doris Levi, Marion Overton, Betty Williams, Beatrice Myers and Edna Campbell, along with Bernice Hunley, chairman of the Bus-cade and member of the regional nominating committee.

Guests of the chapter were members of Alpha Delta chapter of Morgan State College.

WHEN THE GAMMA chapter of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa met on Saturday, the business session dealt mainly with plans for Founders' Day celebration and the annual beach party.

The feature of the cultural series on "Emerging Africa" was an exhibit. The group visited five displays where discussants presented information and visual material.

African folk tales and myths were read and discussed by Soror Ethel Brewington. Soror Evelyn Burton showed a film strip "The Regions of Africa." Dr. Delores C. Hunt discussed current literature on Africa in books and magazines, and Soror Ethel Clarke presented Seif M. Matumla of Tanganyika, who discussed objects of art. Mrs. Roselle Hunt discussed and distributed African menus.

The dinner, served by the committee, was strictly "African." It consisted of Hoender Pastel, Mpati A Nsengo, Savory Cheese Pie, Swahili Punch, Coffee and Coconut Ginger Bread.

Guests included Mesdames Audrey J. Pinderhughes, Mary S. Herring, Lois E. White, Mary C. Smith, Julia Miles, Louise Gambrill, Lena B. Brown and Jeanette E. Miles.

Also members of the Junior Business and Professional Women's Clubs, including Misses Doris Wilson, Gail Patterson, Mattie Sanders, Merle Jewett, Jacqueline Murphy, Trazana Beverly, Mildred Dorsey, Phyllis Jennings and Phyllis Smith.

THE BALTIMORE CHAPTER of Jack and Jill of America met at the Kappa House and finalized plans for presentation of the Children's Theatre production of "Heidi" at Poly on May 26th.

Frankie Wood is chairman, Effie Scott, co-chairman and Grace Scott, president. The production will raise funds for Mental Health and other charities sponsored by the national and local chapters.

The group also made plans for the Jack and Jill Family Day picnic to be held on June 16.

The program committee for "Heidi" is headed by Viola Taliaferro and includes Wilhelmina Cragway, Ida Smith, Norma Humphrey, Inetta Gross, Anne Emory, Carolyn Boston and Berine Gail.

The ticket committee is headed by Jeanette Chisholm, chairman with Jean Davis Mas as co-chairman. The committee includes Ruth White, Vashti Christmas, Joslyn Braxton, Joan Hayes, Celonia Walden, Hermione Weaver, Ann Shephard, Merita Stokes.

Also Doris Wallace, Corrie Ailor, Jeanette Johnson, Catherine Richardson, Mabel Gee, Marjorie Flanagan, Rebecca Griggs, Vashti Joyner, Lucille Wade, and Elizabeth Williams.

The 1962 National Convention of Jack and Jill will be in St. Paul, Minn., "Land of Sky Blue Waters" with the Twin City Chapter was host. Theme for the convention will be "Jack and Jill's Blue-print for Broader Horizons."

The Teen-Age Regional Conference, hosted by the Stamford, Conn. Chapter will be held June 29, 30, and July 1.

National officers and the Executive Committee will meet in Washington, D.C. on April 13th.

MISS NORMA GRACE WALKER

Miss Norma Grace Walker to become bride of David Scott

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Walker, this week, announced the engagement of their daughter, Norma Grace, to David Irvin Scott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick I. Scott.

The bride - elect is a graduate of Howard University and a member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and Pi Lambda Theta, national honor society.

• • •

MISS WALKER made her debut at the Me - De - So Cotillion in 1955, and is currently a speech correctionist in the Baltimore school system.

Mr. Scott graduated from the Howard University College of Pharmacy. He served for two years in the United States Army, and is a practicing pharmacist in this city.

A June wedding is planned.

Que-Ettes honor past presidents

The Baltimore chapter of Que - Ettes, auxiliary to Omega Phi Psi Fraternity, honored past presidents at its anniversary luncheon, Saturday.

The luncheon was held in the Baltimore Inn and presided over by Mrs. Lucretia Whitten.

The honorees included:

Mesdames Bernice Monroe, who organized the auxiliary; Rubye Gill, Sallie Fletcher, Mae Pinkett, Augusta Chissell, Frances Hill, Mattie Garnder, and the current president, Mrs. Bernice McDaniels.

Gift of beautiful white gloves went to Mrs Mattie Gardner, retiring president.

IN POINTING out the work of the Que - Ettes, Mrs. Janet Woolridge told the group that from its organization in 1946, the auxiliary was actively engaged in civic, charitable and social activities.

The primary aim, during the formative years was to assist the husbands in furnishing a Frat House. The group has contributed to the NAACP, in which it holds a life membership, has provided musical instruments and hymnals for Crownsville and gifts to Henryton Hospital and well-as provided YMCA camperships.

• • •

NOW, SAID Mrs. McDaniels, "Que - Ettes are going to get in there fighting for freedom." Towards gathering funds for this "fight" the Baltimore chapter is planning a Freedom Ball in June.

The luncheon was arranged by a committee which included Mesdames Myrtice Bennett, Mattie Gardner, Ruth Rosedom, Laura Waller, Lucretia Whitten, and Janet Woolridge.

Their special guests were Miss Grace Mack, whom they sponsored at the Girl Friends' Cotillion; and their sub - deb, Miss Rayner Keyser.

• • •

Baltimore Moles' supper dance tops week's social calendar

From the decor of a beautiful lady with a mole on her cheek to the glasses ascribed with each guest's name . . . from Bobby Felder dishing out the times to Brewington and Owings dishing out the viands . . . that supper dance was strictly the top.

Speaking, of course, of the Baltimore chapter of Moles' party in Union Hall, Cherry Hill, Friday night.

The lovely lady flanked the entrance of the hall, and sort of pointed the way to the line of Moles, as lovely, who received their guests.

• • •

INDIVIDUAL TABLES, filled with the makings for a variety of drinks (Florence Bailey even had brandy she had brought back from France on her recent jaunt) and presided over by the Moles and their husbands or escorts set the pace for the prior - supper dancing.

The latter included:

Messrs. and Mesdames Robert (Florence) Bailey, Paul (Blanche) Beckham, Glenford (Emma) Dudley, Irving (Louise) Lockerman;
