CHARLES BROWN
"For a lousy two cents . . ."

the thugs attack the sick man reported she yelled at them to stop hitting him, that Mr. Brown was a sick man and had no money.

She described how they picked him up, and threw him in the alley at Smallwood and Herbert Sts., exclaiming, "Why didn't you say so," and then fled.

Mr. Brown managed to stumble the two blocks to his home. A trail of blood, from a bash over his left eye, showed the path he staggered.

Neighborhood children, who have known Mr. Brown because he whiled away his time sitting on his porch, or limping around the block, looked at him in amazement.

THE VICTIM'S wife told the AFRO that since his illness Mr. Brown had walked with a limp, much in a manner of a man who is under the influence of intoxicating beverages.

"It is likely," she explained, "that the boys thought he was just another drunk, and did not realize he was a sick man, with no money on him."

Mr. Brown lived at the comfortable Clifton Avenue two - story house residence with his wife, his mother and two teenage children.

HIS MOTHER is Mrs. Margaret Brown, widow of Robert Brown. She is well known as a church and fraternal worker.

The children are Treva, 18, a June graduate of Western High School, now a freshman at Central State College; and Chewanney, 15, a Chewanney, 15, a Polytechnic student, who plays on the school JV team, and in the school band.

In addition, Mr. Brown is survived by a brother, Leroy A. Brown of Baltimore.

THE DECEASED was educated in the Baltimore schools, and was graduated from Douglass High School in the class of 1939.

He has been employed in the post office ever since graduation, except for a brief tour of duty in the Navy during World War 2.

He was a member of St. Gregory Catholic Church of which Father Joseph Reed is pastor.

Ironically, a church member, Robert Brooks, had breakfast at the Brown home an hour before Mr. Brown was attacked.

Funeral mass was said at the church this morning (Friday). Mr. Brown belonged to the Postal Alliance and the St. Vincent diPaul Society.

RFK admits our linen must be washed first

NEW YORK — Atty Gen. Robert F. Kennedy declared Sunday, America has to clean up its racial and religious prejudices before it can fully cope with extreme problems in other parts of the world.

The President's brother, here to receive the American Jewish Congress' Stephen S. Wise Award, noted "great progress" has been made in civil rights, but admitted "we still have a very long way to go."

Mr. Kennedy said the fight "our ships are on station in the Caribbean and why American soldiers are on duty in West Berlin, South Viet Nam and South Korea."

"WE WILL win this struggle," he continued, "just by confronting the enemy. What we do at home, in the final analysis, is just as important."

"Thus, we all must accelerate our efforts to banish religious prejudice, racial discrimination and any intolerance which denies to any American the right guaranteed them by the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution."

Dunbar, Carver MSA underdogs

Dunbar and Carver high schools two former conference champions, loom as distinct underdogs in Maryland Scholastic Association football games coming up this weekend.

The Poets tangle with Patterson today (Friday) at Patterson Park, and the Cubs engage Southern at Kirk Field tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon.

In both cases, the opposition boasts records that are superior to their all-tan rivals.

Dunbar will be struggling to reach a .500 level, after having been manhandled by City and Mt. St. Joe the past two Fridays. They go into the Patterson fray with a 2-3 mark, while the latter will be showing a 4-1 record and still seething from being knocked from the unbeaten ranks a week ago by Poly.

Carver, still seeking her first win of a season that follows last year's division title, takes on a Southern High team that has won two of three, and laft week polished off St. Paul's with ease.

Paul Robeson ill in London

LONDON (NNPA) — The expatriate American singer Paul Robeson, 64, was reported Friday to be taking a rest in the Priory Nursing Home at Roehampton.

Dr. John Flood, medical director at the home, issued a statement in which he said: "Mr. Robeson is seeing no one apart from his family."

PROMOTED — Frederick A. Howard, 40, former linotype machinist foreman, has been promoted to the position of production superintendent of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspapers, effective this week Mr. Howard, a '49 graduate of Hampton, joined the AFRO staff the same year as linotype operator. He is a grandnephew of AFRO Founder John H. Murphy Sr., and a member of the company's board of directors. His wife is Mrs. Odessa Howard, a Baltimore school secretary. They attend Union Memorial Methodist Church.

Greeks at Morgan likely to resume pledging today

Morgan State College fraternities and sororities, under suspension since Oct. 22, will likely be able to resume activities today (Friday).

The Greek - letter organizations were given until Nov. 1 to purge themselves of members they knew to be violating the ban on excessive hazing of pledges.

The suspension, purportedly followed a complaint by the mother of an AKA pledgee that her daughter had been roughed - up and required to spend too much money for clothes.

The college's Pan Hellenic Council, which governs fraternal groups, subsequently ordered all of them to halt pledge activities.

In its meeting, this afternoon, word is that the Council, if satisfied the Greeks have cleaned house, will allow pledging activities to continue.

DON'T FORGET to VOTE on Tuesday, Nov. 6. Polls open until 7 p.m. Study AFRO ballot in this issue before you go to the polls.

'City may be surprised,' says Duck coach Cragway

"If we can get a few breaks, City may be in for a big surprise."

That is the way coach Roy Cragway is thinking as his Douglass High School eleven prepares for City College this afternoon (Friday) in their important Maryland Scholastic Association clash.

The Ducks, manacled to a 1-4 record for the season, are definite underdogs to a City team that has won 2 and lost 2. They meet at 3:30 p.m., at Kirk Field.

"OUR FIRST-string quarterback, Roger Young, has been out for the past couple games," Cragway explained; "and we're welcoming him back for this one."

"Young throws the ball well, which is something we've been lacking while he was hurt. That, together with the wonderful spirit that prevails with our kids, could spell trouble for City.

"THEY'VE GOT a nicely-balanced attack, with Tom Duley running in great form, and that kid (Jerry) Wisner passing as good as any high school boy in the city.

"I think we're coming along, though, and if we can get a few breaks, City may be in for a big surprise."
