ANNAPOLIS DOINGS

By ELOISE RICHARDSON

On Nov. 1 at 8 p.m. the Anne Arundel County Branch NAACP will launch its annual membership drive at the Mt. Moriah AME Church by the Rev. E. Franklin Jackson, president of the Washington, D.C. Branch, NAACP as keynote speaker.

Musical numbers will be given by Miss Doris Blake and Richard Brown of Washington.

Election of officers will also be conducted. The public is urged to support this program and the membership drive.

If one James Meredith is willing to put up his life as a stake to make possible the asserting of our rights as American citizens, then it is up to other colored citizens to back him with their support in the NAACP.

Every colored citizen in Anne Arundel County is urged to support the Branch in this drive. Funds are needed more than ever so that the NAACP can further its fight for civil rights.

THE ANNE ARUNDEL County Branch of Big Brothers is also launching its drive for more members.

The branch, organized in 1956, is a United Fund Agency supported by the United Appeal. Big Brothers are adult males over 21, who offer friendship and wholesome male influence to bewildered, troubled and unhappy boys who are without the guidance of a father or other adult males.

They are recruited from all walks of life and they relieved help and guidance in their relationship to the boys through consultation with the Big Brother professional staff members. The staff provides a casework service to further assist the youngsters.

Many boys who are helped may be known by the Juvenile Court, may have been in trouble in school or at home, or they may be suffering from a feeling of social inadequacy. Their need is an adult mate who can gain their confidence and help them over the rough spots.

Any adult male interested in the Big Brothers may contact Dr. Oscar J. Kurtz at Big Brothers of Baltimore, Inc., 9 St. Mary's Street, Annapolis, or they may call CO. 3-6333.

CIRCLE NO. 25 of the Douglas Memorial Community Church did a wonderful thing recently when its members showered the Nearly New Shop at Crownsville State Hospital with a large donation of clothing for the patients.

The women gathered at the shop and displayed beautiful clothing and jewelry for the patients, and they showed great enthusiasm as they worked with the patients during the morning and afternoon.

They set a good example for others to do the same.

Those who participated were—Mesdames Swanie Price, president, Beatrice Watson, Alberha Simms, Sue Parson, Margaret Reputers, Grace Hy Des, Terisa Reed and Miss Sarah Jones. Miss Jones is supervisor of elementary schools in Anne Arundel County.

Other members of the group are Mrs. Pearl Alexander, recording secretary; Mrs. Edith Burke, chaplain; and Mr. Sherman Coates, treasurer.

The Van Dyke Combo, a famous local musical group here, appeared recently on a TV station in Baltimore.

Vocalists were Calvin Offer, John Bryan and Albert Brown. The group currently

The 2,000 members of Woman Power are working energetically for voter approval on Election Day of Question F, which provides funds for a new building to replace the 103-year-old structure now housing Provident. Governor and Mrs. Tawes and other candidates of both parties are expected at the luncheon. Photo shows (seated) from left: Lydia Mussenden, Yvette Murphy, Mrs. Verda W. Gosnell, and Mrs. Victorine Q. Adams, president of Woman Power. Standing, from left, are Samuel M. Hecht, hospital trustee, Mrs. Ethel P. Rich, secretary, Citizens Committee for the New Provident Hospital, Robert S. Nyburg, trustee, Mrs. Verda F. Welcome, Dr. Saul M. Perdue, president of the hospital's board of trustees, and Dr. Deloris C. Hunt.

Urban League head

MUSKEGON, Mich. — (ANP) — Frank Val Wilkerson, executive director of the Urban League of Muskegon, died recently after a lengthy illness. Wilkerson was industrial relations secretary of the Columbus Urban League before accepting the Muskegon post.

A native of Austin, Texas, he was a graduate of the University of Omaha where he earned the bachelor of science degree in education and a master of arts degree in sociology.

School Board approves superintendent changes

The School Board at its Thursday meeting approved reorganization of certain administrative responsibilities at the Board of Superintendent's level designed to ease administrative procedures and benefit the educational program.

Dr. George B. Brain, school superintendent, announcing the re-shuffling, said there had been no major duty and responsibility changes of Board of Superintendent members since 1955.

The changes include:

Dr. Houston R. Jackson, now assistant superintendent, Staff services, appointed administrative head of the newly established Division of Pupil Personnel and Staff Services.

Dr. Jackson's duties will include promoting closer working relationships between pupil personnel workers and teachers, cooperate with community youth agencies to age out youth unemployed, provide guidance services, special services and educational testing services.

• • •

EDWIN STEIN, now deputy superintendent, will aid the superintendent to coordinate all teaching services, see that the superintendent's directives are carried out, and to consult with division heads on policy interpretations.

Mr. Stein will also develop continuously improving teacher program by sending out information helpful to the aims, methods and procedures of the school system.

He will also act as superintendent in Dr. Brain's absence.

Walter A. Maccubbin, now assistant superintendent of staff Personnel and General Administrative Services, as head of the newly established Division of Staff Personnel and General Administrative Services.

His duties will include: providing staff leadership for his division, working out with division heads plans for hiring, promoting and transfering teachers and classified workers, and set up a continuing system of personnel records.

Mr. Maccubbin will also serve as department head on budget officer, preparing the annual payroll budget, assisted by division heads.

• • •

THE BOARD also approved the position of Director of Staff Personnel and General Administrative Services, but left it vacant to await applications from qualified persons approved by the board.

In 18 other changes approved by the Board:

Dr. Robert C. Lloyd, now administrative assistant, transferred to coordinator of the Citizens Advisory Committee Study Project.

Mrs. Catherine Brunner, now elementary education supervisor, transferred to coordinator of the Early Admissions Project.

MRS. VELMA BRANCH, now kindergarten teacher at Cappin Elementary School No. 132, appointed senior teacher for the Early Admissions Project Center at Mt. Royal Elementary School No. 66.

Roland Randall, now department head of science at Mergenthaler Vocational Technical High School No. 410, appointed specialist, Vocational - Industrial Education.

The following were granted leaves of absence: Mrs. Bertha Goodman, Mrs. Phyllis Davis, Mrs. Emily Lee, Mrs. Betty Martin, and Mrs. Selina Schoenfeld.

Resignations were accepted from: Mesdames Shirley Finderson, Phyllis Trump, Helen Wah, Marjorie Graffin, Elizabeth Hansen, Arlene Tabak, Margaret Trubisky, and Elizabeth Young.

ELI FRANK, president of the Board, announced the appointment of the Board's 25-member Citizens Committee, which included these three persons who now have accepted leadership responsibilities.

In other school board business, Dr. Brain said the present school enrollment is 180,300. Available facilities cannot house 43,200 of these pupils.

Dr. Brain said even with the $45 million loan requested in the Capital Improvement Program to run until 1963, the city's elementary schools will still lack pupil space for 4,850, the junior high schools space for 345, and senior-high schools, 600.

The building program would relieve overcrowding and part - timeness, but not obsolescence of buildings, he said. At present, 60 buildings built before the turn of the century are still being used.

Court to review

The Supreme Court has agreed to review the conviction of Edward Walton, Jr., 29, of Ashdown, Ark., who is sentenced to death for the June 1959 slaying of a nightwatchman.

In Memoriam

AULTON — In loving memory of our dear mother, REV. MARY E. AULTON, who passed away October 24, 1960.

On mother, dear, when you were here,
We had your tender care;
And now we can never take your place,
Or fill that vacant chair.
You were the sunlight of our home
Till God took you away;
But we never will forget you
And we'll meet in Heaven, we pray.

Children, RUTH B. BOOZE, G. LEE AULTON, GENEVIEVE CLARK, EDITH WILLIAMSON And GRANDCHILDREN

BAKER — In loving memory of our loved one, ANNIE, who passed away October 26, 1957.

Our hearts are heavy, Our thoughts are all of thee, Oh, how we miss you loved one, dear.
None but God in Heaven can see, Some say time heals an aching heart;
But no, it isn't true
For fifteen long years have passed
Since we last saw for you,
And our hearts are still aching.

LOVING DAUGHTER, DOROTHY G. BAKER GRANDSON-JAMES J. BAKER

BIVENS — In loving memory of my beloved husband and my father, CHARLES BIVENS who departed this life October 26, 1958.

Those whom we love and lose can't be forgotten
But never cease to be deeply missed
Of those they leave behind;
Loved and kind in all his ways
Upright and just to the end of his days
Sincere and true in heart and mind
Sacred memories he left behind.

HIS LOVING WIFE—ADA CHILDREN, GRANDCHILDREN AND GREAT-GRANDDAUGHTER

BROWN — In memory of our sister, JULIA G. BROWN, who passed away October 26, 1958.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

MARGARET G. COPPIS HARRIETT G. WILLIS HENRIETTA GROSS

BROWN — In memory of my husband, HIRAM S. BROWN, who departed October 26, 1960.

Teach me, Oh Lord, to understand
The working of a mighty hand,
That I may know the Victory's
When
I can say "Thy will be done."

LOVING WIFE, FLORENCE BROWN

DIXON — In loving memory of my husband, REV. JOHN W. JAMES, who passed away October 26, 1960.

When the evening shades are falling
And we are sitting all alone,
In our hearts there is a longing
In you only could come home.
Oft and oft our thoughts do wander
To your grave we go to weep
There we think of you dearest loved one
Left
Twelve years ago today
Loving Wife, ELLA M. WINDLEY.

DIXON — In loving memory of my dear daughter, LOVIE V. DIXON, who passed away October 25, 1950.

I am lost
I often sit and think of days gone by
I am alone,
Yet I am not
The only friend that ever cried
Alone in the world
Darkness decay,
Life fades and fades
Still keep green,
Memory never fades

LOVING MOTHER-IDA JONES.

GRESHAM — Sacred to the memory of our daughter, MARTHA DEAN GRESHAM, who passed October 26, 1957.

Death has gone, but the treasure is left behind
Is truly a value untold;
A life filled with acts of kindness
And
Beauty of heart and soul.

MRS. FANNIE L. GRESHAM, WALTER W. GRESHAM
