Mr. Hodges is running against George W. Della, incumbent, and Clem I. Venture, 415 N. Carey St.

ORDINANCE 1509 was previously an all - inclusive one.

The amendment, which in reality is a substitute ordinance, is patterned after the bill that died on the floor of the House of Delegates, during the March 9 special General Assembly session.

It excludes establishments where alcoholic beverages are the primary sales, such as nightclubs and taverns, and bowling alleys.

Administration of the ordinance would be under jurisdiction of the city's Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

For the purposes of this jurisdiction, this agency would be known as the Equal Opportunity Commission.

Action against offenders would follow a civil line, rather than criminal.

THIS IS the type of ordinance proposed by proponents of the measure, during the public hearing March 27.

Mr. Goodman, City Council president, urged quick action on the ordinance, in the following letter this week to Mr. Hergenroeder, Judiciary Committee chairman:

"Again, I want to compliment you and your committee on the dignified manner in which you conducted the hearing on Ordinance 1509.

"This all - important measure is probably one of the most sensitive and the most controversial pieces of legislation here in the city and the State.

"There are some who felt that this matter should have been decided on a State-wide level. In my opinion, the effect of equal accommodations legislation would have had a more comprehensive effect on a State-wide level.

"However, in my opinion, the failure of the Maryland legislature to pass such an act, should not hinder us from acting on the above ordinance at the earliest possible time.

"Since the hearing was held on March 27, I believe that sufficient time has elapsed for the Judiciary Committee to bring out a recommendation to the City Council.

"I do hope that you will do this at the earliest possible time, and in the normal course of events."

—Eastside tragedies

er is awaiting a preliminary hearing in connection with the slaying.

Mrs. Wingate says she does not know why her husband was killed, but hopes that I will understand sons day."

MR. WINGATE was beaten after a youth accidently bumped into his wife.

Witnesses said that when he told a group of men, "that's my wife," one man grabbed him by the neck and started beating him.

Mrs. Wingate witnessed the beating and attempted to assist her husband until she too was threatened with a beating.

She accompanied her husband to their home after calling for an ambulance.

While at home, Mr. Wingate never complained of his injuries but told his wife, "I'm just tired". He prayed while Mrs. Wingate rubbed his back.

Approximately 20 minutes later he was pronounced dead on arrival at Johns Hopkins Hospital.

IN THE second case, that involved Mrs. Wilson, the mother of seven was beaten on Sunday and later taken to Hopkins Hospital in a critical condition.

Police reported that Mr. Wilson was shot in the feet Monday night.

Police were called to the home of Mrs. Wilson by her mother, Mrs. Annie Hunter; who reported someone was trying to break in. Police said they shot Mr. Wilson as he tried to flee up a fire escape.

the fire escape during a search of the neighborhood. Patrolmen Henry Dumbrowski and John Arlitz said they heard a warning then Mr. Wilson was spotted on the fire escape and fired a shot.

Says White House aide opposing Bob Weaver

The Democratic National Committee put out a few days ago a list of Negro appointees it claimed the Kennedy Administration had made to Government posts.

One of the appointees mentioned was Robert C. Weaver, head of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

But one of the several omissions in Democratic claims was the current report that there is a split in the White House staff over the future of Dr. Weaver.

Informed sources say Ted Sorensen, top aide to President Kennedy, favors the appointment of Dr. Weaver to the Kennedy Cabinet when Secretary of Health, Education and welfare, Abraham Ribicoff, resigns to run for the United States Senate, but Larry O'Brien, White House lobbyist and Capital Hill, opposes Weaver.

O'BRIEN IS reported to believe that Weaver would be a liability because he is colored, and because the United States Office of Education with its segregation problems is under the jurisdiction of the Health, Education and Welfare Department.

SECRETARY RIBICOFF is under fire from civil rights groups because of his opposition to anti-discrimination amendments to Federal-aid-to-school legislation and because he refuses to withhold Federal funds from institutions and school districts which are not complying with the Supreme Court decision against segregated public education.

While the Kennedy Administration bragged about the appointments of colored people it has made, it failed to point out that it fired more colored appointees holding high office under President Eisenhower than it has appointed.

Democratic headquarters listed Thurgood Marshall, former Director-Counsel of the NAACP Legal defense and Education Fund, Inc., who is serving under a recess appointment as a judge of the U.S. Second Circuit Court of Appeals, but it did not disclose that Southern Democrats are blocking his confirmation.

ONE OF the appointments the Democratic National Committee bragged about was that of Clifton R. Wharton as Ambassador to Norway.

Mr. Wharton is a Foreign Service Officer, a Career Minister. President Eisenhower appointed him Minister to Rumania in 1958 — the first time a colored person was ever sent as head of a mission to at European country and a post requiring great skill.
