The News of the Churches

Father Mills

Arlington Ayes.

SINCE 1951, the Rt. Rev. Albert Ervine Swift has been bishop of churches in both the Virgin Islands and Puerto Rico.

He was at one time curate of St. David's Church here in Roland Park.

There are four parishes in St. Croix and St. Thomas, with 2,714 active communicants.

The Bishops' Council found the work required the services of two bishops.

Present at the Council were 126 of the church's 191 bishops. The vote for the Baltimore prelate was overwhelming (102).

He was nominated by the committee on Missionary Bishops, headed by the Rt. Rev. Anson P. Stobea of Massachusetts.

FATHER AND MRS. MILLS were in New York when they received word of his election. They were asked to fly down to the Bishops' Council immediately, but were unable to do so.

He told the AFRO, he has not decided "anything on short notice."

Any decision will await a meeting with the Rt. Rev. Noble C. Powell, bishop of Maryland, who was a the conference, he said.

DR. C. R. CAMPBELL, senior warden and head of the St. James Vestry board, told the AFRO he heard the news of the election "with mixed feelings."

He explained: "In one way, if he wants it, I am glad for him. On the other hand, I will be sorry to see him go. It is quite an honor, so it is something he will have to pray over and decide. . . ."

St. James Church called Father Mills to become pastor in August, 1940, to succeed the late Father George F. Bragg, pastor 49 years.

A native of Hartford, Conn. the Rev. Mr. Mills is a graduate of Lincoln University, Pa., and a magna cum laude graduate of the Philadelphia Divinity School (1929), which awarded him an honorary doctor of divinity degree in 1960.

He is also a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and holds an honorary degree from Lincoln U.

He was ordained in the Episcopal Church in 1929 and was priest - in - charge of a Plainfield, N.J. parish, before coming to Baltimore.

In the 22 years, he has been in Baltimore, Bishop-elect Mills has been active in numerous community endeavors, and has advanced the membership and services offered by St. James, now in its 139th year.

HE IS the second Episcopal minister to be elevated to the bishopric in the past five weeks.

I September, Archdeacon John M. Burgess was elected suffragan (assistant) bishop of Massachusetts, also a first.

The 50 Virgin Islands are located in the Eastern Caribbean Sea, 1500 miles southeast of New York. Population totals 32,000, 60 per cent of them colored.

The capital city is Charlotte Amalie. It is 133 square miles, a trifle bigger than Hartford, Conn. (110 sq. miles). Largest of the islands are St. Thomas, St. Croix and St. John.

Residents of the Islands have been United States citizens since 1927.

The Islands are administered by the Department of Interior and a governor, Ralph Paiewonsky, appointed by President Kennedy last year.

Legislative branch of government is a house of 11 senators, elected for two years.

TEMPERATURE in the Virgin Islands, (whose main industry is tourism — 165,000 visitors annually), is 78 de-

integrate motel

The House of Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church has successfully integrated a motel in Columbia, South Carolina.

The body rented an entire motor hotel, downtown, so that its two Librarian missionary bishops would be housed with white bishops during the annual meeting here.

The two colored Americans are Rev. David W. Harris and, missionary bishop of Liberia, and Rev. Dillard H. Brown Jr., who formerly pastored in Washington, D.C., at St. Lukes Episcopal Church.

Also included among the forty church men staying at the motel are Rev. Arthur Michael Ramsey, Archbishop of Canterbury, and Rev. Arthur Lichtenberger, Presiding Bishop of the denomination.

The Archbishop is Primate of England and spiritual head of the Anglican community.

The Town House Motel, where the two colored bishops are staying, is just a few blocks from the Baptist Church where the first sessions convention was organized just before the Civil War.

Although chain stores in Columbia agreed last summer to let colored persons eat with whites at their lunch quarters are a rarity in this state which is the only Southern state with no desegregated schools, at all.

Restaurants in the city, however, are still segregated and the two colored bishops have been taking their meals with the other bishops at Trinity Episcopal Church, headquarters for the meeting, or at private homes.

Sharp Street honors women

ATTENTION!
ALL LOT OWNERS! PERSONS HOLDING DEEDS! and OTHER INTERESTED PERSONS!
We, The Baltimore Annual Conference of the A.M.E. Church, are endeavoring to begin renovation of Mt. Zion Cemetery.
What we will be able to accomplish depends on — YOU and what you are willing to contribute toward this effort.
Our records show that a majority have not paid for UPKEEP for over a period of fifteen years. Consequently, our cemetery has become an eyesore and disgrace to us and to the public because of the lack of funds.
This is your opportunity to aid in making Mt. Zion a more presentable spot and a tribute to your deceased.

SOUTH BALTIMORE NOTES

New pastor to talk at Mt. Winans Church

BY WALTER W. E. HILL

Mt. Winans First Baptist Church will celebrate their annual Men's Day this Sunday, Nov. 4. The 11 a.m. services will feature their newly elected pastor, the Rev. Samuel Ray. A program is in store for the 7 p.m. services along with the reports of the day. James Keys, chairman; Earl Thomas, co-chairman.

The Hagerstown District of the Washington Annual Conference of the AME Church, under Presiding Elder T. C. Freeman, join in extending their sympathy in the passing of their bishop, the Rt. Rev. Frank Madison Reid.

Congratulations to the Men of Bethany upon the success of their annual day last Sunday in which they raised the sum of $1,202.21 with the Rev. Richard Wallace standing first with $93.66.

An inspiring crowd attended the Civil Defense meeting on Monday night at the Library at North and Pennsylvania Ave. Speakers for the evening were Charles Perry, district coordinator; and Albert Holley, deputy district coordinator.

Other officials attending were Levin Lansdown, chief radio officer; Mrs. Rebecca Thomas, captain, rescue squad; Andrew Johnson, deputy captain; and yours truly, 1st class squadman rescue and press.

November 6 is your day to fulfill your obligation as a citizen by casting your vote. Remember the many who cannot exercise this duty. Vote.

BOOKER T. HOMES —We are feeling mighty proud of our newly organized basketball team. Our young people are now promoting a drive to raise funds for uniforms. The members are all boys from the Booker T. Homes.

They attend the Fairmont Heights High School. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hall gave the team the use of their home for a party recently.

The proceeds are to be used for entry fees and uniforms. The parents and friends of these fine fellows hope to interest all the community in this undertaking. So let us all get behind our own basketball team and make this drive a success.

Players are Garnelle Dent-forward; Richard Cole-guard and forward; Nathaniel Bowman-guard and forward; James Lawson-guard and center; Lamond Blond-center; Bobby Conyers-forward; Lee Morris-guard; Leslie Spicer - forward; Kenny Mitchell-guard and center; William Minor guard and forward; Merrith Spicer, guard. Good Luck fellows . . . . . .

RANDOLPH VILLAGE — The missionaries observed their regular monthly service at the House of Prayer Church of God in Centerville, Va. Elder Floyd Brown, the pastor, welcomed the large group making the trip. Helen Myles, president of the missionary society reported a soul stirring program was heard.

DUPONT Heights — Miss Susan Howard attended the A. and T. Homecoming last week as guest of Miss Eleanor Ford of D.C.

JONESTOWN — The Elkridge Circuit will observe Holy Communion services at the Mt. Pisgah Church on Sunday, the Rev. Thomas Hawkins, pastor. Services are to be held at 11 a. m.

MITCHELLVILLE — The Rev. Roland Howard, pastor of the Mt. Nebo Church, has extended an invitation to the pastor, the Rev. Thomas Hawkins, choir and congregation to worship at the 7:30 service, Sunday.

BRANDYWINE — The Rev. J. P. Harrison who formerly pastored here as well as the Elkridge Circuit and T. B. is now confined to the Washington Center Hospital following a heart attack last week. He recently preached at Mt. Pisgah and was accompanied by his congregation from Pilgrim Church in D.C. Your prayers are asked for him and his family.

RIDGLEY — Ridgley Center PTA will entertain at the hospitality room of the Coca-Cola Plant tonight (Friday) with a Harvest Ball. The Untouchables will make with the music. Be sure to be on hand for an evening of fun. Call Mrs. Dorothy Butler, HI. 9-5246 or Mrs. Doris Wooten, LA. 6-7250.

Upper Marlboro — Ladies Auxiliary of the Frontiersmen are expecting you at their hat, gift and jewelry party at the home of Mrs. Emory Tolson, Sunday. This is your opportunity to make yourself happy as well as a chance to help a worthy cause. Mrs. Tolson will be looking for you and all the fine ladies of the auxiliary who work so hard year 'round on so many community projects, will be on hand to greet you.

GLENARDEN — Mayor James R. Cousins, Jr. again reminds you that the town census will be taken November 1 through November 10. Every resident is requested to cooperate and answer fully all questions.

Plans are being formulated for the Christmas party. Santa Claus will be coming to Glenarden along about the 21st.

FAIRMONT Heights — We were privileged to have a long chat with Mayor Doswell Brooks this week. He tells us that AFRO News boys are sort of scarce out in some sections. Parents, don't you want to get your sons started on an AFRO route?

Mrs. Inez L. Porter the town clerk and treasurer is a wonderful lady. We have known her for a long time and one always finds her so gifted in meeting the public. Mayor Brooks will have a message for you in the next week's edition of the Afro-American. Arrange to get yours early.

COMING YOUR WAY! FOLLOW THE CROWDS! GOD'S LAST CALL TO AMERICA!
GREAT SPIRITUAL AWAKENING!
A. A. ALLEN
GOD'S MAN OF FAITH AND POWER!
WITH THE WORLD'S GREATEST MIRACLE REVIVAL EVANGELISTIC PARTY!
DON'T BE DECEIVED BY PROPAGANDA!
DON'T BE MISLED BY "POISON PEN" WRITERS!
DON'T LET RUSSIA BRAINWASH YOU IN A CHURCH WASH PAN!
Remember, enemies of the Gospel (sometimes disguised as religious people) are at work to bring powerful forces against Christians and Preachers who stand for Healing and Miracles! Don't Forget, our constitutional rights of religious freedom are being severely challenged by forces that want a Government Controlled Church in America!
Here are partial quotes from Brainwashing, a book with part of Russia's instructions for destroying the Church in America! "Ridicule and Defame the Preacher if they Advertise a Healing Campaign, call it a hoax; the Church, especially the Healing Campaign, must be destroyed, even if you have to resort to wild lies, personal defamations, false evidences, and constant (bad) propaganda."
