Jones, Lindsay vows exchanged

Miss Joyce Maureen Jones, granddaughter of Mrs. William F. Jones, was married to Reginald Lewis Lindsay Sunday at St. Ann Catholic Church.

A reception followed the double ring ceremony at Mr. and Mrs. William Hope's home, Garrison Blvd.

In the bridal party were Miss Sylvia C. Jones, the bride's sister and maid of honor; the maids, Miss Lorraine Henson, Elaine Scott and Veronia Thacker.

The flower girl was Patricia Gayle. Bearing the ring was Kevin Keene.

Best man was Wardell Lindsay, the bridegroom's brother. . . .

Ushers were: Ronald Johnson, Stanley McCrae, Maurice Coates, Bernard Thacke William Belin and Clyde Wells.

The bride was given in marriage by her cousin, Louis Keaton.

She was dressed in silk taffeta and lace. The fitted bodice trimmed with sequins and tiny pearls and the bottom tiers of the skirt were lace.

The long sleeves and the rose-trimmed petal-like over skirt were silk taffeta.

THE BRIDE wore a crown of seed pearls from which flowed a waist length veil and carried a bouquet of white roses.

Miss Sylvia Jones, maid of honor, wore a rich pink silk organza dress with matching crown and shoulder length veil.

The bridesmaids were in delicate shades of blue and yellow, green dresses with corresponding half hats and shoulder length veils.

Mrs. Williams Jones Jr., mother of the bride, wore a lovely turquoise chiffon frock and white Chantilly lace hat.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Pearl Barham, was stunning in gold.

The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. William Jones Sr., wore a two-piece silk print with small brimmed matching hat.

Mrs. Ruth Jones King, director and bride's aunt, wore a slim aqua silk dress set off at the neck with a permanent pleated roll collar.

Her aqua hat was an original creation of Clarice Brooks.

A GRADUATE of the Carver Vocational - Technical High School in Cosmetology, the bride is employed by the LaMar Beauty Salon.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Barham, a junior at Morgan State College, plans a teaching career.

The couple will live on Carlisle Ave.

Marjorie Lawson becomes a judge

By ROSEMARIE TYLER

WASHINGTON

As Marjorie McKenzie Lawson approached the bench about to be sworn in by "Mr. Justice" Arthur Goldberg as the first colored woman to be District Judge in the Juvenile Court, the distinguished new Supreme Court Judge said, "I would appear that the quality and the appearance of the judiciary is much improved!"

In that split second, Arthur Goldberg's gallantry caused the audience of family, friends, and well-wishers to concentrate on the well designed black two piece velvet suit and the lovely Symbidium orchid, and the striking mix-gray hair which is more of a family trademark rather than her own!

But only for a second . . . the solemn ceremony was continued made even more impressive by the appearance of the Attorney General of the U.S. Robert Kennedy who delivered the commission for the judgeship from his brother, The President.

Others just as proud for the new judge was her mother, Mrs. T. Wallace McKenzie; Mrs. Fai M. Rucker just back from the Phillipines and a long time friend of the family; and Mrs. Isadore Letcher, another long time family friend.

OTHERS SEEN at the swearing in were Mrs. Sadie Lawson from Hampton Institute a sister-in-law to Judge Lawson; Atty. A. Leon Higginbotham who was sworn in for his new FCC appointment Oct. 18; Col. Campbell Johnson.

Also, Mrs. Irma Dixon of Baltimore, Mrs. Marnette Jackson of the Continentals of D.C.; Mrs. Franklin Whittaker came with Mrs. Alvin Robinson; Mrs. Vi Hinton Curtis, Mrs. Samuel Westerfield, Dr. Dorothy Ferebee, Dr. and Mrs. Montague Cobb, Mrs. Afabella Denniston, Mrs. Celestine Harris, Mrs. Louis Mehlinger, Atty. Jesse Dedmon, Atty. Gertrude Whisonant of the well known Washington Whisonant family; and Mrs. Vinita Lewis, and others.

A NATIVE of Pittsburgh, Mrs. Lawson is a graduate of the University of Michigan, where she also received a Certificate in Social Work; Columbia University Law School and the old Terrell Law School in Washington, D.C.

A member of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, she is married to Belford Lawson, II. She is mother to Belford, III who is an honor student at Harvard University and flew in just to see his mother.

fetes teachers

Scores of visiting teachers in the city for the annual session of the Maryland Educational Association, are expected to be guests tonight (Friday) of Delta Lambda Chapter, Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity.

Local Alphas are holding forth at the Winchester Armory with their annual cabaret for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Although two weeks early, the Halloween motive is to be featured. Edward Young is serving as chairman of the affair. Frank Veney is the chapter's president.

MRS. GOLDMAN FINDS PHONE SAVES 21 HOURS OF TIME AND TRAVEL IN TWO WEEKS

Mrs. Daniel Goldman, of Baltimore, recently completed a two-week "diary" of her family's telephone calls. For each call she also estimated the amount of time, travel and money that was saved by telephoning. At the end of two weeks, the Goldmans' telephone diary showed savings of 21 valuable hours, 293 miles of travel and $22.38.

Mrs. Goldman, who is the mother of four young children (all under ten years) and is active in charitable and community affairs, finds her telephone invaluable. She says, "I don't think our family could accomplish two-thirds of the things we do without the telephone."

What would a telephone diary show in your home? You'd probably find, too, that your phone does far more for you . . . than the little it costs.

"That's the theme of a political cocktail party to be held Sunday at the Club Casino, 1519 Pennsylvania Ave. from 5 to 9 p.m. by the Colored Women's Democratic Campaign Committee of Maryland.

"This affair allows Democratic women to present their political personalities to our public," said Mrs. Victorine Q. Adams, committee chairman, in announcing the party, "As well as help to stimulate interest in the value of the ballot for good government."

Chili-burger pie

At the drop of a biscuit you have delicious tangy CHILI-BURGER PIES! Here the taste and color of food the Mexicans prepare it—zesty and zesty with flavor. chili-hot ground beef mixture is first prepared and heated, then portions of the mixture are spooned into individual serving dishes. Three fluffy biscuits rolled in sesame seeds are then dropped on top of each serving and it all bakes together.

THE EASY, quick to mix biscuits are a biscuit mix — made extra-rich and tender with creamy evaporated milk. The drop biscuits are coated with sesame seeds, which toast while the pie bakes.

When it's mealtime at your house, make it a fiesta. Add Mexican atmosphere with colorful pottery, a gay tablecloth and Mexican do-dads. CHILI-BURGER PIES served with a large green salad are bound to earn you the title—smartest Senora of the evening.

CHILI-BURGER PIE

¼ cup finely cut Onion, 1 lb. ground lean Beef, 1 Tablesp. Butter or Margarine, two 6-oz. cans Tomato Sauce, 1 lb. can Chili Hot Beans, ½ - 1 teasp. Chili Powder (see note), 13/4 cups Biscuit Mix, 1/3 cup PET Evaporated Milk, ¼ cup water, and ¼ cup Sesame Seeds.

Brown onion and ground beef in butter or margarine in 10-inch skillet. Drain. Stir in tomato sauce, chili hot beans and chili powder and cook over low heat about 15 minutes. Mix biscuit mix, evaporated milk and water with a fork in a small bowl. Drop and roll 12 heaping tablespoons dough mixture in sesame seeds. Spoon chili mixture into 4 individual baking dishes. Place 3 biscuit balls on each dish of chili and bake in center of 400 (hot) oven for 20 - 25 minutes or until biscuits are brown. Serves 4.

COMBINE WHIPPING cream, sugar and salt. Chill. Beat until stiff. Fold in rice, pineapple, coconut and lemon juice into whipped cream. Chill well before serving. dry milk may be used in place of whipping cream — for Weight-Watchers.

Rice Around the World

One of the foods, that link my kitchen and yours to those of our neighbors around the world, is RICE. For centuries before the Birth of Christ, it was the mainstay in the Orient. Today, RICE has become a family food in practically every land. Our friends-across-the-Seas have many tasty Rice dishes that are cherished favorites of many Americans. In our present-day cook books, we see such descriptive Rice Recipes as Curry from the Orient, Pilaf from the Middle East and Paella from Spain.

THE United States is blessed in having a surplus of this wonderful, versatile commodity. It is distributed, nation-wide, in her Donated Food Program.

October 21 through 26 will be celebrated as United Nations Week. On Wednesday—October 24th, United Nations Day will be observed with special activities. Let this be an opportunity to strengthen the ties of friendship with our world neighbors. Serve at least one of the Recipes, which follow to your family and friends during the celebration. You will see how similar many of the dishes are to our own.

HUNGARIAN GULYAS

2 strips bacon, coarsely chopped
1½ lbs. ground beef
2½ cups onions, coarsely chopped
2 teaspoons salt
3 Tablespoons paprika
2 cans tomatoes (1 lb ea.)
2½ cups cooked rice
½ cup water

COOK BACON in a large skillet. Pour drippings and bacon into small bowl. Form meat into balls about size of walnuts and brown on all sides. Add onions and cook until they begin to brown. Sprinkle with salt and paprika. Add tomatoes and bacon. Mix well.

Cover and simmer about 45 min. or until meat balls are the desired degree of tenderness. Add a small amount of water, if mixture cooks dry. Stir in rice and water. Heat until rice is hot. Serves 6.

ORIENTAL CURRIED RICE

2 tablespoons butter
1 cup onions, chopped fine
1 cup green pepper
½ cup currants
2 cups rice, uncooked
½ teaspoon curry powder
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 quart chicken broth (or bouillon)

MELT BUTTER, and onions, green pepper, currants and saute until tender. Stir in rice and seasonings; brown lightly. Add chicken broth and mix well; bring to a boil.

Cover with a tight-fitting lid and simmer for 14 min. Remove from heat; toss lightly and serve. Serves 8.

GREEK RICE AND PORK PILAF

¼ lb. lean pork, diced
3 slices bacon, diced
1 onion, chopped
1 cup rice; uncooked
Salt and pepper
2 cups hot water
2 small sweet red pepper, cut in 1-inch pieces
½ cup green peas, cooked

In a skillet, cook the first ingredients until pork is browned. Add rice, salt and pepper; cook for a few minutes. Pour off excess fat. Add hot water and the peppers. Bring to a boil; cover; simmer til rice is done. Add peas. Serves 4.

JOLLOF RICE

½ pound meat
1 cigarette tin brown rice (1 cup)
8 tomatoes
6 onions
2 tablespoonfuls drippings or lard
½ teaspoon ground black pepper
few grains white pepper
1½ pints water (3 cups)

GENTLY BOIL meat for 10 min. Meanwhile, fry onions and 4 tomatoes. Add cooked vegetables and seasonings to meat and simmer for 1½ hours until meat is soft. Cook rice in boiling salted water until soft. Add remaining tomatoes. Stir well and cook together for 10 min.

Serve with boiled peas or mashed beans. The meat (or fish) in this Recipe varies with what is available in the particular village. Ham, spareribs, chicken or shrimp may be used. The fish may be garnished with green peppers and hard-cooked eggs. Serves 2. NOTE: From Nutrition and Cookery Book of Ghana.

MEXICAN FRIED RICE

1 cup long grain rice
1½ cups hot water
6 slices bacon, chopped
1 can condensed consomme
1/8 oz. can seasoned Tomato Sauce
mato Sauce
¼ cup chopped green pepper
¼ cup chopped onion
1 clove garlic, minced
½ teaspoon cumin seed

SOAK RICE in hot water for 25 min.; drain; let stand to dry for about 1 hour. Cook bacon. Add rice to drippings and cook until rice is lightly browned. Add bacon and remaining ingredients. Cover, and cook over low heat stirring constantly, till rice is done and liquid is absorbed, about 30 min. Add water during cooking, if needed. Serves 4 to 6.
