Voted tops in '61, Rogers eyes Penn Relays repeat

PHILADELPHIA — Russ Rogers, Maryland State's all round star, will return to the Penn Relay Carnival on April 27 -28 to defend the two hurdles titles he won on Franklin Field last year.

In addition to winning the two timber events, Rogers was also named the Outstanding College Athlete at the 1961 carnival.

RUSS ROGERS

ROGERS heads a list of Maryland State performers who looked particularly good last weekend in a quadrangular meet with Ft. Lee, Princeton and Cornell.

Rogers was the top pointman in the meet winning the 120 - yard high hurdles, the 220 - yard low hurdles, finishing third in the javelin and running the anchor leg for the victorious Hawk one-mile relay team.

LAST YEAR at the Relay Carnival, Rogers won the 440 - yard hurdle title in 52.2 seconds and came back to win the 120 - yard high hurdle crown in 14 seconds.

Besides Rogers two other individual standouts will compete for Maryland State at the Relay Carnival. Charlie Mays, National AAU indoor broad jump champion will compete as will Central Intercollegiate AA discus champion Albert Santio.

MAYS defeated Ralph Boston for the AAU title doing 24 feet 10 inches. He will be shooting for the Carnival record of 26 feet 1½ inches set by Greg Bell of Indiana in 1957.

Santio's best in the discus thus far is 167 feet 6 inches but the Hawk field man has indicated a big drive to top the Carnival standard of 172 feet 3¾ inches set in 1953 by Roland Nilson of Michigan.

THE HAWKS plan to compete in three championship of America relay races with Rogers and Mays set to run in these events.

The Hawks will enter the one - mile, 880 and 440-yard relay races. Besides Mays and Rogers the relay teams will consist of Dick Davis and Bill Finger.

UCLA bid to Chi prep star

CHICAGO — (ANP) — Carver High School, led by two All-State stars, won the Chicago city high school basketball championship Saturday, defeating stubborn Gordon Tech, Catholic League champion, 56-53, before 10,348 fans in the Chicago Stadium.

Marshall High made it a Public League sweep by edging Loyola Academy, 61-58, for third place honors.

THE BIG gun for Carver was Cazzie Russell, who won a scholarship to UCLA through his brilliant tournament playing. Russell was also voted the most valuable player in Saturday's contest.

Russell, starring as a playmaker and sharpshooter against Gordon Tech, pumped in 27 points on field goals and dunk shots.

Russell got a big assist from Joe Allen, Carver's rebounding ace, who was runner-up in scoring with 13 points.

Dick Tiger strengthens claim to title chance

NEW YORK (ANP) —Dick Tiger of Nigeria, the British Empire middleweight champion, strengthened considerably his bid for a world title bout by handing Henry Hank of Detroit a severe thrashing in their featured nationally televised 10 - round bout in Madison Square Garden last Saturday night.

Tiger, the No. 1, ranked contender, moved into a commanding position to challenge both Gene Fullmer, the National Boxing Association titleholder, or the winner of the Terry Downes - Paul Pender championship fight.

Downs is recognized as champion in New York, Boston (Pender's hometown) and Europe.

TIGER GAVE Hank, ranked No. 5, an all - around boxing lesson. He not only outjabbed and outscored him, but beat Henry at his own game of slugging.

The tiger did this by crowding his man from gong to gong and bombarding him with jolting hooks to the head and body.

Hank tried to end it all with one punch. However, Dick was too smart for him. He ducked under most of Hank's roundhouse rights and stayed at close quarters where he muffled the Detroiter's punching power. A kockout specialist, Hank had scored 21 KOs in 36 bouts.

McCovey denies trade request

PHOENIX, Ariz. (ANP)—Willie McCovey wants to set the record straight.

He has vehemently denied that he said he "wanted" to be traded from the San Francisco Giants.

The rumor picked up wings when it became clear that Willie would be relegated to a substitute outfield role.

Giants' manager Alvin Dark also denied that McCovey had asked to be played or traded.

WIFE WEEPS — Mrs. Lucy Paret weeps over the body of her husband, boxer Benny (Kid) Paret, at the Ortiz Funeral Home in New York City. Body was later shipped to Miami, Fla. for funeral services and burial.

VIC POWER

Twins cheered by acquisition of Vic Power

ORLANDO, Fla. — Owner Calvin Griffith and manager Sam Mele expressed elation Wednesday over the acquisition of Vic Power in a trade with the Cleveland Indians.

Power was obtained by the Minnesota Twins in a deal which sent pitcher Pedro Ramos to the Indians earlier in the week.

VIC, considered by many to be the best defensive first baseman in the American League, had one of his poorest seasons at bat last year when he hit .268. In three previous years, he had batted over .300 and his lifetime average is a respectable .289.

Ramos won 11 and lost 20 for the Twins in 1961. The Tribe also sent lefthander Dick Stigman to Minnesota.

"HE GIVES us that quick hand we've been lacking at first base for a long time, and the good on - base guy we want in front of Harmon Killebrew, Jim Lemon and Bob Allison," said Griffith.

Mele looked at Power's addition in another light.

"We're going with a young, developing infield this summer. Vic is the polished, experienced veteran they'll need as a steadying influence."

Y tumblers shine in meet here

The open age group gymnastic meet at the Druid Hill YMCA last Saturday attracted seven different teams representing five states.

The teams were: Atlantic City YMCA, Washington Central YMCA, Yorktown High from Arlington, Va., Park Heights A.C. from Maryland, Dundalk YMCA, Druid Hill YMCA and the Lancaster, Penn. YMCA.

The Druid Hill "Y" Gymnasts captured seven events. In the 11 and under age group, Herbert Bass Jr., competing in his first meet, placed second in tumbling and free exercise.

In the 15 to 17 age group was dominated by the Druid Hill team as James Hayes placed first in tumbling and free exercise.

Eugene Caster won buck vaulting and still rings; placed second in free exercise, side horse, and olympic all-around; placed third on parallel bars.

Stan Waters won the all - around title, by winning the parallel bars, side horse, placing second on the buck vault, still rings and horizontal bar. John Offer placed third on the horizontal bar, while Alfred Brown placed third in tumbling to round out the team scoring.

The team will present its second annual exhibition at the "Y" tonight at 8 0'clock and travel to Washington next Friday to compete in the Junior Olympics.

the Miami - bound plane at Idlewild at 1 p.m., Thursday.

Some 17,000 passed the Paret bier on Wednesday, and at the 11 p.m., closing time lines several blocks long were still formed. This prompted a change of the original plans calling for an early morning shipment to Florida.

The parlors were reopened Thursday and another 8,000 mourners paid their last respects.

MRS. PARET arrived on a later plan from New York. She was accompanied by the fighter's mother, Mrs. Maximma Crespo, and his brother Antonio.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Paret was summed to the offices of the New York State Athletic Commission to be advised of the amount of money due her as Benny's earnings from his last bout.

Contracts for the ill - fated fight called for Paret to receive a $50,000 guarantee. From this amount were to be deducted monies advanced to the ex - champ to purchase a new home here, and for training camp expenses.

ALSO TO come out was the one - third share due Paret's manager, Manuel Alfaro, and approximately $1,500 hospital costs.

Lawyers estimated that a $10,000 insurance policy and a $750 surety from the boxing commission would hike Mrs. Paret's share to $35,000, before taxes.

PARET SUFFERED fatal brain damage during the course of a knockout at the hands of Griffith.

The latter and referee Ruby Goldstein were under heavy criticism after the fight.

Griffith was blasted for alleged brutality in the 12th round pounding of his opponent. And Goldstein was rapped for alleged negligence in not stopping the fight earlier than he did.

Both were absolved in a report submitted after an investigation ordered by Gov. Rockefeller.

DC man fine director in Va.

WASHINGTON

The Hoffman Boston High School of Arlington, Va., coached by Chester Boyd of Washington, won a distinguished citation at the recent 27th annual High School Drama Festival in Petersburg, Va.

The thirty - six drama students from Hoffman Boston acted from a 35-minute segment of Shakespeare's Julius Ceasar. Twenty - five high schools from across the state competed.

The judge, Stanley Wilson of Virginia State College, said the Hoffman Boston performance "equalled most college works that he had seen."

Such plaudits for Hoffman Boston are not unusual. This year was the ninth consecutive "Distinguished" rating for Chester Boyd and the school.

LAST FEBRUARY William Brown, professor of dramatics at Howard University, rated Hoffman Boston distinguished in the Northern Virginia Drama Festival.

Five seniors praised especially in the performance were William Simmons (Brutus), Harold Young (Cassius), Alonzo Evans (Ceasar) and John Curtis (Casca).

WILBERT TALLEY (Anthony) has been offered a scholarship to study at Howard University's School of Drama.

Faculty director Chester Boyd of 806 Deltafield St., NE, Washington, will present the complete Julius Ceasar at the Arlington Hoffman Boston School in the second week of May.

Tan tutor tagged 'coach of year'

CHICAGO (ANP) —Larry Hawkins, who led Carver High School to the 1962 Chicago city prep - basketball championship and to the runner - up spot in the all - state tournament, last week was named Coach of the Year by the Chicago Prep Writers Associaton.

The youthful Hawkins received a total of 35 points in the voting. Bob Luksta, coach of Gordon Tech, was second with 17.

Carver, with an all - colored team, defeated Gordon Tech in the city championship game.

recent Y membership campaign, contributing more than $3,000 worth of memberships.

The masons are also strong participants in the Community Chest Drive, with many members helping in door - to - door solicitations. The Community Chest supports the Druid Hill Branch YMCA as it does other YMCA's branches in the city.

"Sam Daniels believes in community work. Under his leadership the Masons have been more active than ever before in this area," Dr. Hill said.

"We're going to miss him," he added.

FORMER MAGISTRATE LINWOOD KOGER SR., one-time Baltimore chapter NAACP president, praised Mr. Daniels as "a good man and highly intellectual," but added that he feels the younger man might have been a "bit hasty".

"He is justified in his position, but I feel that there is a sincere effort to bring about desegregation in the YMCA. It may not be as fast as I or some others would like it.

The Rev. Marion C. Bascom, pastor of Douglas Memorial Community Church said that he is in agreement with Mr. Daniel's resignation, but felt that it was a personal decision which each man must make for himself.

"It's a sad commentary on a so-called Christian institution when it drags its feet behind the secular world," he said.

THERE REMAINS the possibility that action taken on a Druid Hill YMCA resolution for immediate desegregation of all YMCA branches which is set to come up in the Tuesday meeting of the Metropolitan Board may forestall further dissension on the issue.

The Druid Hill people sent the resolution to the Board in January, but it was tabled at that time.

Cincy honors Hogue, Wilson

CINCINNATI (ANP) —Senior Paul Hogue, who was named the most valuable player in the NCAA championship basketball game in which Cincinnati defeated Ohio State, had a similar honor bestowed upon him by his teammates for his season-long performance.

He was named the most valuable player on the Bearcat team that won 29 of 31 games this season, at the University of Cincinnati annual award dinner.

HOGUE WAS cited along with teammates Tony Yates and George Wilson of Chicago.

Yates was named Cincinnati's best defensive player and was chosen to captain the team during the 1962 - 63 season.

Sophomore Wilson received his award for being the best field goal shooter, percentage-wise, on the team.

Phils send Curry to Jacksonville

CLEARWATER, Fla. — (ANP) — Tony Curry, home-run slugger with Buffalo last season, was traded to Jacksonville of the International League in a three-player trade in which the Philadelphia Phillies acquired utility infielder Mel Roach and also sent pitcher Ken Lehman to Jacksonville.

Curry, an outfielder, hit 21 home runs and batted .282 with Buffalo, also of the International League. He also had a brief major League stint with the Phillies.

Roach played with the Milwaukee Braves and Chicago Cubs last year.

Curry is believed to be due for another crack at the Majors soon.

Sweethearts in national AAU in Mo.

WASHINGTON

The Cortez Peters Sweethearts take on an All - Star team Wednesday night as a tune - up for the National Tournament in St. Joseph, Missouri, April 3 - 7.

The Sweethearts received a jolt when one of the star players, Dollie Hundley, chipped a bone in her right knee over the week - end and will be unable to play for three weeks.

Miss Hundley was selected a member of the All - Star team in Waterbury, Conn., at the World Tournament.

The Sweethearts have a season record of 22 victories and 1 defeat. Over the past three years the Sweethearts have won 72 out of 75 games.

NFL schedule has Colts finishing at home, meeting 'Skins Dec. 9th

The National Football League today announced its 1962 regular season schedule on Tuesday. It is a 98 - game 14 - week card that features several differences from the pattern of recent years.

"More fans watched NFL games both in the parks and television in 1961 than ever before," said Commissioner Pete Rozelle in releasing the schedule. "but by no means have we reached our potential.

"Just as changes in the playing of the game itself have added to its appeal, so too, we believe, changes in scheduling will add to overall enthusiasm for the NFL."

The schedule, which opens Sunday, September 16, and runs through Sunday, December 16, contains these departures from recent traditions:

THE BALTIMORE Colts, who during the last nine seasons always have been scheduled to finish in California, are slated to wind up at home.

The change permits scheduling of their traditional game with the Washington Redskins on December 9 at Baltimore and gives the Colts a climactic finale with Minnesota, a rematch of Baltimore's 34 -33 last - second home victory over the Vikins in 1961.

THE WORLD Champion Green Bay Packers open defense of their Western Conference title at home against the Vikins, then play the first of their three Milwaukee home games, a September 23 date with the St. Louis Cardinals of the Eastern Conference.

The Packers' other interconference game is at Philadelphia on November 11. The Packers and Eagles met there for the 1960 title and the Eagles won 17 - 13.

The Pittsburgh Steelers have increased their home dates at Pitt Stadium from one to two and have also scheduled a night game against Philadelphia for Saturday, October 6, in Forbes Field, the Steelers' regular playing site.

THERE IS one other Saturday date on the schedule now — Cleveland at San Francisco December 15 — and at least one more will be added by switching one of the games scheduled for December 9 to December 8.

The Browns - 49ers will be televised nationally by the Columbia Broadcasting System, as will the traditional Thanksgiving Day (November 22) game between the Packers and Lions at Detroit.

Little leaguers open fund-raising campaign

Today (Friday), the Jackie Robinson Athletic Association begins its campaign to raise money for the season's athletic programs.

This year the association will be selling chocolate bars and hopes to raise over $2300.

Carl A. Oliver of Children's Center, Laurel, Maryland, is heading up the program with the help of Eugene King, 311 Winters Lane, Catonsville, Maryland, and the various coaches.

THE DRIVE will last two weeks and will cover a wide range of territory extending from Baltimore to the District of Columbia. All boys participating in the programs of the association will be asked to sell a portion of candy.

The money raised by this project will be used to furnish uniforms and equipment for the various teams. About 425 boys will be participating in the drive.

Three tan schoolboys among nation's top 5

Three colored youngsters are among the five best high school basketball players in the country.

This revelation came about early this week when Parade, the Nationally - circulated magazine supplement, published the All - America scholastic selections of Haskell Cohen.

Cohen is director of publicity for the National Basketball Association. His office is required to maintain a close watch on future prospects for the pro - league in both high school and college ranks.

NAMED to the All - America High School are: John Austin of Hyattsville, Md.; James Ligon of Kokomo, Ind. and Edgar Lacey of Los Angeles, Calif.

Mike Silliman of Louisville, Ky., and Larry Conley, Ashland, Ky., round out the first five.

AUSTIN, though standing only six feet, is regarded as the finest high school eager in the Greater Washington area since Elgin Bayler's spectacular days at Spingarn.

He led DeMatha High to two consecutive national Catholic championships, and to the Metropolitan Washington crown in 1962.

LIGON, AT 6 - feet - 7, is rated with Oscar Robertson of Indianapolis, as one of Indiana's all - time scholastic greats. He played with Kokomo High, 2 - time state champion.

Lacey is the first junior to be chosen on the mythical five since Jerry Lucas (Ohio State All - American) was picked in 1957. The 6-6 youngster stared at Jefferson High, La., and averaged 23.3 points per game.

FIVE OTHER tansters were involved in the all - scholastic selections. Two were named to the second five, one to the third and two to the fourth.

Ed Griffin of Hartford, Conn., and Tony Horton of University High, Los Angeles, were picked on the second team.

Wilson Graham, ball - handling ace of the East Tech quint in Cleveland, Ohio, was the third team choice.

The fourth five selections included Cazzie Russell of Carver High, Chicago, and Jim Williams of Norristown, Pa.

OUTDOOR TIPS

SLOW TROLL TRICK
If your large outboard won't slow down enough to troll at lazy speed, wrap your handkerchief or a piece of line around the propeller blades. Saps their efficiency.

SALT WATER SOAP
If you've tried to use regular bar soap in salt water, you never will again. It doesn't work. Try liquid detergents instead. Their chemical action isn't as hampered by the salt.

FOOD DISH FOR FIDO
Those large, heavy, chrome hubcaps from older model big cars make a fine food dish for your dog. Easy to clean, cost little at any auto yards. Unchewable to.

FERRULE LUBRICANT
Old trick of rubbing male ferrule in hair or on nose keeps rod from sticking together. But so does rubbing it with a lead pencil. "Lead" is really graphite, a fine all-weather lubricant.

NO SPLASH MINNOW PAIL
You know you'll be bothered this season with water in your minnor pail sloshing around as you drive to the fishing grounds. Why not build a splash board now?

Just cut a plywood piece slightly smaller than the pail. Drill with holes to allow surface to aerate.

An oversight?
