Del. Stark talks to women about machine, civil rights

By DORIS B. ADAMS

At last!! A Baltimore chapter of the Bennett College Alumni has been organized. The idea was conceived and spearheaded by Marion (Jackie) Bowman Green. And did the gals respond with enthusiasm!

T'was hard to realize that so many Bennett grads were living in B'More and unaware that they were within shouting distance of old pals!

Presiding was Bercella Lawson Blow (Bates High, Annapolis, schoolmarm, now on leave of absence, waiting for sir steel.

At the get - together were Edna Scott Phillips, Lea E. Dunstan, Audrey Phillips Highsmith, Charlie Marvey, Veronica Shipley, Shirley Diggs Richardson, Andrea Locust, Judith C. Adams, Willie Delores Jackson, Shirley Stokes, Doris Valentine Adams, Barbara R. Brooks, Bercella Blow and Jackie Bowman Green, at whose home the meeting was held. The next meeting will be the third Tuesday in April.

ITS DEMOCRATIC primary time! And members of our 5th District are fully aware of the issues . . . as a result . . . they want to meet the candidates and hear what they have to say.

The AFRO had already broken the story about our 5th District representative's split with the machine, so when the invitation to attend a coffee at the James H. Adams' 237 N. Culver St. residence and hear Delegate Stark's explanation of what happened to the equal accommodations bill in Annapolis was extended it was readily accepted.

The group listened intently as Alexander Stark explained the intricate methodology of the lawmakers in preparing a bill and getting support for said bill.

Many questions were asked. Many questions were answered. Then someone asked, "Why would you take the stand for us that you did?"

Mr. Stark replied," Its not that you plan to . . . things just keep happening . . . . you resent the injustice . . . it becomes a matter of principle. Then you know you have to take a stand . . . . and you take it."

ANOTHER interested person asked, "What will be the repercussions on you?" "Mr. Stark smiled and answered softly, "Your AFRO has already told you that . . . . I'll just say . . . If I don't win I won't starve . . . . I'll live . . . . but I would like to show the machine they can't run roughshod over right."

Attending the coffee for Mr. Stark were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dowdell (Nell), William (Sylvia) Grace Mesdames Susie E. Myles, baselius of Iota Chapter, LKM; Dorothy Smith, Esther Morris, Odell Spenser, Edith Monroe, Mabel Robinson, Audrey Simmons, Ellen Melvin, Irene Dorsey, Elnora Kinley. Also Joseph Delaney and Merrill West.

"I saved myself $50.00 by spending just 98¢..."

and so can you with Tintex!"
says Alma John
Home Arts Specialist and Radio Commentator
Winner of the McCall's Golden Microphone Award
When my new living room furniture arrived I was horrified to find that my 5-year-old drapes stuck out like a sore thumb. They looked absolutely shabby! But I didn't have the heart to throw them out. They'd cost me a pretty penny and, except for fading, they were still in good condition. Then a neighbor suggested Tintex, the new washing machine dye! I'm thankful to her to this day.
"NEW" DRAPES IN JUST 30 MINUTES
All I did was pour Tintex into my washer (no boiling, no straining) and 30 minutes later...new drapes! No wonder they can guarantee perfect results!
That's how a 98¢ 8-ounce package of Tintex saved me $50 for new drapes. I've done scatter rugs, bedspreads, slipcovers, even perked up gloves and blouses with the smaller 35¢ size Tintex. Look around...you probably have something you can rescue with Tintex today.
