Gadabouting In Baltimore

Principal citation to Frank J. Sorrell

with Lula Jones Garrett

On the local front, this week, the social calendar was a smoothie.

First, Frank J. Sorrell, of Charles H. Houston Junior High School, went to New London, Conn., to accept a special citation in the 1962 Secondary Principal of the Year competition.

Mr. Sorrell won the coveted award in the fourth annual search for the nation's outstanding principals sponsored by Croft Educational Services.

He was one of six secondary principals in the nation to come through the finals of the judging. He will receive an illuminated scroll.

Mr. Sorrell was nominated by his classroom teachers, who said of him, "He is working constantly to develop new methods and practices which will better enable his staff to meet the educational needs of the pupils."

He was cited especially for his schools' homeroom centered program for seventh graders to help them make a smooth adjustment to junior high school. In this program the homeroom teacher instructs her class in language arts, social studies and health, or science.

A unified mathematics program at the school enables pupils in seventh, eighth and ninth grades to explore mathematics from arithmetic to calculus.

THE LINKS (Baltimore chapter) had the prettiest luncheon on Saturday, in the Stafford Hotel, for a "Bob-O-Link." Nina Adams, who will make her debut at the Me-De-So Cotillion on the 26th.

Nina is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Maurice Adams and a student at Syracuse University where she is on the honor roll and, as well as being a "Brain," is equally as clever with her hands.

She made the chic, burgundy flowered, basque-blouse, full - skirted silk frock she wore.

The hostesses had bid her invite a number of friends. She did, among them June Burkett, Jill Collins, Zenobia Cornish, Jackie Finney, Wilhelma Garner, Harriet Lee, Carol Matthews, Tonya Bundara, Eleanor and Louise Peters, Constantia Reckling, Carol Sherrington, Carol Williams and Brenda Winkler.

Links had as guests a Link from Dayton, Ohio, Hortense Campbell; and Lula Patterson, Mrs. Campbell is Lillian Jones' mother and Helen King's sister.

The luncheon was served at a horeshoe-shaped table, decored with corsages of pink carnations at place settings for guests (and which the glests later pinned on).

. . . and against a background of recorded music.

The honor guest and her mother wore white orchids. Mom did a little vieing, there, with daughter . . . looking ever so smart in a deep purple silk jacket frock and matching purple togue.

Miss Adams was presented by the chapter president, Mrs. Xaveria McDonald. Later the group played pinochle and bridge, with Louise Peters, Harriett Lee and Carol Williams taking the pinochle prizes, and Brenda Winkler, bridge prize winner.

Hostesses, other than Mrs. McDonald, were:

Pearlie Pennington, who, I think, was chairman of the affair; Emma Michaels, Mae Adams, Beatrice Butler, Lillian Berry, Helen Burwell; Florence Gloster, Marie Hicks, Lillian Jones, Lydia Musenden Yvette Murphy, Audrey Norris, Louise Perrin, Etta Phifer, Theresa Waters and Pauline Watts.

FOR EVENING at the opera, Tuesday, Lillian Murphy added to the scenery in a frock of blue satin with lace inserts and mink covering.

In the box with her and Dr. Carl Murphy were Bettye Phillips, who chose a combination of black and white — the frock's top being of white lace- and Mrs. Frankie Wood in blue silk and silver mink. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith were in Mayor Grady's box... she in a black crepe with draped skirt. Also Mr. and Mrs. John Murphy, 3rd. . . she in black satin were in Dr. and Mrs. Carl Murphy's box.

Occupying another box were Mrs. P. D. G. Pennington (her ensemble being of turquoise satin, and her furs chinchilla) Mrs. Eleanor Anderson, Miss Hansonia Caldwell, and the AFRO's music critic, Mrs. Adah Jenkins, who wore a mauve and gold print silk, with black velvet wrap.

Another party included Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Wilson, Mrs. Mae Peck, Mrs. Beatrice Reesby, Mrs. Parlett Moore, Mrs. Marcus Allen, Mrs. Gloria Stokes;

WHEN PHILATHEA HALL, center, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall, celebrated her 12th birthday, recently, among her guests were, Frances Keane, left, and Marie Phillips, right.

Also Miss Loretta Glasper, Mrs. Clarice Coleman, Mrs. Georgeanna Chester, Mrs. Marion Smith, Mrs. Gertrude Finney, Mrs. Rebekah Mitchell and Pat Jenkins.

Seen between acts, from Morgan's music faculty, were Mrs. Frances Hill, who wore a frock in the newest shade of tangerine, and of the most popular material, chiffon; and Mrs. Carol Diggs, in sheer gray wool striped in gold metallic threads.

What drew them was the Opera "Fidelio" performed by the Baltimore Symphony Orchestra and Morgan State College Choir, which is directed by Joseph S. Eubanks.

PRIOR, MEMBERS of the faculty of School No. 128, had a theatre party which saw the National Ballet of Canada, presented by Harry Baernstein, 3rd.

In this group were Mrs. Marie Y. Matthews, Miss Joan Lewis, Mrs. Rose B. Williams, Mrs. Erma A. Hankins, Charles Owens. Mr. and Mrs. William Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Pemberton.

MERCEDES DOUGLAS flew off to Geneva, Switzerland, Monday, with the "Women Strike for Peace" delegation. But before she left she was house hostess for the surprise party given by members of Knox Presbyterian Church for the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. H. Octavious Graham.

Her beautiful Tioga Parkway apartment was rearranged so that the entrance and living room fused into a picturesque floral setting.

Ere the honorees had time to glimpse the huge blue and white umbrella, under which were tables piled high with gifts, guests emerged from every corner of the apartment to yell surprise and sing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

The dining table carried the blue and white color scheme in candles, silver and china. The table cloth had been made especially for the occasion by Mrs. Alice Hayley of New York. The numerous gifts of linens of all kinds and colors that were showered upon the couple are for their new home at 3412 W. Forest Park Avenue.

The party was attended by:

Messrs. and Mesdames Colonel A. Hall, Wendell G. Wright, Willie Cates;

Mesdames Evelyn Boyd, Willie J. Russell, Alice Haley, Roberta Bacoat, Cop-

Alphas head for New York

Headed by Frank Ellis and Lawrence Willis, the official delegates, a full contingent of some 22 Baltimore Alphas head for New York's Hotel Astor today (Fridsy) for the two-day Eastern Regional Convention.

The convention was originally scheduled for Baltimore, but was shifted to New York by the host chapter, Delta Lambda, in protest of the refusal of so many Baltimore restaurants to serve everybody.

MR. ELLIS, the fraternity's Eastern regional director, who before its cancellation served as the local convention chairman, will deliver the fraternal address at Friday night's session.

Beresford Swan of Morgan State College is scheduled to bring the undergraduate message. Dr. Clifton Jones, national Alpha educational director, will appear on a workshop panel, while Cliff W. Mackay, Eastern regional, public relations director, is slated to discuss, "Creating a Better Image."

OTHER BALTIMOREANS who are expected to play important roles in the two-day sessions are Frank Veny, president of Delta Lambda; Edward Young, Pierre Davis, the chapter secretary; Arthur Spencer, William Nix, Robsol Pinkett, Douglas Sands, Joseph Press, Frederic Jackson, W. A. C. Hughes and John Richardson, 3rd.

Albert C. Gilbert, an attorney, is serving as chairman of the New York convention. Alpha Gamma Lambda chapter of which L. H. Stanton is president, is serving as host.

DR. WILLIAM H. HALE, president of Langston University, Oklahoma, and national president of Alpha, and Dr. T. Winston Cole, president of Wiley College, Texas, who is Alpha's president - elect, will be two of the principal speakers at the sessions.

Dr. J. Clinton Hoggard, secretary - treasurer of the AMEZ Church, Washington, will be the Saturday night banquet speaker. Dr. Alfred C. Fentress of Norfolk, Va., is Eastern vice president of the fraternity.

FINAL REPORTS read by Frank Ellis to Delta Lambda Monday night disclosed Alpha's stand in cancelling the Baltimore convention cost the chapter more than $1,000 to satisfy contract settlements.

"It's a cheap price to pay for freedom," observed one member as arrangements were voted to absorb the losses.

Edward Young and Lawrence Willis were appointed co-chairmen to plan the local chapter's annual observance of "Alpha Educational Week." The week - long observance will be climaxed with a public program on Sunday, May 20.

137th Founder's Day held at Metropolitan

The 137th Founders Day was celebrated at Metropolitan Methodist Church Sunday.

The Rev. J. B. A. Dyson, district superintendent of the North Baltimore District, and Rabbi Abraham Shusterman of Har Sinai Congre- Herman of Har Sinai Congregation were the speakers.

The Metropolitan Methodist Church Department of Music, together with guest stars, presented a musical program.

Participants were Miss Gloria Yate, soprano; Henry Mays, cellist, Miss Evangeline Williams, contralto, A. Maurice Murphy, pianist, and Mrs. Naomi Weaver, soprano.

Aubrey Maurice Murphy is director of music.

Lloyd Graham, president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, presented to the Rev. Frank L. Williams, pastor a package containing cards and monetary expressions from the Metropolitan congregation.

Mrs. Verna Gosnell was chairman of the decoration committee.

More than 500 members of the Metropolitan family and their guests with Mrs. Mary Keene, as chairman of the reception committee, and Mrs. Carrie Webb, chairman of hostess and host committee were served at the luncheon.

Mrs. Addye T. Smith was general chairman for the day.

Other committee chairmen were Mrs. Mary N. Brooks, Mrs. May W. Fortune, James Carter, Mrs. Mary B. Thomas, James Murray, Miss Ernestine Crump, Mrs. Louise Wallace, Mrs. Mary Wilson, Joseph Burley, William Gosnell and Henry Ayers.

Iota Sorority plans luncheon

Kappa chapter of Iota Phi Lambda Sorority will climax the annual Business Week with a business girl luncheon, fashion show, popularity contest and a film of the Bermuda trip made by sorors after the National Convention last summer.

The affair will be held in Walbrook Trinity Presbyterian Church on Saturday, April 14, at 1 p.m: The luncheon is to be served by the Women's Organization of the church.

THE WINNER of the popularity contest will be crowned "Miss Kappa Chapter Business Girl."

The "Gems," girls of 10 to 15 years old, who have been selected by the sorority, have been invited to meet their big sisters for the first time, and to get first hand information as to the program planned for them.

There will also be door prizes.

Chairman for the Business Week Celebration is Soror Mary Crump and Soror Marie Lewis is co-chairman.

Soror Isabel McConnell is president of the chapter.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In one hemorrhoid case after another, "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by a doctor's observations.

Pain was relieved promptly. And, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction or reduction (shrinking) took place.

And most amazing of all—this improvement was maintained in cases where a doctor's observations were continued over a period of many months!

In fact, results were so thorough that sufferers were able to make such astonishing statements as "Piles have ceased a problem!" And among the sufferers were a very wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions of 10 to 20 years' standing.

All this, without the use of narcotics, anesthetics or astringents of any kind. The secret: a new healing substance (Dyna®)—the discovery of world-famous research institution. Already, Bio-Dyna is in wide use for healing injured tissue on all parts of the body.

This new healing substance is offered in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. Ask for individually sealed, convenient Preparation H Suppositories or Preparation H Ointment with special applicator. Preparation H is sold at all drug counters.

Off The Beaten Path —

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

Friends, flowers and imagination can help anyone make the best of things.

Here is how my daughter Marsha and I weathered the storm of adversity after an automobile accident confined her to home.

Suffering a whiplash injury she will be in braces for about four months and away from her desk as admittance officer at Crownsville State Hospital.

AMONG SCORES of visitors last week were three who said they had premonition something had happened in our home.

Marsha's adopted Aunt Ella, Mrs. Ella Light, owner of a variety store in Harlem, said she dropped everything and took a train for Baltimore without knowing why the impulse came.

Among others who said, "We were thinking of you so much, we had to come" were the Rev. Harvey Waldon, pastor of Grant Memorial AME Church in Chicago and Bishop D. Ward Nicholas, Long Island, N.Y.

In May, the Rev. Mr. Waldon's church, the largest in Chicago, will dedicate a $250,000 community center and in addition, "Cousin Harvey" as we call him, will wed a very attractive Chicago matron.

Bishop Nichols on the way from Winter vacation in Florida to his Huntington, Long Island home, disclosed he has a new grandson.

REGINALD ROBINSON, official of the Student Non-Violent Committee, Atlanta, Ga., said the group is planning the spring conference to be attended by college students and Freedom Riders from every section of the country.

Among Sunday visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Woods of Morgan Park who delighted us with accounts of the latest happenings in the lives of their two daughters, Lenora and Patricia, now residing in Los Angeles, Calif.

Lenora, a freshman at UCLA, is secretary - treasurer of the dormitory committee, is an honor student.

A 1961 debutante, she will return home for a 2 - week's stay with her parents and attend the cotillion.

Patricia, married last June in one of Baltimore's most beautiful of weddings, is expecting the stork, has a brand new, very colorful house.

THE CROWNSVILLE State Hospital social service department brought Marsha a live plant.

IDA SMITH entertained the Firesiders, Saturday as the group continued to work on their project for the Oblate Sisters.

Doris Tarter, gave a demonstration of Tupperware conducted games and sponsored Home Parties to the group. Tupperware is a new AFRO advertiser and will be showing for the first time at the AFRO Cooking School in May.

Special guests were Arnetta Lottier, Frankie Wood, Agnes Underwood, Muriel Callaman, Dorothy Wood, Vashti Matthews and Betty Phillips.

Members about were Milburne Brown, Ada Weaver, Frances Ashby, Irma Dancy, Iris Mapp, president; Lillian Ross, Bea Nixon, Inez Reed, Evelyn West, Dorothy Brown.

RUBY REID had a full house, all 17 members present when she entertained the We Wives Tuesday night. Ruby is famous for her chitterling dinner plus crab cakes and hot spoon bread plus all the fixings.

A brief business session was held by president Vernice Reynolds.

NINE-YEAR - OLD Cynthia G. Shockley celebrated her birthday recently, at a pretty party all done up in a green and white package.

The party was given by her parents, Charlotte and Elwood Shockley, and provided a gay time for the guests: Bernadette Bascom, Paula Brooks, Denise Brown, Velda Buie, Robin Greene, Everne Johnson, Andrea Jones, Sharon Stewart and Cheryl Walker.

Of special fun were activities planned, such as decorating paper bags, which were used later to take home goodies, favors and prizes; writing words from the letters in the name of her honoree, which Bernadette won;

Bingo, with Andrea, Sharon, Paula and Evernen winning prizes; a cupcake decoration contest won by Cheryl Walker, and a twist contest at which Velda took the prize.

What charmed the guests most was the birthday cake, decorated with multi - colored lollipops, each guest being allowed to remove one to take home.

POT - POURRI: Jean Medley and James G. Segar have a date with the minister at Sharon Baptist Church, Saturday afternoon at four.

The Clarence J. Gittins (school principal) have a change of address to 3501 Rosedale Road.

Ethel Scott Wright is out of Johns Hopkins Hospital and recuperating at her home, 2314 W. Lanvale, to the delight of husband, James, and scores of friends.

The Simon D. Hamiltons of Los Angeles (she's the former Patricia Woods of this city) are practicing lullabys. They expect an heir in August or September.

Those delightful sketches which decored the walls of the Garden Room of Wilson's during the reception for Beverly Barrett were created by Lynde Jordan and depicted phases of the life of the debutante.

There was never such surprise as exhibited by Sadie Douglas, Monday evening, when members of the Flower Guild of St. James Episcopal Church gave a surprise party for her. She's the hard-working Guild warden.

Hazel Bryant, Oberlin Conservatory senior, and daughter of the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. Bryant of this town, is on the annual spring concert tour with the college choir.
